BOOZE GUNMEN ARM FOR FIGHT TO THE FINISH

Quiz Car Owner on Smith Slaying.

CRIMINAL COURT.

James Caffery, burglary, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell; Frank Baraky, indecent liberties, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary, by Judge Emanuel Eller.

Chicago gunmen last night either remained in seclusion or went abroad heavily armed, offensively on the defensive.

More killings were expected to follow the two latest sorties of the gangsters — the assassination of Louis "Big" Smith, bad man from New York, and the Michigan avenue attempt to do the same to Vincent Drucci, a power in the present north side rum clique.

Wholesale Killing Expected.

Informed persons said at night that all gang combines and agreements appeared to be broken; that promises and pledges of amity were considered off; and that a wholesale killing appeared to be only a matter of time, dependent on the coincidental meeting of rival automobile loads of armed hoodlums determined to "get the other guy before he gets you."

Oddly enough it was not the killing of Smith that brought this tense situation. Instead it was the attempt that failed to kill Drucci. When the gang attacked Drucci in Michigan avenue, it became known last night, Hymie Weiss, his even more powerful leader, was with him. And Weiss and Drucci were not killed. They saw the man who attempted to kill them.

Smith Painted a Bully.

Smith, it was said, was more of a bully. A few months ago he had shot Isaac Stein in the back and kicked him out of the car, letting him crawl miserably home to die.

Smith would do a lot of hijacking; but his rating in this industry was deepened by the fact that he would also go out piercing automobile tires with an ice pick for a matter of what the bootleggers considered a mere bagatelle.

But with the attempt to take off Drucci and Hymie Weiss it was different. Here was a declaration of war.

The Gangs That Gather.

Among the gunman-bootleg gangs ready for action were those from the McErlane-Saltis-McFall, the Ralph Sheldon, the "Spike" O'Donnell, and the De Coursey camps on the south side. There were those from the west side—the henchmen of Myles and Klondike O'Donnell; muscle men from the Torrio-Capone gang, from the Genna, and miscellaneous crews.

And then there were the hoodlums of the north side gang, that of the late Dean O'Banion, into whose shoes Hymie Weiss has stepped with Drucci as a lieutenant.

Investigation of the two shootings of Tuesday resulted in little information being brought to light during the day. Nine men were arrested, but they were all released.

Smith's Lieutenant Sought.

One man persistently sought, but not found, was "Sammy, the Greenie" Jacobson, right hand man of "Big" Smith. Jacobson disappeared from his usual haunts with the shots that killed his chief. Police were convinced that he could tell something about events that led to the murder.

Among the men arrested during the day were Julian "Potatoes" Kaufman, well known gangster, and Ernest Verquiet, Joseph Burns and James Driscoll, all said to be members of the Weiss-Drucci gang. These four were arrested after a bureau squad early in the morning had chased them to a garage and found each of them carrying a .45 caliber automatic pistol.

Arrest Father and Son.

Abraham Goldman, and his 21 year old son, Louis, of 1114 South Homan avenue, were arrested last night after an automobile owned by the elder Goldman, had been found standing in front of the home of J. L. Sbarbaro, 1000 South Albany avenue.

The car resembled the one in which Smith's assassin had been seen driving away. Goldman told conflicting tales about it.

At first he said he had let Smith have it a week ago because he believed the gangster was going to buy it. Later he said he had let Smith have the car because his son, Louis, had committed a robbery with it.

Goldman and his son were being questioned at the detective bureau at early hour this morning.

Priests Executed by Firing Squads.

Nearly forty persons have been executed by federal troops in connection with religious riots, according to reports from Mexico City covering the period since the new religious laws went into effect on Aug. 1

Five priests were reported executed by a firing squad in La Guayaba, in the state of Michoacan, on charges of inciting Indians to violence.

Archbishop Ruiz of Michoacan said that between twenty-seven and thirty-seven Catholics, two of them priests, had been executed at Sahuayo, Michoacan, and Acambaro and Irapuato, in the state of Guanajuato.

The archbishop said about fifty persons were killed in a battle which began when residents of Sahuayo fired on troops who had come to close the churches.

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—The government has detailed a swarm of secret agents to investigate the thousands of secret chapels throughout the republic and to discover property clandestinely held by the church as an organization and by priests as individuals. The move is part of the department of the interior's campaign begun today for nationalization of all churches and church property.

Private chapels are not subject to the general church law, provided they remain altogether private. However, the private family chapels have been frequented by friends and acquaintances of the owners until they have become veritable churches.

Violates Constitution.

According to the spirit of the law, this is a violation of the constitution which has passed unnoticed. Since the church trouble arose more than a year ago and more especially since the beginning of the present deadlock between the government and church on Aug. 1, private chapels have become so popular that the charge is made against the church authorities that the upper classes still have churches in which the priests officiate while the masses are denied church ceremonies.

Government agents report that there have been more than 400 infractions of the law, in which private family chapels have been opened to the public and receiving others than members of the families.

The department of the interior has ordered the closing of all chapels violating the law. Undoubtedly, thousands of private chapels will be closed.

Summon Chapel Owners.

Already many private chapel owners have been called to answer before the attorney general why the chapels should not become national property, because they have ceased to be private when they admit to services people from outside the family.

The government today also ordered the church to answer why 100 pieces of clergy-owned property should not become the property of the state, as priests are forbidden to hold property.

El Grafico says the government's move is the beginning of a campaign to take over property valued at $600,000,000.

Prelate Leaves $60,000,000.

As an instance of the great wealth within the church, and of some Catholic priests, Bishop Gillou of Oajacou left property, consisting largely of ranches, valued at $60,000,000. Bishop Montes de Oca in the state of San Luis Potosi has an estate valued at $40,000,000. Both inherited the property. Msgr. Gillow before his death about a year ago was rated as the richest prelate in the world.

It is said that property valued at many millions is held for the church by devoted Catholics, who pass as the owners in the eyes of the law. Previous governments often have winked at this practice, which was forbidden by the constitution of 1857.

If thousands of chapels and concealed properties are seized it will cut off the main income of the church and priests. In some notably Catholic towns and cities the Catholic church held extensive properties, in defiance of the law which forbids the church to hold property.

THE REFORMED SMOKER

WHITTEMORE AT ROPE'S END; MAY SWING TONIGHT

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Richard Reese Whittemore's last fight in the Maryland state courts to stave off the gallows ended in defeat today when Judge Robert F. Stanton in city court dismissed habeas corpus proceedings and refused to issue a writ of error.

G. L. Pendleton, Negro attorney who instigated the eleventh hour proceedings, left tonight for Beverly Farms, Mass., to lay the case before Associate Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes in an attempt to obtain a writ of supersedeas.

Pendleton expects to arrive at Beverly Farms late tomorrow. Whittemore is scheduled to die a few minutes after midnight tomorrow.

Gov. Albert C. Ritchie has announced he will not grant a reprieve unless specifically advised to do so by Attorney General Thomas E. Robinson. Attorney General Robinson argued against the granting of writs of habeas corpus or error before Judge Stanton today.

50 Injured in Berlin Riots on Republic Day

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—Despite police precautions, the seventh anniversary of the proclamation of the Weimar republican constitution was marred shortly before midnight when communists assaulted republicans returning from a torch light procession in a downpour of rain. Fifty wounded on both sides were taken to hospitals. The red "front fighters" continued the battle until police reinforcements separated the combatants.

Appeal for Unity.

President von Hindenburg this afternoon reviewed a guard of honor in the square before the Reichstag building, where the republicans displayed their black and gold flags and listened to speeches by their leaders on the ethical, political, and personal values of the Weimar constitution.

In the Reichstag, President von Hindenburg, his cabinet and many members of the diplomatic corps heard Chancellor Marx and Minister of the Interior Kulz deliver addresses eulogizing the republican form of government and appealing for unity among the German people.

Coolidge Sends Congratulations.

Washington, Aug. 11.—(AP)—President Coolidge in a message of congratulations to President Von Hindenburg on the seventh anniversary of the birth of the German republic today, said: "On this anniversary of the birth of the republic of Germany, I extend to your excellency on behalf of the government of the United States and in my own name cordial congratulations and earnest wishes for the continued prosperity of Germany."

BLAZING CROSS HURLED IN AUTO OF BLIND NEGRO

The Maxwell street police early today were searching for a crowd of men who threw a fiery cross into the automobile of George Williams, colored, which was parked in front of his home at 719 West Fourteenth place. A few minutes after the fire department had extinguished the blaze a barrage of bricks bound with oil soaked rags and set afire were hurled through the windows of the building where Williams lives, entirely occupied by colored families, causing damage estimated at $500 and severely burning a young woman. No reason for the attack could be learned from Williams, a veteran of the world war, who was blinded while in the Argonne.

PLANE PURSUES 3 ELEPHANTS IN CANADA WILDS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 11.—Western headquarters of the Canadian Pacific railway issued today the most unique order ever issued on a Canadian railway. Engineer Frank Sheridan was instructed by telegraph to keep a sharp lookout for three elephants on the Crows Nest division. They had escaped six days ago from the coterie of 14 being transported by the Sells-Floto circus and remain at large in the densely wooded and mountainous country around Cranbrook, British Columbia, where several forest fires are raging.

As a result of the elephants escape five men are in the hospital, fifty circus employes and Indian guides are on the trail, and an airplane is being rushed to Cranbrook.

While pushing through the thick forest on Tuesday on a big stallion, an Indian guide was surprised when one of the elephants charged through the bush, crashing everything down before him. With a shrill squeal of terror the horse plunged backward, rolling completely over and throwing his rider. The Indian fled in one direction, his steed in another. Fortunately for the Indian, the elephant pursued the horse for considerable distance and permitted the hunted man to scramble to safety up the hillside.

With the plane being rushed to Cranbrook is "Cheerful" Gardiner of the Carl Hackenback shows, Wichita, Kas. Gardiner, said to be one of the world's foremost animals trainers, will help to herd the animals back to the circus.

Widow, 68, Is First One Killed by I. C. Electric

Probably the first person to be killed by an Illinois Central electric train since the new suburban service was inaugurated was Mrs. Louise Odell, 68 years old, a widow living at 3355 Park avenue, who was struck while hurrying across the tracks last night. Her two companions, Mrs. P. R. Chapman and Mrs. Edward Meyers, had narrow escapes from death.

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—The savings accounts of Berliners will reach 100,000,000 marks [about $24,000,000] by Sept. 1, officials of the city's savings institutions say. Despite this fact there is an unemployment roll numbering 270,000.

Confessing that the marriage of an aged, wealthy man is almost certain to end in disillusionment, Reteos M. Tashjian, 70 years old, member of the Tashjian family, Armenian rug dealers, yesterday made ready to offer a unique defense to a suit for divorce filed in the Superior court by Mrs. Virginia M. Tashjian, 38 years old, 1945 Berwyn avenue, who charged cruelty.

Despite his years and his wealth, Tashjian thought, he said, that by taking unusual precautions he could select a young wife who would love him for himself and not for his money. He drew up a marriage contract, which contained all his ideas of what a wife should be.

Uses Great Foresight.

This contract attempted to forestall all the causes which usually disrupt matrimony. It described the manner in which the wife should conduct herself after marriage. It disposed, or seemed to dispose, of the mother-in-law question, the religious question, the servant problem.

Tashjian, and his bride to be, signed the contract in the presence of witnesses. But only five months after the wedding ceremony last Feb. 15 she filed suit for divorce. Tashjian said he would take the contract today to Attorney Charles E. Erbstein and offer it as a defense to the suit and as the basis of a cross bill for divorce.

The first section of the contract, dated Oct. 22, 1925, was written by Tashjian. It was as follows:

"At this advanced age, I am going to get married to relieve my loneliness. I want to form a happy family life.

"I demand that my wife be faithful to me in every way and be a model Christian wife.

Provides Wife Must Obey.

"She must be obedient to me, modest, honorable, humble, and not obstinate. She must love me with great affection, not for my money or riches. The foundation of a marriage that is based on money is apt to be weak and to fall apart soon.

"I desire that she may live in such an exemplary manner that her life may be an example to others. We will worship God together, sometimes at her church and sometimes at mine.

"I demand that she be a good housewife, but not that she overtire herself with work that servants should properly do.

"She must treat my family in such a manner that they will learn to respect and honor her. Love must be mutual."

Her Share of Contract.

Then came Mrs. Tashjian's statement which read: "I love Mr. Tashjian and I am going to marry him not for his money nor his wealth, nor for pleasure. I know that he is a Christian and a good, kind, true gentleman. I will try and promise to be faithful, good natured in every way, modest, humble and a model wife, obedient to him and not contrary.

"I will try my best to make him happy and contented and I expect him to do the same, happy with him in happiness, sharing his sorrows. I will try to keep him cheerful, to overlook small wrong doings, so that we will live in harmony. If I leave my husband without legal cause, I shall be deprived of my rights as his wife."

The marriage was happy for exactly one month, according to both. Then, Tashjian began to be abusive to his wife, she said. He replied that she violated almost every provision of the contract.

Chicago Has a Deathless Day from Automobiles

For the first time in weeks no deaths due to automobile accidents were reported yesterday. The county's motor death toll remained 503 since Jan. 1.

THREE JUDGES ISSUE DECISION TO KNOCK IT OUT

Must Go to Supreme Court.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

The Illinois primary election laws were held invalid and unconstitutional by three judges sitting en banc in the Lee county Circuit court at Dixon yesterday. Their decision, if sustained by the Supreme court, will wipe out the entire system of making party nominations by direct primaries in Illinois.

The basis of the suit and of the decision is that equal representation in county conventions, and consequently in state and judicial conventions, is impossible under the existing law.

Up to Supreme Court.

The case will go to the state Supreme court in October on an appeal by State's Attorney Mark C. Keller of Lee county. George C. Dixon, country lawyer and grandson of the founder of the town of Dixon, says he is confident the Supreme court will sweep the primary laws from the statute books.

Dixon's attack is the first comprehensive effort that has been made to knock out the general and legislative primary acts of 1910, successors to the nominating laws of 1905, 1906 and 1908, which were nullified one by one by the Supreme court of Illinois shortly after their passage.

Yesterday's opinion was delivered orally from the bench by Judge William J. Emerson of Oregon, before whom the case was set last April. Judge Emerson considered the matter as of such far-reaching importance that he called in his two associates in the 15th judicial circuit to sit with him. They are Judges Harry Edwards of Dixon and Harry L. Heer of Galena. The decision was unanimous.

System in Effect 16 Years.

The laws pronounced invalid have controlled the nomination by political parties of candidates for all state and local offices since they were passed in 1910 by a special session of the legislature, when United States Senator Charles S. Deneen was governor. The laws consist of what is known as the general primary act and the legislative act for nominating candidates for the general assembly. Both attempted to abolish the old party delegate convention system of nominations, the system which automatically returns if the Supreme court upholds the decision of Judges Emerson, Edwards, and Heer.

Confusion over the makeup of party managing committees is certain to result from an opinion by the Supreme court upholding yesterday's decision by the three Circuit court judges. Many changes in the control of party machinery have occurred through the years—deaths and the rise and fall of many political fortunes.

New legislation by the next general assembly to straighten out the muddle would be the next logical step, in the opinion of most politicians. Some contend that nullification of the present primary laws under which existing party committees were formed would throw nominal if not actual control back into the hands of those in power two decades ago.

May Affect City Election.

A Supreme court decision knocking out the primary law would seriously complicate the Chicago mayoralty next spring. The party nominations are to be made in February and in the absence of any new legislation factional conflicts over the right to make a nomination in the name of the Republican party particularly would be certain to be bitter. If the decision restored conditions as they existed in 1909, even nominally, none of the present groups could lay complete claim to the party label.

Senator Deneen declined last night to comment on yesterday's decision except to say that in his opinion the nominations made last April would be unaffected because the November election will be over before the Supreme court acts on the appeal.

Supporting Senator Deneen's view, lawyers pointed out that the Supreme court, if it follows its general custom, will hear the appeal in October and then decide it at the December term, or shortly thereafter.

"Free Elections Impossible"

In the Dixon county action Mr. Dixon, aided by his nephew, Sherwood Dixon, represented William J. McAlpine, a retired Dixon contractor, in a taxpayers' suit for an injunction to restrain County Clerk Fred J. Dimick and County Treasurer Charles H. Eastman from paying the expenses of the April 13 primaries in Lee county.

Attorney Dixon argued that the 1919 primary laws, like their predecessors which the Supreme court nullified, make impossible the free and equal elections guaranteed by the Illinois and federal constitutions. Although he declared that the primary laws are full of loopholes he based his attack primarily on a provision seemingly unimportant on its face, but held to be highly essential when legally analyzed.

He also cited the Supreme court decision in the Fox case in 1920 which nullified the revamped primary law which the legislature passed in 1919.

The direct basis for attack was a redistricting of precincts in the city of Dixon. The situation, which applies generally and which the court held clearly invalidates sections 9 and 10, backbone of the whole law, is explained by Mr. Dixon as follows:

"The suit attacked the validity of both the general and legislative primary acts passed in 1910. Mr. McAlpine lives in the Second precinct in Dixon. In the election of 1924 Len Small received 285 votes in that precinct. So under the provisions of sections 9 and 10 of the general act the precinct committeeman would be entitled to seven votes in the county convention.

Confusion in New District.

"After the last election the board of supervisors reapportioned some of the Dixon precincts. A part of the first precinct was added to the second. Subsequently, in April, 1926, a new precinct committeeman was elected for the Second precinct, the voter therein voting according to the newly established boundaries.

"It therefore became impossible to determine how many votes Small received in the new Second precinct as it was not in existence with its present boundaries at the time of the 1924 election of governor.

"The primary act provides that each committeeman in the county convention shall have one vote and one extra vote for each fifty votes cast for governor in his precinct at the preceding general election. As there is no possible way of ascertaining how many votes Small received in the present Second precinct, the committeeman is automatically deprived of all his extra votes based on the vote for governor in his precinct.

"The sections providing for the county committee are the backbone and controlling sections of the act. Without them there can be no valid functioning of the committee or party machinery. The committee assembles as a convention and elects all delegates to all judicial and state conventions.

Former Decision Controls.

"It also nominates candidates in case of death or withdrawal after the primary. This is all done by the committee voting on a representative basis, depending on the previous vote for governor in the respective precincts.

"Without such delegates being elected by the county committee there would be no judicial or state convention. The state convention nominates university trustees and designates presidential electors. In the Fox case, decided in 1920, the primary law of 1919 was held void by the Supreme court.

"The court held in that case that sections of the 1919 act, which are practically identical to sections 9 and 10 of the 1910 act, were void. Then it further held that such sections, being the backbone or controlling sections of the act, it beame impossible to function under the act without them, and as a result the entire act was held void.

"The inequality caused by the committeeman losing his extra vote is a violation of the provision of the Illinois constitution requiring all elections to be free and equal.

Legislation Called Incomplete.

"The legislative act was also attacked as an incomplete piece of legislation under which it is impossible to function without the general primary act to support it. Sections 9, 10, and 13, all of which are very important in the operation of the legislative act, depend for their operation on sections of the general act.

"As an example: There is no provision for the hours of opening and closing the polls in the legislative act, and if the general act is held void and an effort should be made to nominate candidates for the house under the legislative act the polls would have to be open for twenty-four hours.

"Numerous other discrepancies and irregularities in the legislative and general acts were called to the attention of the court. The legislative act states that any penalties for its violation shall be those provided by the general act and also provides that the provisions of the general act relating to contested nominations shall govern in legislative contests."

Judge Emerson was brief in his announcement of the unanimous decision from the bench. He said:

"This suit was commenced by William J. McAlpine of Dixon, a tax payer of Lee county, against the county of Lee, the board of supervisors, the county clerk and county treasurer, for an injunction restraining the payment of public funds. This applies to the pay of judges and clerks of election, printing of ballots and all other expenses incurred in conducting the primary election of April 13 last.

"This case was regarded of so much importance by me that I asked the other judges of this circuit, Judge Edwards of Dixon and Judge Heer of Galena to sit with me on the case. The defendants demurred to the bill, filed alleges that primary acts of 1910 is invalid and unconstitutional.

"We have decided that no good purpose can be served by our going into reasons for the conclusions we have reached. We all agree on the decision about to be announced and after a very careful examination and painstaking consideration of the former decisions of the Supreme court in similar cases during the several weeks that this case has been before us. We are of the opinion that the primary law of 1910 is illegal and unconstitutional and that is the unanimous opinion of this court."

Confident of Final Victory.

Commenting on the decision Attorney Dixon, a former assistant attorney general of Illinois under Brundage régime, said "The conclusion of the Circuit court is in harmony with the decision of the Supreme court of Illinois and I am confident it will be affirmed by the Supreme court. Twenty years of experimenting with primary laws have demonstrated that they are a failure. They have reduced efficiency and honesty and destroyed economy in public offices have made it impossible for any but wealthy people to seek office unless they raise immense campaign funds by questionable methods.

"The primary law causes a useless public expense and is an unjust burden which the taxpayers are tired of carrying. Except possibly for county offices in small counties the voters are unable to become sufficiently acquainted with the qualification of candidates to enable them to vote intelligently. The law has chiefly helped a lot of inferior politicians, most of whom have already had their term in office, and it is time now to change the system.

"It is generally recognized as the worst piece of legislation now in force and its results have been disastrous to the public welfare. It has ruined party organization and weakened our government."

Decision Against Primary Law Perils 151 Vote Indictments

One hundred and fifty-one indictments voted by the special grand jury—and scores more to be voted—charging election frauds in the April primary were practically invalidated yesterday. Special State's Attorney Charles A. McDonald said the decision of the three judges at Dixon, Ill., declaring the primary law invalid, will, if sustained, probably nullify the prosecution of the ballot thieves.

In the famous Fox case of several years ago, in which the defendant pleaded guilty to voting illegally and the Supreme court said he was guiltless because the primary at which he voted was illegal and therefore void, is seen as the precedent for the defense of those indicted for offenses in the April primary.

If the Supreme court sustains the decision of the Dixon court, the same ruling will apply, lawyers said yesterday—that the election crooks cannot be punished because in effect there was no primary.

Prosecutor McDonald said he will go ahead, however, with the grand jury investigation. Officials of two precincts of the Forty-second ward were witnesses yesterday.

In the 28th precinct of that ward, the judges were George Ratner, George Yeldman, and Frank E. Lane. The clerks were Mary A. Love and Margaret Bennett.

RESULTS OF RECOUNT

An average of 185 votes was wrongfully credited to each of twelve candidates for Municipal judge on the Republican ballots, the recount yesterday showed. Ten of the favored candidates were of the Crowe-Barrett faction.

Judge William L. Morgan and Samuel Heller were the Deneen candidates who were given nearly 200 stolen votes each. Robert E. McMillan of the Crowe-Barrett faction was one of those knifed. Herbert Auw was the other unfavored one.

In the recount of the country town votes the standing of the candidates was unchanged during the day and 3,009 ballots are awaiting a decision by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki upon their validity. The Deneen watchers objected to these ballots, most of which favored the Crowe-Barrett candidates, because the voter had inadvertently misplaced a sticker containing the name of a candidate for precinct committeeman.

Convention May Nominate.

One opinion yesterday was that the recount will be of little value now; that if Judge Jarecki should throw out those 3,000 ballots over the objections of the Crowe-Barrett attorneys, the same candidates could be nominated by convention, and the convention is controlled by the Crowe-Barrett faction.

That may be done, anyway, it was said, to validate the nominations of the Crowe-Barrett condidates for all offices as a precaution against decision by the Supreme court that the primary was null and void.

The indictments returned yesterday by the special jury against Joe Saltis and four members of his gang, charging them with the murder of John "Mitters" Foley, will not be affected by the court decision, it was said last night.

MISS EASTMAN IS FOUND SAFE IN RUSSIAN ARMENIA

Miss Evelyn Eastman of Chicago, Near East Relief worker who disappeared several days ago in Russian Armenia, was yesterday reported to have been discovered, safe and well, in the hut of a mountaineer where she had taken refuge when lost in a fog. She was located by a searching party headed by Peter Floyd of Cuthbert, Ga.

After starting on horseback toward Mount Alagoz to visit some orphans she had befriended, she lost her way in a dense fog. Miss Eastman told the rescuing party. Leaving her horse, she groped forward in an endeavor to reach the nearest village. For the remainder of that day and the following night she wandered on foot. At daybreak, as the fog lifted, she came upon the hut and roused the inmates, who though unable to understand her language gave her food and shelter.

MORE VILLAGES' RECORDS HUNTED FOR TRAP CLEWS

Markham Official Promises to Provide Bond.

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Chicago's crusade to abolish speed traps in Cook county and give the motorist a square deal on the public highways, boomed along under its own momentum yesterday with two new villages added to the list being investigated. Meanwhile trials of three more alleged speed trappers have been set for the September term of Criminal court.

Attorney Milton Smith, representing Harry Morley, former chief of the village of Markham, and Justice J. Liesenfelt, former magistrate of Markham, appeared before Judge Smith who continued the cases of Morley, Leisenfelt and Policeman H. J. Cox of Markham.

Seeks More Villages' Records.

Additional complaints filed by motorists with the Chicago Motor club bureau of inquiry during the day caused Charles J. Mueller, assistant state's attorney in charge of speed trap prosecutions, to issue grand jury subpoenas for the 1925 records of River Forest, Niles, and Specialville, and for the appearance today of Joseph Wright, police magistrate of Maywood.

"Why do you charge $1 to approve a cash bond given by motorists in your court?" demanded Mueller.

"I always do. I thought that within my rights," said the justice.

State Law Provides Differently.

"Do you think it legally worth a dollar for you to decide that $25 or other sums in Uncle Sam's currency are worth their face value as surety?" Mueller asked. "If you do you differ with the Illinois state law. We want this practice stopped."

COOLIDGE PARES BUDGETS; 1928 TAX CUT SIGHTED

Depends on Big Business Revenues Continuing.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Paving the way for another tax reduction, possibly in 1928, President Coolidge today slashed $100,000,000 from departmental estimates of government expenditures for that fiscal year.

Whether it will be possible to reduce taxes materially in 1928 will depend mainly on the business activity of the country in the meantime. If prosperity continues unchecked and business continues to expand at the present rate business profits will be enormously increased for the calendar years 1926 and 1927, and income taxes increased proportionately.

Although the prospective surplus for the current fiscal year is estimated at not more than $185,000,000, and no surplus is yet in sight for the 1928 fiscal, it begins to look as if the most optimistic estimates of the volume of revenue to be expected from the recently reduced rate of taxes will be enormously exceeded. Government officials would not be surprised if it should prove feasible to reduce taxes again in 1928 to the extent of $300,000,000.

Cost of Government at Minimum.

In the opinion of the President the cost of administering the government cannot be reduced further. He does not expect to accomplish more than to hold it approximately stationary for several years. That will make further tax reduction dependent on the extent to which expanding business increases tax revenue above the expense of government and the extent to which retirement of the public debt decreases the annual interest charge on Liberty bonds which must be met. The treasury is now employing every available dollar of surplus for retirement of the debt, and the increasing payments of our European debtors will operate to reduce the interest charge still further.

Slash Follows Lord's Visit.

The President made his slash of $100,000,000 in the primary estimates for 1928 in a conference today with Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Lord, director of the budget. Gen. Lord brought from Washington the detailed requests for appropriations each department is asking for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928. Each department head had been given his estimates in accord with the instructions of the President that the total for all departments must not materially exceed the $3,215,000,000 appropriated for the current fiscal year ending July 30, 1927.

Mr. Coolidge found that the appropriations requested for 1928 totaled $3,369,000,000, an increase of $154,000,000 over the total voted for. This the President said would not do, and he set to work with Gen. Lord to meet the estimates. When they had finished they had reduced the total to $3,270,000,000.

Still Is Over Appropriations.

This left the total prospective estimates for 1928 $55,000,000 above the appropriations for this year, an increase necessitated, according to the President, by increased expenses authorized by congress at its last session and by him approved. Increased pensions for civil and Spanish war veterans will cost $36,000,000 and outlays for soldier relief will be boosted $18,000,000 by amendments to the veterans' bureau act. Then $16,000,000 must be appropriated for the first time as the federal government's share of the fund for retirement pensions of government employés, and another increase of $5,000,000 is represented by increased pay of District of Columbia school teachers and building construction.

These increases total $75,000,000, but the President directed Gen. Lord to absorb $20,000,000 by paring items here and there and thereby getting the net increase over this year's expenditures down to $55,000,000.

The reduction of the government personnel is to be continued and not more than 7 per cent of the vacancies occurring filled.

Negro Slayer Taken from Sheriffs; Shot to Death

Lewisville, Ark., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Judge Powell, Negro slayer of Deputy Sheriff Jamie Dooley, today was taken from two deputy sheriffs and his body riddled with bullets by an angered mob of 500 men, most of whom had formed parts of posses hunting the Negro. Trapped in a dense thicket near Canfield by bloodhounds, Powell took to the highway, where he was caught. Deputy sheriffs were rushing the Negro to Lewisville when the mob overtook them.

Baby Drinks Shoe Cleaning Fluid at Home; Is Dead

William H. Putnam Jr., 18 months old, drank a bottle of white shoe cleaning fluid yesterday afternoon and died shortly after at the Auburn hospital. The child was playing on the rear porch of his home, 8241 South Sangamon street, and found the bottle of fluid and drank it. He became unconscious and died a short time after being taken to the hospital by his mother.

STATE MUZZLES INVESTIGATORS OF HALL MURDERS

Inquiry Handicapped by Publicity.

New York, Aug. 11.—[Special.]—After nine witnesses had been examined today in the renewed investigation of the slaying four years ago of the Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, Assistant Attorney General Alexander Simpson and those associated with him in the inquiry announced that silence would henceforth shroud the tactics of the state.

Disclosure of today's plans for two arrests, as revealed on Tuesday night by one of the investigators, coupled with publication of testimony given by various witnesses, was the reason advanced for the muting of the investigators.

Officials Hold Conference.

Senator Simpson, Inspector Underwood, Public Safety Commissioner John Beggans and Chief Patrick Hayes, who is supervising the inquiry, conferred in the Jersey City courthouse. They went over the signed statements of forty witnesses. At the end of the conference Special Prosecutor Simpson issued this statement:

"I have talked to Inspector Underwood of the Jersey City police department, who is in local charge at Somerville, N. J., and I have also talked to our commissioner of public safety, John Beggans, who is the inspector's superior, and they both agree, and I agree with them, that publication of the statements of witnesses which have been signed is inimical to the proper investigation of this case and only warns persons who may be interested against the state.

Investigation Not Costly.

"Jersey City police are not making public any evidence they obtain until the proper time. Among other propaganda to stop this investigation is that of excessive expenses—that it will cost $100,000, etc. This is untrue."

Senator Simpson said that detectives were still busy interviewing witnesses.

PREVIOUS ATTACK LAID TO ONE OF 3 RAPE FUGITIVES

Police Net Is Eluded by Melrose Park Youths.

Three Melrose Park youths, accused of assaulting two Chicago girls last Friday night, were still at large last night after a twenty-four hour search. Sheriff Peter Hoffman ordered Chief Leroy Davidson of the county highway police to continue an intensive hunt. Capt. Joseph Goldberg of the Austin police is cooperating in the search.

It became known yesterday that one of the boys, Michael Derrico, 113 Twenty-first avenue, was involved with three others in a similar assault case in June, 1925, a crime for which they were indicted but never tried.

Derrico, and his two companions, John Wyallios, 155 Twenty-first avenue, and Charles Carr, 914 Twenty-second avenue, all of Melrose Park, have been missing since the assault on the girls, who were taken to a lonely forest preserve road and attacked while their escorts were held captive by the assailants.

Former Cases Dismissed.

Records in the State's Attorney's office disclosed that Derrico, "Chappi" Martini, Tony Varcella and Frank Derrico were indicted June 26, 1925, for an attack on Loretta and Lillian Russell, both of Bellwood, whom they met in a dance hall at Berkeley.

According to the information, the girls, 15 and 16 years old, were taken to a lonely spot on Mountain road and there mistreated by the four.

Martini was granted a severance by Judge Joseph David, then sitting in the Cook county criminal court, July 15, 1925, the charge being nolle prossed the same day by Harry N. Pritzker, then an assistant state's attorney. The next day, the docket showed, the cases against the other three were stricken off with leave to reinstate.

Neither Judge David nor Mr. Pritzker was in the city last night, but according to the police the prosecuting witnesses could not be brought to testify against the four when their cases were called.

Hunt Fugitives; Find Still.

While cruising in the vicinity of Melrose Park in search of the three youths County Highway Police Sergt. George Ulrich and his squad received information that they might find the fugitives at the home of Joseph Romano, 1116 23d avenue.

Going there, Sergt. Ulrich stationed Deputy Sheriffs Gus Peterson and Charles Holmes in the rear of the house and with Deputies John Abens and Walter McLogan started to enter at the front. As they did so a truck drove hurriedly away.

Inside the officers found 10,000 gallons of mash, 50 five gallon cans of alcohol, and a large still with Romano working over it. He was taken into custody.

Capt. Goldberg blamed Chief Henry Pein of Melrose Park for failure to arrest the three youths immediately after the crime.

CYCLOPS, WORLD'S LARGEST BOMBING PLANE CHRISTENED

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The "Cyclops," the mystery plane of the United States army service, was christened today at the Huff-Deland Airplane company in Bristol, near here.

The plane, said to be the largest bomber in the world and to have the largest engine, was christened by Miss Eleanor G. Godley of Trenton, N. J., who broke a bottle of ginger ale over its nose.

The speed of the "Cyclops" is given at 135 miles an hour and without carrying ammunition it is said to be capable of a 24 hour flight. Many of the features of the new craft are veiled in mystery pursuant to instructions from the war department. A novelty is the arrangement of the two machine guns, one on top and one at the bottom. The lower weapon can be regulated by a movable platform which army flying officers assert will prevent an attack from below.

Weighing 17,000 pounds, the plane has a horsepower of 825 and its designers claim it will be able to cruise for eight hours while carrying 4,000 pounds of bombs.

Sightseers to Be Barred from Joliet Penitentiary

Curiosity seekers will be barred after Sept. 1 from visiting the old and new prisons at Joliet, it was announced yesterday by Warden Elmer Green. Nearly 1,000 visitors passed through the prison on Aug. 9 and the warden decided that the large crowds disrupt the morale of the convicts and cause an unwarranted hazard. Sightseers have been admitted two days of each month. The new rule will not affect relatives visiting prisoners.

MANY SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON WAIT IN JAIL

Chamberlin Fears Plots to Escape.

Attention was called yesterday by the crime commission to the fact that many convicted felons who should be in the penitentiary are being held in the county jail. Henry Barrett Chamberlin, operating director, wrote to State's Attorney Crowe about this situation.

The reason for the detention here, rather than at Joliet, the letter stated, was that the courts have granted stays.

Durkin Among the Number.

Martin Durkin's case is cited as an example. Since his conviction and sentence to 25 years on July 10 he has been retained in the county jail. The executive committee of the crime commission suggests that he should be in the penitentiary, as should David Stark, a nationally known pickpocket. Chamberlin explained:

"These criminals are under sentence to serve terms of anywhere from one year to life in Joliet. They are of a type who would look upon a jail delivery as a means of escape from a desperate situation."

Lists Those Getting Delay.

Robert Campbell, found guilty of robbery with a gun, Sept. 11, 1925. Six stays of mittimus granted, amounting to four months and five days.

James Gentile [well known gunman] found guilty of International Harvester robbery of $80,000, June 19, 1926. Allowed 90 days to file bill of exceptions.

First Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman said it is the usual procedure—for attorneys to ask time for their clients to raise money to appeal. It is the theory of the courts that every man has the right of appeal, he said, and no man can be deprived of this right.

HOP SCOTCHERS COMPETE FRIDAY FOR CITY TITLE

The best hop scotchers of the city will compete in a tournament Friday morning under auspices of the west parks board at the outdoor dance floor in Garfield park. There are thirty-five or more variations of this game, but the one to be used in the tourney is known as "sky blue," and is a composite of the best features of all of them.

More than 600 boys and girls are competing in preliminary tournaments now being held at various parks in order to determine who will enter the three divisions of the final event. Players have been entered from Columbus, Douglas, Dvorak, Eckhart, Franklin, Garfield, Harrison, Holstein, Humboldt, Pulaski, Shedd, Sheridan, Stanford, and Union parks.

TO TAKE FATHER AS KIDNAPER OF HIS 2 CHILDREN

Chief Henry Eggabrecht of Bellwood was awaiting word last night from Seward, Ill., where he sent a policeman yesterday to arrest Phillip King, accused of kidnaping his two children, one an invalid, from their mother while at Cedar Lake, Ind., last Saturday.

Fear was expressed for the welfare of Phyllis, 4 years old, who is a sufferer from diabetes.

The parents of Phyllis and her brother, Bobbie, aged 2, have been separated pending divorce action. The father is said to have violated an injunction.

CHARGES MEXICO RULES CHURCHES BY FIRING SQUAD

Writer Tells of Cruelty of Troopers.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

The continuing bloodshed in the struggle between the church and President Calles' government in Mexico is the culmination of months of bitterness and struggle.

What probably was the first death occurred as long ago as Jan. 10, when Deputy Moreno lost his life in the village church of Jalisquillo in the state of Nayarit.

The deputy, at the head of a small body of soldiers, tried to close the village church on a Sunday. He appeared with his troops at the door of the church, while the congregation, attending mass, was kneeling in prayer. His purpose was to confiscate the sacred vessels and other valuable objects of the church before sealing its doors.

Worshippers Kill Deputy.

The infuriated worshippers attacked him and in the struggle which followed he was killed. Later in the afternoon more troops made their appearance in the village, searching for the murderers. When they were not found, the troops seized the nine leading citizens of the village and hanged them to a tree in front of the church.

There is no capital punishment for crime in Mexico, but the firing squad is the cure-all for political ills, and it is being used freely against supporters of the church.

Since the killing of Deputy Moreno priests and laymen, parishioners and government officials have met death in street battles or before the firing squad, and the toll of death continues. The highest officials of the land are marked by enraged Mexicans for assassination.

On July 26, while I was still in Mexico City, two shots were fired at President Calles as he drove in his limousine along a country road. The windows of the limousine were shattered, but he escaped injury.

Two Executed for Plot.

The countryside was scoured by troops, and two men, one armed with a revolver from which two shots had recently been fired, were arrested. The following morning they faced a firing squad. On the night the religious laws came into effect nine persons were arrested for plotting the death of the president. Most of them have been released.

The acts which have culminated in so much bitterness and slaughter, the acts which enraged the ignorant Indians among the Catholic masses, were many. There was the brutality in evicting nuns from the cloister, the pilfering by troops and townspeople during raids on churches.

Sacred Objects Stolen.

The campaign to close the churches and to force convent schools to cease religious teaching continued with increasing severity. In outlying districts the cloture orders were often seized as a pretext for theft of sacred objects and vessels. I do not believe it was the purpose of the central government to take away these objects from churches permitted to remain open.

But the ignorant and sometimes thieving soldiers who were entrusted with carrying out government orders on more than one occasion let their cupidity get the better of them. Congregations attempted to protect church property and prevent the desecration of the host. Priests or sisters consumed the blessed elements to prevent them from falling into the hands of the troops. Often the resistance led to physical violence.

Dismantled by Soldiers.

Four years ago a wealthy Mexican, at the point of death, willed his country estate at Tacuba to a group of nursing sisters as a home for aged women.

A few weeks ago the chapel on the property was dismantled by federal officers, who came with verbal orders only, the religious objects removed from the building and the sisters forced to assume civilian garb. They were told that if a single religious service of any sort were celebrated within the home it would be taken over by the government and closed.

On Feb. 23 the Church of the Holy Family was closed by the authorities. No reason was given for the order. The same day a group of two thousand women gathered for an afternoon service, and finding the building closed, remained at the entrance.

Troops and firemen soon appeared on the scene to disperse the crowd. Rifles were fired and the fire hose turned on to the unfortunate women, who remained at their posts despite all efforts of the firemen to disperse them. Troops were then used, many of the women brutally beaten, and one young man who tried to defend his mother was seriously wounded. There were many American witnesses to this scene.

The convent schools of the Sacred Heart at San Cosme, Guadalupe del Santisimo, Las Capuchinas, and El Pilar, and the Visitation convent, and the convent La Ensenzana, all of them teaching Mexican children, were forcibly closed and the nuns driven away with considerable brutality.

Children Driven Into Streets.

While I was in Mexico City news came through official channels of the closing of two orphanages in Chihuahua, the Amiga de la Obrera and the Casa de Huerfanos, because of the anti-monastic decree. One hundred and thirty-eight children sheltered there were driven into the streets.

A convent school operated by American sisters and owned by Sister Mary Hord, of Slater, Tex., called the Colegio Modelo, also was closed in Chihuahua, as was the Colegio Paz, the title to which was in the name of Sister Annie Quinn of the Incarnate Word convent of San Antonio.

The latter was permitted to reopen because the property had been acquired by the sister before the adoption of the constitution of 1917, but the former, which was purchased after the adoption of the constitution, remains closed. Representations have been made by diplomatic authorities.

KELLOGG TO VISIT COOLIDGE, DISCUSS FOREIGN PROBLEMS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Secretary of State Kellogg plans to visit President Coolidge at White Pine camp early next week and will discuss with him foreign policies and a number of the questions now pending in the relations between this and other governments.

While no announcement was made of subjects to be taken up at the conference, there was good reason to believe that the French debt problem, combined with other features of the general European situation, and recent developments in Mexico would constitute two of the topics.

Further credence was given to the belief that the French debt and the Mexican situation will be gone into thoroughly by the fact that Ambassadors Herrick and Sheffield are both about to return to the United States on their vacations, the former having sailed today.

That the question of further limitation of armaments is being considered was shown today by a conference which Secretary Kellogg had with Allen W. Dulles, chief of the near eastern division of the state department. Mr. Dulles has just returned from Geneva, where he was one of this government's advisers at the meeting of the preliminary commission on disarmament under the auspices of the league of nations.

SECOND RAID IN 3 DAYS, SAME SPOT, NETS MORE ALKY

Prohibition agents under Capt. R. Q. Merrick yesterday seized 33 drums of alcohol at the Clark and Taylor street team tracks, the second raid at the same spot within three days.

The double bootlegger loss was said to have marked the solution of the "reconsignment racket," through which many thousands of gallons of booze have come into Chicago in less than carload lots in the last three years.

No prisoners were taken in either seizure. It is believed by prohibition agents that consignees in New York, where the shipments originated, learned shortly after the contraband was en route that the cargoes were under observation.

Extra Pleasure from an Extra Process

Even without the toasting process, LUCKY STRIKES would rank as very fine cigarettes.

It would be a fine cigarette because it is made of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, perfectly aged and blended.

But the costly extra process of toasting lifts LUCKY STRIKES out of the ordinary, gives LUCKY STRIKES three distinctive features.

Toasting at high heat for 45 minutes (1) removes all "bite" and harshness and (2) develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. Then (3) sudden chilling seals in these flavors and the proper degree of moisture which keeps them always fresh.

"IT'S TOASTED" represents a costly extra process that adds the finishing touch to a wonderfully fine cigarette.

BECAUSE IT'S TOASTED

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

CHICAGO MOTOR CLUB A. A. A.

Serving Motorists and Saving Them Money for 20 Years

Twenty years ago the Chicago Motor Club was serving motorists and saving them money as it is today. Many motorists who were members of the club twenty years ago are members today. The organization that twenty years ago was a handful of enthusiastic motorists has grown to any army of 50,000.

This growth is the result of the satisfaction that members feel in their membership.

Twenty years ago members were urging their friends to join the club; today members are fully as eager to have all motorists participate in the benefits they receive.

A letter typical of thousands received by the club comes from W. R. Bowes, 6407 Kimbark Ave. Mr. Bowes says:

"I have called on your mechanical service department three or four times and your prompt and efficient service has made me a booster for the club at all times.

"If any of my friends become members of the club because of this letter I am satisfied they will show good judgment.

"I am at a loss to know why every automobile owner is not already a member."

Send the coupon today and learn how more than fifty thousand motorists are cutting motoring expenses through membership in the club which has been serving motorists for twenty years.

The Greatest Protection for Your Used Car Investment

More than any other, the one thing which brings used car buyers into the Used Car Department is public faith in the Cadillac name.

Buyers know that this name, with all that it stands for, is the greatest protection they can secure for their investment in a used automobile.

This is particularly true with the Reconditioned Cadillacs. For, in addition to buying them from an organization in which they have confidence, purchasers know that the regular 90 day new car warranty of Cadillac Motor Car Company is behind each Reconditioned Cadillac.

DEVER ACTS TO UNIFY BUILDING ON WACKER DRIVE

Starts Move to Organize Property Owners.

Visions of Wacker drive—the future gateway to the loop—lined with skyscrapers of uniform and artistic beauty yesterday turned into official city action.

With its completion but a few weeks distant Mayor Dever has taken the lead in a move to assure a fitting skyline for the drive, which he foresees as the Champs Elysees of America. The idea was suggested, he said, by a TRIBUNE editorial.

The mayor's plan, in brief, is to persuade prospective builders to form a permanent organization, employ a single architect, and so bring about a unified program of construction. Participation, of course, would be voluntary, as the city has no control of private property.

Asks Owners to Meet.

With this end in view, Mr. Dever yesterday sent a letter to Everett L. Millard, chairman of the municipal art commission, asking him to arrange a conference of property owners, architects, city officials, and other interested persons to discuss the proposal.

Among those who will be invited to the conference are John J. Sloan, president of the board of local improvements; Col. A. A. Sprague, commissioner of public works; architects, and officials of the Chicago plan commission, and representatives of the Association of Commerce.

"We have an opportunity now to do something of lasting significance to the city," said the mayor. "It is rare that a city has such a chance to bring about a great artistic improvement and I am going to see that we take advantage of it.

Old Buildings Will Go.

"There is three-quarters of a mile of old ramshackle commission houses along the drive now and all of them will be ripped down to make way for the new structures that are certain to follow the increase in property values. We will have a virgin soil in which to work.

"A unified plan of building construction should be worked out and instead of a hodge-poge of architecture rising with two story buildings alongside of skyscrapers, there should be a coordinated set of beautiful, dignified structures along the entire drive.

"South Water street is no longer Chicago's back yard. It is becoming a wide, front lawn that should give every citizen a thrill of pride when he looks at it or points it out to visitors."

Wants North Side Beautified.

The proposed organization, the mayor said, will probably also be asked to go into the question of beautifying the north side of the river. He would have a twin thoroughfare to Wacker drive built there.

Another matter likely to be laid before the organization is the beautification of bridges and their approaches. With the construction of the La Salle street and Wabash avenue spans still projected, the Wacker Drive association would find much to do in this direction, the mayor believes.

A. F. OF L. TO KEEP HANDS OFF IN MEXICAN AFFAIR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Organized American labor will not support or encourage the Mexican Federation of Labor in the latter's stand with the Calles government in Mexico during the present religious controversy, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared tonight.

Because it is "committed to the principles of peace and the promotion of peaceful solution of national and international controversies," the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Green asserted in a formal statement, "greatly deplores the present situation existing in Mexico," and is convinced that "only the exercise of reason, of toleration, and sound judgment can bring about a settlement."

For Mexico to Handle.

In spite of the worldwide interest in the clash between the church and state in Mexico, and the apprehension with which the whole situation is viewed, the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Green continued, "has refrained from interfering in the internal and domestic policies of the Mexican nation."

Purely a Domestic Problem.

"We regard the domestic and internal policies of another nation as a part of their own problems," said Mr. Green. "Whatever wrong may exist and whatever injustice may be practiced can only be remedied by the people who make up the nation.

"In claiming the right to deal with our own domestic and administrative problems without interference from outside sources we must concede the exercise of the same right to other nations.

GOLD

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Battling their way through flaming forests and harrassed night and day by a fear that a rival party would beat them to their objective, a small band of Manitoba prospectors has won its way through to rich stakings and a possible fortune. This story is told by J. B. Burton O'Sullivan, who, with A. J. Demers and George and Frank McClatchy, has arrived in Winnipeg.

The objective of the prospectors is described as a fine outcropping of gold and antimony on an island in Oxford Lake, 150 miles northeast of The Pas. A large party of Minneapolis men, headed by Jim Morrison of Manitoba, had got away to a flying start on the O'Sullivan party by catching a boat for Norway House three days before.

The O'Sullivan party was overtaken by a fierce forest fire, which ate its way through the spruce trees almost with the rapidity of lightning. At one point the four men for six hours had to lie flat on their faces on a rocky point with the fire leaping between them and the mainland. The turbulent river flowed at their backs.

When the party reached Oxford Lake they found that the Minneapolis men had not arrived. Claims were quickly staked. A sample of the antimony taken is said to have assayed more than 50 per cent pure metal, while the gold assayed about $7 a ton.

NIZAM REFUSES TO OBEY BRITISH ORDERS IN INDIA

Owe No Allegiance, They Say, to Any Democracy.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 11.—"His exalted highness" the nizam of Hyderabad sent a strongly worded protest to the viceroy of India today, demanding that in the future the viceroy must act as the representative of the British crown, and not as a reprensentative of the government of India in dealing with the nizam.

The nizam's contention is that he never has entered into treaty negotiations with the India government, but only with the British government, through the crown. The nizam's protest is in the nature of a reply to Lord Irwin's recent strong note to Hyderabad's ruler, charging him with corruption and mismanagement in his domains and demanding that a British administrator be given charge of certain departments.

No Allegiance to People.

The nizam's reply further contends that the government of India is becoming responsible to the people of India, while it is beneath his dignity as the greatest prince to owe allegiance to a government controlled by the people.

The note is another evidence of the general revolt of Hindu princes against the government of India because it tries to infringe upon their native powers. It is understood the recent climbdown of the government of India was due to a recognition of these facts, and that it is not desired to enter into controversey under present stormy political conditions.

The nizam is strongly supported in his protest by other Indian princes, who look with unconcealed perturbation on the encroachment upon their fundamental rights, guaranteed by sacred treaties. The aristocratic nabobs are deeply humiliated at the idea of any kind of control by the Hindu peoples, who have been taught democracy by the British rajah.

Trouble in Indore.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BOMBAY, Aug. 11.—A Riserich cotton merchant, named Sir Hukmichand, as virtual dictator of the province of Indore, also confronts Lord Irwin, new viceroy, with a delicate political entanglement.

The abdication of the former maharajah was demanded by the viceroy following the Mumtaz Begum scandal, which drew toward the maharajah much public sympathy. Affairs are not helped by the appointment of a regent during the interim occasioned by the present marahajah's youth. This has given Sir Hukmichand a chance to grab power.

Nominees of the dictator are being appointed over the heads of their seniors and are gaining charge of the various state departments.

Ten Year Prisoner Freed.

The ruthless rule of the cotton merchant has added to the bad conditions already prevailing and creates an atmosphere which is likely to erupt at any moment. The change in régimes also occasioned the release from prison of the former maharajah's cousin, who belongs to the famous Holkar family. Having been in jail for ten years, Holkar's son, on his release, brought suit against the government for rents and profits taken from his property during his incarceration.

Popular agitation also is going on in Indore for good drinking water. The citizens charge the public works department has spent millions in repairing the palaces, refusing to supply sufficient pure water.

ANDREWS, HOME, SAYS LONDON PARLEY WILL HALT RUM SMUGGLING

New York, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, head of the prohibition enforcement division of the treasury department, returned today on the French liner France, expressing great satisfaction as to the agreements reached with the British government regulating smuggling from British possessions.

Gen. Andrews said he will go to Washington tomorrow and begin at once setting up the machinery for operation of the new agreements signed in London.

He denied that the government had adopted ruthless tactics in its campaign to enforce prohibition by poisoning industrial alcohol, as was prominently charged in New York newspapers today.

The London conference was "125 per cent successful," he said, and will have "a very marked effect for more successful enforcement of prohibition in so far as it regards smuggling."

USE CANTHROX Shampoo
MAKE THE BOB MORE BECOMING
All beauty experts agree that every woman should arrange the bob to suit her special style of beauty. Some like the hair worn plain, some waved, some elaborately curled, but however it is worn, the hair itself must be healthy, lustrous and abundant. To do this, the right shampoo is essential, and women who are "in the know" welcome the use of the simple preparation called Canthrox.
It is easily used—simply dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and apply it all over the head. The hair dries evenly, is never streaked, and because it is so fluffy, appears more abundant than it really is. This shampoo is excellent, also, to stimulate the scalp and leave a clean, healthful feeling. Canthrox is inexpensive, costing only three cents a shampoo. It can be had of any druggist.

FARMERS GAIN AS CANADA VOTE BATTLE GROWS

Liberals and Tories' Campaign Cries Fail.

BY GEORGE SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 11.—With the Liberals and Progressives strongly entrenched in the rural districts, where low tariff sentiments prevail, and the Conservatives apparently maintaining their fighting strength in the more urban protectionist centers, neither Canadian political party is conceded a chance to make a clean sweep of the Canadian west in the election Sept. 14.

The United Farmers' association, the commercial political power behind the farmers, is conceded immense strength by both parties, and, as a result of the election, may emerge with the balance of power.

Campaign Cries Fail.

It is apparent that both Liberals and Conservatives, the major fighting parties, have fallen somewhat flat with their respective chief campaign cries. The Liberals' constitutional issue has not bitten nearly so deeply west of the great lakes as it has in Quebec. Neither has the customs scandal cry of the Conservatives created a great impression. The interest seems to be concentrated mainly in the recent Robb budget which the Liberals say gave big tax reductions and the Conservatives allege was "a rich man's budget."

All through the west, and notably in Manitoba, the Liberals and Progressives have elliminated three cornered fights by putting up low tariff fusion candidates. Prime Minister Meighen will face a fusion candidate in Portage la Prairie and will have difficulty retaining his heat. Robert Forke, Progressive leader, is conceded to have a hard fight in Brandon, while MacKenzie King, Liberal leader, undoubtedly will carry Prince Albert, Sask., easily.

Meighen's Tariff Policy.

Speaking at Deloraine, Manitoba, last night Prime Minister Meighen, Conservative leader in the Canadian election, made the clearest cut tariff pronouncement of the campaign so far.

"We shall revise our tariff through and through as it has never been revised in twenty years," Mr. Meighen said, speaking of the Conservative intentions if returned to power.

"I don't mean that Canada shall have a Haman's gallows tariff. It is not the height of it that counts so much as the permanency and stability of the protection afforded. We will give every Canadian industry a chance and if competition does not properly regulate prices the government will."

Donaghey and Stevens, Liberal and Conservative representatives on the late customs committee, have joined battle for the south Vancouver seat and a terrific political campaign is under way in that far western seat. Mr. Stevens, minister of customs, injected a sensational utterance into the British Columbia campaign today when he declared that if MacKenzie King's Liberals won the election "Canada will lose her status as a proud member among the British commonwealth of nations and become an adjunct to the United States."

He charged King with seeking to stir up the spirit of rebellion and create discord in Canada against the British.

LINCOLN PARK OUTER DRIVE LINK TO BE BEGUN IN 2 WEEKS

Resurfacing of the inner drive over the new pedestrian subways at Center and Belden streets in Lincoln park will be completed wtihin two weeks, it was announced yesterday. Then work will begin on the new outer drive over Simmons island and on the bridge at Diversey parkway connecting the island with the drive through the golf course, according to Emil A. W. Johnson, park superintendent.

Mr. Johnson expects the new road from Diversey bridge to the double drive off Belmont avenue to be opened to automobiles on Oct. 1. The project, which is planned to relieve traffic congestion through the park will cost $269,000.

GERMANY, ALLIES OPEN PARLEY TO CUT RHINE ARMY

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 11.—THE TRIBUNE learns that important conversations are going on between Berlin, Paris, and London regarding drastic reductions in the allied garrison in the Rhineland.

Ever since the Locarno peace treaty was signed, the Germans have been complaining that the promises made at the conference for reductions in the army of occupation have not been fulfilled.

French Quota Not Reduced.

The British have withdrawn 6,000 troops and the Belgians about 4,000, while the French, it is alleged, have not reduced their quota. This is said to be due to the fact that no French government has lasted long enough to reach this question, and not because of any lack of good will.

A few days ago, the German ambassador to Paris held a conference with Aristide Briand, French foreign minister, in which it is said the latter made new promises for an early reduction, and now it is reported that the British minister at Berlin is conferring with the British foreign office with regard to further British withdrawals.

British Favor Withdrawal.

The British declare quite frankly that they would like to evacuate altogether, but they recognize that this is politically impossible while the French continue the occupation. Failing a complete evacuation, the British are willing to agree on a reduction of the force to a nominal size if the French can be persuaded to agree to similar action. The Germans are urging early action by the allied powers to prove their good will before Germany joins the league of nations.

FALLS AGAINST SAW; DIES.

Injuries received when he stumbled against a rip saw while at work yesterday caused the death of Conrad Biez, 24 years old, 10240 Avenue G, in the South Chicago hospital.

BERWYN CITIZENS SPEED WIDENING OF OGDEN AVENUE

Berwyn citizens will lead a new crusade for the widening of the existing main highway pavements leading into Chicago at a mass meeting to be held tonight at 6707 Ogden avenue, in Berwyn.

According to announcement made by George E. Sanford, president of the Ogden Avenue association, the mass meeting will speed up plans for widening Ogden avenue to forty feet and will urge the wider highways advisory committee, appointed recently by President Anton J. Cermak of the county board, to see that this important road is among the first widened in any emergency building program.

President Cermak, Daniel H. Burnham, chairman of the advisory committee, and Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, a member of the advisory committee, have been invited to attend the meeting and hear the demands of citizens for traffic relief.

The Berwyn meeting is the first of a number of mass meetings planned in numerous villages lying along established routes.

According to the Ogden Avenue association, motorists who pay for the building of state pavements through license fees and taxpayers of the county generally want the committee and county board to concentrate on pavement widening to 40 feet on such roads as Ogden avenue, Western avenue, Roosevelt road, Lake street, Milwaukee avenue, River road, Waukegan road and other existing highways, rather than the spending emergency money in building new narrow roads.

The county board yesterday opened bids for an experimental viaduct to be built at the intersection of Dempster and Waukegan roads. The first bid submitted, it was said, was that of Taylor Brothers' company and was for $36,852. The bids must be returned by Tuesday at which time the roads and bridges committee of the board meets to decide upon the construction of the viaduct, which is to be built on the recommendation of the highway advisory board.

On arrival in Jersey City, you step from your train into the waiting motor coach which takes you and your hand baggage direct to the heart of New York's activities, with choice of two routes.

Coach stations will be located in the Pershing Square Building on 42nd Street, just east of Park Avenue and opposite the Grand Central Station. Also in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, on the 33rd Street side, corner of Astor Court. Regular schedules, over fixed routes, to uptown and downtown New York, will be maintained between these coach stations and the Jersey City train terminal.

You will find the coach stations centrally located and convenient to the uptown business, hotel and shopping districts, subway and surface lines. They will be equipped with ticket offices, parcel checking facilities, women's rest rooms and porter service.

Each coach will be in charge of a chauffeur skilled in traffic and a uniformed attendant trained to Baltimore & Ohio standards of courtesy and service.

This will provide the traveling public with a personal convenience heretofore not available.

There will be no additional charge for this extra service.

Her Choice

MISS VIOLA MANNING

"The exquisite Black and White 'Incense of Flowers' Face Powder is my choice above all others," says pretty Miss Viola Manning of 266 Prospect Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, "because of the wonderful way it got rid of my skin's oiliness, and because its fluffy fineness keeps it from sticking in my pores and coarsening them. It gives my complexion the smoothest, silkiest appearance imaginable, and the up-to-date tints tone in perfectly with my own coloring."

This delicately fragranced powder will be your choice, too, once you feel its caressing touch and see its beautifying effects. More than 80,000 dealers everywhere are recommending and selling "Incense of Flowers" Face Powder and the other Black and White Beauty Creations.

If your dealer doesn't have the Black and White Beauty Creations you want, send his name to Plough, Memphis, Tenn., and you will receive free a copy of the Birthday and Dream Book, containing many interesting facts on beauty, dreams and fortune telling.

HERRICK SAILS TO GIVE COOLIDGE FACTS ON DEBT

BY HENRY WALES.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Aug. 11.—The franc tumbled today to thirty-six and one-half to the dollar as parliament closed without having ratified the debt accords with America and Great Britain. Just before Premier Poincare read the cloture decree, sending the parliamentarians to the country for two months, it was announced that even the two subcommissions appointed to examine the accords would not get down to business until September, since every one is anxious for a vacation after the stiffest parliamentary session in the history of the third republic.

Attack Debt Pacts.

M. Franklin-Boullion, chairman of one of the subcommissions, has asked Premier Poincare to hand over all documents concerning the agreement, contemplating that his commission itself will draft a new accord "based on France's ability to pay."

Adrien Dariac, chairman of the finance subcommission, said flatly that the Mellon-Berenger agreement in its present form cannot get 100 votes out of nearly 600 in the chamber. Consequently it looks as though there is trouble ahead on the debt question.

Coincident with the closing of parliament, Myron T. Herrick, United States ambassador, suddenly decided again to sail to America. He left on the Mauretania this afternoon. He delayed his departure to be present in case the Mellon-Berenger accord was put up for ratification.

To Call on Coolidge.

He will call on President Coolidge, Secretary of State Kellogg and other cabinet officials to acquaint them with the situation in France and the attitude of the French government toward the debt, so far as he knows it, and the financial situation here.

THE TRIBUNE is informed that Mr. Herrick will assure President Coolidge that France will ratify the agreements in the autumn and will urge American credits to France without delay, as the franc is now sagging and may take another severe drop before late autumn, which is the earliest that the accords can be ratified.

M. Poincare said in the corridors of the chamber tonight that he did not expect to call parliament before Oct. 15, when he would ask its approval on wholesale economies which he expects to authorize by decree during the remainder of this summer. Thereafter will come ratification of debt accords and then the annual nightmare of the budget debate.

See Early Credit Move.

It is even believed that Mr. Herrick will seek to persuade Mr. Coolidge to instruct Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon to engage in pourparlers with French officials regarding immediate credits.

Commenting on Mr. Herrick's departure, Paris newspapers refer to him as "France's ambassador, who is going to America to support French aims and to explain France's viewpoint."

Additional tax projects which the finance committee of the chamber of deputies was preparing were abandoned at the eleventh hour at M. Poincare's insistence that everything be cleaned up today. M. Poincare, greatly strengthened by his victory in the national assembly yesterday, only awaited the breaking up of parliament to assume automatically the full powers which were refused M. Caillaux so he can proceed with secret measures he is preparing to bolster up the franc.

HOTTER IN ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Prospects for immediate relief by thundershowers from the heat wave and drought in this section vanished today and indications were the temperature would range nearly as high as yesterday, when a new heat record for the year, 100.2, was established.

RESCUE 5 GIRLS FROM DEATH ON VACATION TRIPS

Five girls were saved from death in Lake Michigan yesterday through the efforts of two Chicagoans, one the head of a realty concern. Three were rescued at Michigan City, Ind., and two at South Haven, Mich.

At Michigan City a triple drowning was averted through efforts of E. G. Klipper, 560 Aldine street, president of the W. W. Walter real estate company. He saved his daughter, Lillian, and two companions, Alberta Monheit, 17, and her sister, Dorothy, aged 15. They had been drawn out by a strong undertow.

Leon Zimmerman, 1200 South Sawyer avenue, took a boat to the aid of Genevieve Chambers, 18, and Vivien Kloogan, 19, both co-eds from Northwestern university, when their canoe overturned in choppy water off South Haven. Zimmerman is a former Crane Tech high school athlete.

James Stepek, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Stepek of South Chicago was drowned yesterday when he fell unnoticed from a pier.

STABBED WITH ICE PICK.

Joseph Greenburg, 44, a dry goods merchant at 2421 West Madison street, was stabbed with an ice pick yesterday afternoon as he grappled with a burglar in the Greenburg home above the store.

ON BUYING GOOD WILL.

We have called attention to the inferiority complex at work in the New York press. It is especially worthy of notice because the European estimate of American opinion is largely based on what the New York papers say and this error is responsible for not a few surprises and disappointments when the will of the nation transpires through action. In fact the habitual anxiety of the leading eastern papers as to the opinion of Europe exists very faintly if at all west of the Alleghenies and is a most unreliable guide to what the nation intends or to what the nation eventually will do.

We have a striking illustration in recent comment on British and French criticisms of our debt payment policy. For days the World and, with more self-respect, the Times have been urging us solemnly to take heed of the rising storm of resentment against us abroad. The World assures us that we are disliked from Peking to Paris and we don't know what injuries or hazards are implied in the warning. The Times, after rebuking M. Clemenceau at some length, turns to its readers with the assurance that "his utterance undoubtedly expresses in a bold and striking way the prevailing sentiment toward the United States of the great majority of the French people," and this is the peroration:

"This is a form of warning which we cannot afford to belittle or neglect. We have to ask ourselves whether it is a wise policy for this nation to make itself thoroughly disliked in France and in many other parts of the world. Is it even good business, coldly conceived, to stimulate and maintain a settled and sullen resentment against us on the part of other nations? These are questions which Clemenceau's letter raises anew and acutely. Our statesmen should seriously ponder the right answer to them. The French government will probably ratify before long the debt settlement with the United States; but after that is done, ought we not here to open our eyes to the need of a general reconsideration and readjustment of the war debts before many years are past? That idea is evidently winning more acceptance in this country among those who have given their minds to the real significance in the long run of the war debts, and there can be no doubt that its spread will be hastened by the irregular but impressive words of Clemenceau."

Well, for our part, we think the implications of these warnings are inconsistent with the national conscience, with self-respect, and with common sense. What all the hush-hush comes to is simply this: We are to buy escape from Europe's hostility by backing down on just claims. We are to purchase a return to the place in the French or British bosom we supposed we occupied—and may have for a short period—by canceling the loans, that is, by assuming ourselves the expenditures of billions made by our debtors from our advances.

American common sense will reply that a friendliness purchasable on such terms is not worth much. We spent a hundred thousand American lives and some billions of our own money to save France and Great Britain from defeat and at the moment when we are asked by the World and the Times to buy back the favor of these nations we know exactly how durable that favor is.

The argument of expediency is fallacious. If we paid for Europe's friendship at this time we should have to pay for it again and ever again. If we yield to what we believe to be unjust criticisms and unfounded offsets we do not protect ourselves from unjust criticisms or unfounded offsets in the future. On the contrary, we invite them.

Common sense refuses the argument of expediency. Conscience and self-respect reject it. We are being told that we ought to cancel the debts because the war was our war as much as Europe's, that therefore we ought to have gone in at the beginning, and that our staying out so long cost Great Britain and France a sum in lives and treasure that in justice ought to be set off against our loans.

A good many people and newspapers in the east would admit all that, but fortunately not the overwhelming majority of the nation. We in the west resent these assumptions. We have no intention of permitting the United States to be bullied into a course of action which would be interpreted as admission. That is why consideration of cancellation will not be tolerated and will not be so long as the creditor nations are in their present state of mind. We may never be paid, but we are not going to allow Europe to make a virtue of nonpayment. There is no people on earth that would go farther in allowance to misfortune or generosity to need. Also we are a practical people, accustomed to compromise and able to appreciate economic argument in favor of concessions or cancellations. But we shall certainly not make concessions because standing upon our right is making us unpopular. Much less shall we free our creditors from their obligations on the ground that they were nonexistent or immoral.

A STRAIGHT ISSUE IN OHIO.

Incomplete returns indicate that Senator Willis of Ohio, who is a leader of the drys in congress, has been nominated to succeed himself on the Republican ticket and Atlee Pomerene, a confirmed wet, has been nominated by the Democrats. Prohibition will be the principal issue in the Ohio campaign. Pomerene wants to amend the Volstead act and Willis doesn't.

Ohio is one more state in which the wet and dry issue is out in the open. Some will regret it. They will say that we are electing senators this fall on a minor issue. In a sense they are right. There are domestic issues before the country such as farm relief and the development of internal waterways which may be of more importance than prohibition to the material welfare of the nation. There are foreign issues such as the handling of the Mexican situation and the settlement of the debts which are of large significance, but for better or for worse the great public is not deeply interested. Opinion on these questions is still nebulous in contrast to the opinion regarding the virtues of prohibition. Most voters have made up their minds about the Volstead act and are eager for a chance to express themselves at the polls.

If prohibition is not in the foreground of the campaign it will still be the issue on which the election is decided. Wets and drys have their organizations. The drys have frequently succeeded in previous elections by keeping their issue in the background and allowing the wet vote to divide while the drys moved on the polls in a phalanx. Sometimes the process has been reversed to the advantage of the wets. Either way, the successful candidate was elected because he was a wet or dry, though the issue was not presented in those terms to the voters. The effect of all this pussyfooting has been pernicious. It has encouraged candidates to trim and hedge and has repeatedly resulted in the election of inferior men to important positions in the government. If our representatives are to be chosen because they are wet or dry, we will get abler men if the decision is made frankly.

As a matter of fact, the instinct which has at last brought prohibition into the foreground is entirely sound. We cannot foresee every legislative problem which will confront senators in the next six years. As always, the voters will have to select the candidate who seems to be their kind of a man. When the country rejected candidates who favored the league of nations, the voters were voicing their opposition not only to the league but to the kind of soft-headedness which made one set of candidates favor going to Geneva. Advocates of the league were not the kind of men to whom the government could safely be intrusted. This fall the voters will have the opportunity to choose between the kind of mentality that is prohibitionist and the kind that is not, a more serviceable touchstone of character and political thinking than any other which now presents itself.

A SERVICE FOR THE LEGION.

The Legion posts of Lake county we hope have started something that will go much farther than its immediate objective. They have protested against the commutation of the penalty of Ignatz Potz, sentenced to the gallows for the murder of a motor policeman and ex-service man. Potz is now the beneficiary of two commutations. An unofficial excuse for the first was given out to take the edge off public indignation by an appeal to sentiment. It was made known that Mrs. Small had asked for leniency. We do not recall at this moment what the explanation of the second commutation was, if there was any. We do know that Col. Smith, who prosecuted Potz, protests against both commutations and we are glad that the Lake county posts will take the matter before the state convention, where we earnestly hope that patriotic body will open up the whole outrage of the abuse of the pardon and parole record of Len Small and his board.

That record is one of the ugliest in our politics and it is not merely ugly, it is full of significance. The relation between politics and crime is getting to be pretty well exposed. But it still needs to be hammered home. At the moment it is claimed that a check has been put upon the pardoning and parole evil. But the source of the evil remains and it will produce its poisonous fruit again. All good citizens are shamed and alarmed at the prevalence of violence, but we cannot hope for better things as long as politics in alliance with crime goes as free from political rebuke as the criminal from punishment.

Editorial of the Day

FILIPINO RUBBER.

[Brooklyn Daily Eagle.]

While Carmi Thompson is investigating the Filipino problem, Harvey S. Firestone Jr. is explaining to President Coolidge how rubber plantations could be developed on the Philippine islands with American capital. Now, the production of rubber is not the matter of sowing seeds and reaping a harvest in the fall. Several years are necessary to prepare the soil and five years are needed to bring the trees to maturity. We need our own rubber supply. We consume 70 per cent of the world's rubber and have to be dependent for by far the larger amount on others.

But if we intend to plant rubber trees in the Philippines it would seem only fair, not to say wise, that all talk of independence for the near future should be silenced. To encourage our capitalists to invest in the islands across the Pacific we would have to establish, in the event of independence, at least a protectorate, a half-measure which would appeal to none. Mr. Firestone explained to the President that our dependence upon the outside world for rubber amounted to $136,000,000 a year more than the price ought to be. This is a large figure. At present rubber producers are limited by law to the cultivation of no more than 2,500 acres by any one company. The Firestone interests would have this amended to allow one company to cultivate 500,000 acres. But we cannot justly seek a badly needed source of rubber in the Philippines on the one hand and on the other dangle the prospect of independence before Manuel Quezon and his followers. If we do we are only storing up trouble for the future.

CATTLE TUBERCULOSIS VACCINE.

For twenty-one years Calmette and his associates have been experimenting, trying to find a method of vaccinating cows against tuberculosis. They feel certain they have succeeded.

They make use of virulent tubercle bacilli, grown for a long time on media which contain bile. In the course of time the bacillus becomes so changed that it cannot cause tuberculosis. It cannot readily be changed back into a bacillus which can cause the disease. At the same time it has the property of immunizing animals against tuberculosis. The method Calmette pursues is to take very young calves and feed them milk into which some of these bacilli have been put. If it is preferred, the bacilli can be injected.

Any farmer can vaccinate his own cattle. However, during the years when the process is on trial, veterinarians should at least examine the calves before vaccination and again in later years. The calves are permitted to suck tuberculous cows and to run with them in the barns and lots. As matters now stand, it is proposed to revaccinate the animals yearly. It is not advisable to attempt to vaccinate any grown cow unless vaccination was done when the cow was a calf, or unless a tuberculin test has shown with certainty that the cow is not tuberculous. The Calmette vaccination is not a cure; it is not to be used on tuberculous cows.

Calmette and his associates have vaccinated thousands of calves. The calves have been left in contact with tuberculous cows, running in infected barns, and drinking infected milk. Very few have developed the disease. The saving has been very great. Some of these cows were vaccinated so long ago that they have had time to be at the pail for years.

The Calmette method has been tried out in various other countries in Europe and in Africa, and the reports from it are enthusiastic. Calmette and associates report success with the method in vaccinating human beings, monkeys, guinea pigs, fowl, and various other animals. Experience with monkeys indicates that vaccinated animals may not become susceptible again for at least three years. The immunity with guinea pigs does not last three years.

Weleminsky in Czecho-Slovakia reports that he has grown a tubercle bacillus, the secretion of which will cure tuberculosis in cows. His substance is found in culture media on which there has been a very old culture of tubercle bacilli. The Weleminsky substance is recommended by its discoverer as a cure. The Calmette substance is a preventive only.

DIET OF WHOLE MILK.

Mrs. E. C. writes: My baby boy, 3½ months old, is at present on a diet of whole milk and oatmeal water. He was undernourished, and since he has been on the above diet he is gaining weight rapidly. I would like to know if it would be advisable to keep using the oatmeal water during the summer.

REPLY:

Everybody will tell you that a baby of that age should not be given whole milk, but you say you give a mixture of milk and oatmeal water without giving the proportions. Whatever dilution you may be using, your child is thriving. Therefore, keep it up. Experience is a good guide, and usually a safe one. Increase the quantity given and also the strength of the mixture slowly between now and October. Go slow in hot weather.

OVERCOMING CONSTIPATION.

Mrs. J. P. H. writes: My baby is two months of age and is healthy in every way, with the exception of his bowels. They do not move unless made to do so. I would like to know how to overcome this. He is my first baby.

REPLY.

If your baby is breast fed you should eat more vegetables and fruits.

Give the baby some fruit juice or tomato juice.

If the baby is bottlefed make his mixture with malt sugar. Add a strained cereal water to the milk in place of some of the plain water.

DIET CHANGE FOR RASH.

P. H. writes: For the last 12 months my baby has been suffering with a rash on either side of her cheek. Will you be so kind as to give me some advice?

REPLY.

I judge her diet is not right. Change it in some ways. Does she get enough vegetable soups, vegetables and fruits?

TORN UP STREET.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—[Friend of the People.]—About seven months ago the gas company laid some pipes in our street but have failed to replace the street. Aren't they supposed to leave the street in good condition? The street boxes were removed and never put back and dead trees adorn the neighborhood.
H. K.

Openings in pavement have been restored to a satisfactory condition by the gas company. Street dirt boxes which were worn out have not been replaced as yet. Street is cleaned regularly once a week by man with cart. Matter of dead trees has been reported to the bureau of small parks for attention.
THOMAS H. BYRNE,
Superintendent of Streets.

SIDEWALK FRUIT STANDS.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—[Friend of the People.]—A fruit store on South St. Louis avenue displays fruits and vegetables on the sidewalk, the water constantly leaking out of the watermelon stand. The flies are attracted here and altogether the sight is an eyesore. I am under the impression that such condition is prohibited under the law. Can we have this remedied?
F. C.

Report is made by the superintendent of the 24th ward that proprietor of store on South St. Louis avenue was notified to discontinue practice of displaying fruit and vegetables on sidewalk and to keep sidewalk clear and in a sanitary condition. He is complying with notice, he states.
THOMAS H. BYRNE,
Superintendent of Streets.

NO BUNGALOWS HERE.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—[Friend of the People.]—We contemplate purchasing a piece of property, vacant, located on Lowell near North avenue, and have been informed that we will not be able to secure a permit for building a two flat or bungalow. Will you please advise if there is a law forbidding such erection in this district?
PURCHASER.

The east side of the street is zoned for commercial purposes and the west side of the street is zoned for manufacturing purposes.

Commissioner of Buildings.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 12, 1861.

FRANKLIN, Mo.—Springfield, Mo., advices to the 8th are that no battle had been fought, but one was hourly expected. The rebels were then encamped at Wilson's Creek, 12 miles from Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—(Aug. 8)—Much alarm has been created here by reports that the rebels were flanking the city on the southwest and east. The stores were closed and citizens gathered together all valuables easily transportable. The branch of the State Bank of Missouri placed $250,000, nearly all in specie, in charge of Gen. Lyon for safekeeping.

CAIRO, Ill.—Scouts report the rebels' advanced outposts six miles north of New Madrid, Mo. By the arrival of heavy guns the works at Bird's Point are made almost complete, and they could be held against any force the rebels could bring against them.

ST LOUIS.—It is stated on reliable authority that Jeff Thompson with his entire command made a demonstration against Cape Girardeau, but finding the place much better defended than he expected, fled precipitately.

SALEM, Ill.—[From the Salem Advocate.]—We are sorry to state that we have been informed that two or three lodges of the "Knights of the Golden Circle" exist in Tennessee Prairie, Marion county, and that secret meetings are held two or three times a week. We are also informed that lodges of this character exist in almost every precinct of the neighboring county of Jefferson.

EDITORIAL — The extraordinary zeal, energy, and, we may add, effectiveness with which Maj. Gen. Fremont is managing the affairs of his department are the occasion of great rejoicing throughout the west. That he may continue to gather and apply the means of attack and defense, without the restrictions imposed by red tape and precedent at Washington, is the uppermost wish of half a dozen states.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 12, 1901.

CHICAGO.—The national strike of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers received a body blow when the steel workers in South Chicago and Milwaukee voted with great emphasis not to strike. At Joliet the men deferred final action. In addition to this blow to the strike the steel corporation reported resumption of work at the Ohio works of the National Steel company at Youngstown and a plant at Columbus. In the Carnegie group the Homestead, Edgar Thompson, Duquesne, Upper and Lower Union, and the Howard Axle works, employing 15,000 men, were reported to be operating without trouble.

CHICAGO.—An explosion of a dynamite bomb or a bottle of nitroglycerin in the rear of the saloon of George Little, 433 South Clark street, killed Alfonso Vincenso, and seriously injured three others. One, a girl, Ruby Fox, may die.

CRONBERG.—King Edward of England stood beside Kaiser William in the church at Cronberg during the requiem services over the remains of the Dowager Empress Frederick. The ceremony was made picturesque by the varied uniforms of the kings and princes.

NEW YORK.—Shamrock II., Sir Thomas Lipton's second challenger for the America cup, in tow of the big steam yacht Erin, arrived off Sandy Hook lightship tonight and anchored for the night.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 12, 1916.

CHICAGO.—Dr. John B. Murphy, one of the leaders among American surgeons and known in his profession throughout the world, died yesterday at the Grand hotel, Mackinac Island. Mrs. Murphy, formerly Jeannette C. Plamondon, was with him at the time, as was Dr. L. L. McArthur of Chicago, a summer resident of Mackinac. For several days he had complained of an almost intolerable thirst and latterly of drowsiness. Close medical friends ascribed death to diabetic coma. Dr. Murphy was 58 years old. He began his practice on the west side—at Harrison and Halsted streets—and soon became popular. His modest fee then was $1, where it was $100 before he died. Many of his old patients still came to him even after he became world famous and his price to them was still $1. Perhaps Dr. Murphy's most distinguished achievement was the invention of the "Murphy Button," a device which relieved intestinal surgery of many of its dangers.

EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.—In the three principal theaters of the war—the French, the Russian and the Italian fronts—the armies of the entente allies continued their steady pressure against the Austrian and German forces. The Russians captured Stanislau, the principal railroad center in southeastern Galicia, in their southern flanking campaign against Lemberg, and are continuing their advance. The Italians continued driving the Austrians back east and south of Goritz, and were reported to have advanced to within eighteen miles of Trieste. In France both the British and French armies made further gains in the region of the Somme, capturing German positions and trenches, and advancing their own lines. On the Balkan front, the Anglo-French-Serbian forces attacked the Bulgarians on the Grecian frontier and captured important positions near the city of Doiran.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

TWO OLD IRISH WOMEN.

(For Alice.)

Father Malloy has wrapped his robe
And hurried away to pray;
There is a tear in the rockers' creak
All the live-long day.

For the white stones beckon, my dearie,
And Oh! but your hair is white . . .
There is a ghost in the rockin' chair
All the live-long night.

Father Malloy has lighted a match:
His candles glow in the church.
Raddledy-round—the wheels go hard
A-squeak like a rocker's lurch;

And the porch was clean as a new moon sand—
There are pale potatoes for dinner—
I've called today from my rhubarb patch
To neighborly Mrs. Skinner.

A good and pleasantsome soul is she,
Though her boys drive awful wild;
Thirty years since she came as a bride—
My, what a fair-lipped child;

And the rockers creak like a door-latch lift,
Knocking the ages through.
Beckon, beckon the stones beyond
With Cath'lic quiet for you.

Father Malloy has powdered his nose
And spoke like the priest he is;
My, and I never thought we'd be Buried by hands of his;

For he is old as a cottonwood
Here on our hillside street . . .
The rabbits come from the grove across
After our lettuce sweet.

Nibble, nibble the ages away,
And their green little lips are there
Moving holily up and down,
Like the lift of a rockin' chair.
MacKinlay Kantor.

KING GEORGE OF ENGLAND has shut up his desk, packed up his fishing togs, and a bunch of novels, and gone off on his summer vacation. He gets two months. There's a lot of talk about the king business not being so good as it used to be, but when a king can get two months off when the most of us get only two weeks, one must admit it is still a pretty good job.

Whaffur?

Sir: At the lake yesterday I glimpsed a flowery-eyed little thing in a one-piece, who struck me as being the girl of my dreams. Never miss a chance is my rule, so I ambled up to her and said: "Can you swim?" "No," she came back snappily, "but I can wade like Hell!" Signing off. Baraboo.

Why, You Sarcastic Little Devil!

Dick: You've got to hand it to S. L. when it comes to diction. His, undoubtedly, is superb; he should occupy the chair of literary critic of the American Mercury or the Chicago Evening Post—and then we would be sure that there would not be any further Chicago obituary by Sam Putnam or anybody else. S. L. need not apologize to Mencken, either. S. L. knows his onions, all right; he knows a good kind of pies when he smells one, and he eats it when the eating is good. Hats off to S. L., Mencken included! Medillian.

ABORIGINE came to town yesterday from his far off home in Iowa and sat on our desk and talked about ships and sealing wax and kings. You remember the first thing Aborigine had in the Line?

Rumor came on the north wind yesterday that sneering death lurked near my favorite field, and I hurried from the town to cry a protest, but this thing was there before me and the latest and the bravest dandelion was dead.

That's it, "December," and it was printed in the Line four or five years ago, just a few days after the present incumbent had taken over the col-con job. It's on page 16 of the revised white Line Book. It made Aborigine famous. Since then he's written "Things in Grey," "The Sound of the Silence," "Vacuum," "The Varmint," and lots of others, but no one who has read it has ever forgotten "December." "Yessir," said Aborigine, "and I remember the row that Tom Tallmadge kicked up because he said that gray Norns didn't fly around in December chanting dirges. Well, as a matter of fact I never called that piece 'December,' I called it 'November.' How did it get changed?" Then we had to admit that we hadn't found Aborigine's masterpiece until almost the end of December. It had come in apparently early in November, but had slipped somehow into the bottom drawer of an old desk and was neatly buried under some oil rags, a pair of old shoes, and a skid chain. We exhumed the remains and printed 'em. Gray Norns are nothing in our life. We failed to understand why they couldn't flop around and chant dirges just as well in December as in November, and so we changed the title to make it more timely. "Oh," said Aborigine, "I've often wondered."

They'll Smack Your Sassy Face.

Dick: You are absolutely right about the German horse winning the war, and it's a ten to one shot that these municipal authorities were excavalrymen. Many years before the late mêlée, the Imperial Deaths Head Hussars had a mess toast which ran in translation something like this: "First comes Gott, then comes the Kaiser, then comes the cavalry officer, then comes the cavalry officer's horse, then comes the cavalry soldier, then comes the cavalry soldier's horse, then comes the infantry officer, then comes nothing, then comes the infantry soldier. Hoch! The cavalry!" And may I not add a few more nothings and say that then come the Leathernecks. Yours for peace—
E. S. Colta.

RIQ SAID IN HIS Pillar to Post yesterday, "R. H. L. will say Thursday that what France needs now is a good kick in the France." We'll absolutely deny that we are going to say anything of the kind. BUT—we will admit that France ought to have at this very moment a swift kick in the francs.

We Hasten to Immediately Join the Parade.

R. H. L.: Two weeks ago you hastened to cheerfully second the nomination of making this guy, Doc Evans, president of the Split Infinitive club, and here last Saturday you goes and gives the job to Beatrice Fairfax. What for? I'll tell the cock-eyed universe this is a woman's world. Morris.

CANOES IN THE PARKS.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—I think that it would be a good idea to allow canoes on the lagoons in public parks. The rowboats they have now are heavy and feel as though they weighed a ton apiece. I never leave one of the boats without having blisters on my hands.

I like a lot of fun on the water, but rowboats spoil it all. If the park boards think that canoes are dangerous, I suggest that they look at some canoes equipped with sponsons. These canoes are impossible to tip accidentally.

If the park boards are afraid to invest so much money why not build some "garages" and let the people buy their own canoes, rent the "garages" and have their fun on the half way decent lagoons?

The Des Plaines river, where most of the canoeing is being done at present, is extremely dirty. There are snags and what-not in the water which make canoeing dangerous.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE SOX!

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Along about this time of the year the genial sports writers proceed to hand out the same old inspired bunk concerning our Chicago White Sox: "Luke McGlook, the speedy young outfielder who was farmed out to a club in the Southern Arkansas circuit, has been recommended by the scouts as being ready for the big league; he will again accompany the Sox on their spring training trip." The same sort of piffle is also applied to a raft of other second-raters who will never approach pennant-winning form.

A glance at the line-up of the New York American league club will enlighten any baseball fan as to the real reason for the decline of the White Sox. Col. Ruppert and his associates have never been backward in spending money when their club needed players. During the last five or six years the owners of the White Sox have apparently become case-hardened; as long as the shekels roll in the magnates should worry about the standing of the team. The Sox need a clean-up hitter in the outfield, they could use another classy infielder; at least one more winning pitcher would fit in nicely, and, most important of all, they should have several capable reserve players on the bench. But what's the use—the case seems hopeless.

PHILADELPHIA'S PRE-EMINENCE.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—So Chicago is to have the best dressed police force in the United States? That is impossible for several reasons. The chief reason is that Philadelphia already has the best dressed and their outfits are unbeatable.

THE TRAINING OF FLEAS.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—"Reader" can hardly be surprised that his friends harbor doubts about the trained fleas that he saw at the Coliseum about ten years ago. It would mean taking a good deal on faith even though they have faith in his veracity. The explanation is that the "trained fleas" were not trained.

Around the thinnest part of the body a fine gold wire was placed and the ends twisted to hold it in place. The ends were left long enough to permit of their being attached to any object. In this way they were harnessed to all manner of wheeled vehicles, lawn mowers, etc. Tiny cones of colored papers were fastened to the end of the wires to simulate old-fashioned crinoline dresses, and when a group were released on a flat surface the scurryings in all directions were supposed to reproduce the movements of the many waltz, the fleas being for the time being hid by their petticoats.

When the upward projecting wire was attached to a wooden holder and inverted, bringing six panicky legs up into the air, a light pith ball furnished by these legs would seem to be juggled with Japanese skill, because of the flea's attempt to walk on a revolving ball. When the position was reversed, bringing the ball under, the flea would let go, and a surreptitious breath of air from the operator would make it seem to be shot into space.

The fleas were said to be a European species, larger than ours, and they were fed upon the forearm of the owner. Every movement made by them was a normal reaction for the insect to make to the conditions imposed at the moment. It is, of course, impossible to train fleas.

NEWS ABOUT AUTO RACING.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Why can't we have a little news about the auto race game for the thousands of race fans in Chicago? Some fellow chases a golf ball around and gets a column of writeup about it, or two fellows stall through eight or ten rounds of boxing and the next day a writeup of a terrible fight commands the sport section.

What sport requires more skill and daring than auto racing? In what other sport do men risk their lives every minute of the contest? Let's have a little news of the race driver, their cars, etc. We are not all golf and baseball fans.

1,000,000 TONS BRITAIN'S COAL IMPORT FOR JULY

Long Strike Exhausts Reserve Stores.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The prolonged coal strike in England is forcing British industries to subsist almost entirely on imported coal this month, and while the official board of trade figures show that June imports totaled 900,000 tons, the July figures will reach the 1,000,000 mark and the tonnage for August will exceed that, inquiries by THE TRIBUNE among London coal importers reveal.

THE TRIBUNE is informed that the government is importing only small quantities, sufficient to keep up the public utilities, such as gas and electricity. However, with the strike outlook darker, private importers now are placing heavier orders.

Most industries are affected by the coal shortage and are running on a greatly reduced basis since May 1, when the strike began. Such trades as engineering, steel, shipping, cotton spinning and ship building particularly are forced to reduce operations.

Until last month, the industries used up the supplies they had stored in anticipation of a prolonged stoppage. Such stores are now exhausted.

At present the United States, Germany, Poland and, to some extent, France, are supplying the British with coal.

Use 250,000,000 Tons Annually.

"When it is considered that England normally uses 250,000,000 tons yearly, the seriousness of the coal import problem is easily seen," one big importer said. "Most of our imports come from Germany, via Rotterdam, which is the easiest port for shipment facilities offered for quicker shipments and smaller loadings.

"Other large quantities of Polish coal are arriving via Danzig and increasing quantities are being received from the United States. Shipments from America are no more frequent, but the loadings are heavier. Some coal comes in from France, but British importers are wary of buying French coal because of the instability of the franc.

Cut Down U. S. Imports.

"The Ruhr mines report increased productions. Figures of shipments for the last week of July show that seventy ships were unloaded at British ports from Rotterdam. The traffic on the Rhine waterway is increasing and, owing to the increased British demand, there is a scarcity of big tonnage barges."

THE TRIBUNE learns the demand for American coal has slackened somewhat this week. British railway companies, which are the largest consumers of American coal, evidently are stocked up for a short period.

SANITARY BOARD DONATES LAND IN UNKINKING RIVER

Another possible obstacle to straightening of the river between Polk and 18th streets has been removed through an agreement between the city and the sanitary district, it was learned yesterday.

The sanitary board has agreed to donate to the city several narrow stretches of property along both banks of the river on the near south side, according to E. J. Noonan, engineer for the council railway terminals committee.

Mr. Noonan said that the committee has received word that the railroads entering the straightening agreement are making encouraging progress on terminal plans. Three types are under consideration he said, their cost ranging from $140,000,000 to $165,000,000.

August is the Last Month of Summer Prices

You can save money by buying Chicago Solvay Coke now, before the next advance in prices—before the rush of fall deliveries. This saving is possible on all sizes for hot air furnace, hot water boiler or stove. Although prices have advanced since last May there is still a decided advantage in buying this clean, sootless, smokeless fuel in August.

In thousands of Chicago and suburban homes, Chicago Solvay Coke has established a standard for comfortable and economical home heating—because it is higher in heating efficiency than hard coal, leaves fewer ashes and is 30% lower in cost. This summer more householders than ever before have taken advantage of the summer prices on this dependable home fuel.

Now, too, is the time to have one of our skilled fuel and furnace men call to look over your heating plant and to make recommendations that will help you get maximum results next winter from the Chicago Solvay Coke you buy this month. Any one of our 300 established fuel dealers will arrange the call or you may telephone us direct, today—Harrison 3580.

NEW YORK BALKS WATERWAY PLAN, REPORT CHARGES

Substitute Is offered for St. Lawrence Seaway.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

New York City is charged by the Illinois deep water way commission with chief responsibility for the opposition to the St. Lawrence deep waterway, which would make Chicago and other lake cities potential seaports. This commission, of which William Nelson Pelouze is chairman, has made a formal report to Gov. Small on the prevailing conditions with reference to this route.

"New York interests opposing the St. Lawrence project are offering as a substitute a 25 foot canal to connect Oswego with Albany. In order to give this canal additional prestige they refer to it as an 'all American project,'" reads the report.

"This name is simply a subterfuge, because there is nothing about it that is 'all American.' It is 'all New York' so far is the canal is concerned.

No "All American" Route.

"The Welland canal, which is an integral part of the lake-to-the-ocean development, is being built by the Canadian government. Likewise there can be no 'all American' route even though we connect Lakes Erie and Ontario on the American side, because the present ship canal through the Detroit river crosses the international boundary line into Canadian territory ten times. There is no such thing, therefore, as the 'all American route' to which New York so patriotically appeals."

Mr. Pelouze's commission asserts that the cost of the suggested New York canal makes it practically prohibitive.

Comparing the two projects the commission says to Gov. Small:

"It is proposed to build a canal 25 feet deep from Oswego to Albany, a distance of 179 miles. In comparison the distance to be covered by the St. Lawrence project is only 33 miles. In the New York project there are no power development possibilities as in the St. Lawrence route.

More Locks Called For.

"The St. Lawrence project requires the building of only seven locks. The New York enterprise requires 31 locks, and in addition will require 82 bridges, of which 14 will be railroad draw bridges.

"The cost of the Oswego to Albany canal as estimated by reputable government engineers would be $506,000,000 with an annual upkeep of $30,000,000. The St. Lawrence development, which is the natural outlet to connect the great lakes with the Atlantic ocean, will cost only $253,000,000, of which $100,000,000 is represented in the cost of installing electrical apparatus for power development."

Value of Feeder Plan.

Switching from the propaganda against the northern water route, the report discusses the value of waterways.

"When both the St. Lawrence and the Illinois waterways are in operation," reads the report, "they will prove component parts of one another; each will benefit the other because each will prove a feeder to the other. The manufacturers of Milwaukee, Duluth, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland and Buffalo, who have shipments for the Pacific coast via the Panama canal, will ship by way of the Illinois and Mississippi rivers, because the distance is shorter and the time and cost of freight are less than any other route."

BUSINESS IS GOOD DESPITE VACATION LULL, U. S. REPORTS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Reports showing favorable business conditions were issued today by the United States employment service and by the federal reserve board.

The employment report disclosed "that the country as a whole is on a fairly satisfactory basis."

"A slight decrease in operations and employment occurred in several of the major industries during the month," the report said, "mainly as a result of the usual mid-summer slackening for plant alteration, repair work and inventory taking, which necessarily calls for the releasing of many workers for a short time. This also is a vacation period."

Factory employment in Chicago and other parts of Illinois increased slightly during July. This was shown by reports from 513 manufacturing establishments, including 261 in Chicago.

"Employment in the metals and machinery group of industries was well maintained, the steel mills especially in some cases adding to the number of their workers," says the Chicago report. "A marked decline took place in the estimated cost of new building which was authorized during the first half of the month as compared with the first two weeks of June.

HEREDITY MAKES LION MAN EATER, EXPERT REPORTS

[Copyright: 1926: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, Aug. 11.—A strange story of an entire race of man-eating lions, whose ancestors killed man only by accident, but who themselves prefer human flesh because of the hereditary taint now in their blood, is contained in a report of the chief game warden of the British colony of Uganda. The report appears to corroborate the result of experiments in the breeding of rats, announced yesterday by Prof. McDougall of Harvard, who trained generation after generation of rats to find out their way from a water tank until their descendants showed a hereditary tendency to seek the right outlet.

The lions of the Sanga district of Ankole, which ordinarily would share the instinctive fear of man felt by the rest of their species, do not breed true to type as they are man eaters for the reason that their forebears were driven by accident or hunger in a period of starvation to taste numan blood.

They have caused a reign of terror, reports the game warden, on the Obarara-Masala road, and an appalling death roll has resulted. One lion alone was responsible for eight-four deaths and another for more than forty kills before they were destroyed.

FILIPINO PRESS GOSSIP ROUSES THOMPSON'S IRE

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MANILA, Aug. 11.—Col. Carmi Thompson, President Coolidge's personal investigator in the Philippines, was subjected to serious diplomatic embarrassment today. The Philippines Herald published a front page story that when his survey of the islands is completed he will undertake a secret investigation in China for the President.

The only foundation for the article is the fact that Col. Thompson discussed the probability of his work here being concluded earlier than was expected, which would afford an opportunity to spend some time in China during which he could confer with Minister John A. MacMurray, who is an expert on far eastern relations.

But the Manila paper not only associated this with a secret inquiry to be made, but quoted Col. Thompson as confirming it as follows:

"I will stay in Peking twenty-four days on my way home. I have been asked by the President to do some state work there in connection with problems affecting his administration. I may stay at the American legation in Peking."

Then the article continued:

"When asked if the work he will have to do in Peking will be confidential Col. Thompson answered in the affirmative. It was intimated in authoritative circles, however, that the colonel's investigation may have something to do with the participation of the United States in the extraterritoriality and customs conference."

Col. Thompson is indignant. He said the Filipino reporter had heard rumors that he might end his work here early in October and then spend three weeks in China, but when asked if he was going to make an investigation or handle official matters, the colonel answered in unqualified negatives.

ADMITS EFFORT TO ATTACK CHILD.

Elmer Nelson, 17 years old, 2035 North Sawyer avenue, a delivery boy for a loop store, confessed last night following his identification, to an attempted attack on a 5 year old Evanston girl.

CLOSE GATES OF SESQUI SUNDAYS, ORDER OF COURT

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Judge Edwin O. Lewis handed down a decision in Common Pleas court today holding that the opening of the sesquicentennial exposition gates on Sundays for an admission fee is unlawful.

In Pennsylvania, he said, the operation of anything not necessary on the Sabbath for which an admission fee is charged is worldly employment and contrary to law.

"It looks like Sunday closing," said Mayor Kendrick when he learned the decision. "This is one of the hardest of many blows we have sustained."

Church and State At War In Mexico

THE "FINISH FIGHT" between Church and State which is going on in Mexico, has never had a parallel, newspaper editors say, on the Western continent. The Calles Government, according to official statements and dispatches from Mexico, considers the struggle one to abolish forever the political power which the Catholic Church has heretofore exercised in Mexico, while by the Church, the Government's campaign is regarded as a war upon religion under the pretext of destroying political activity on the part of the clergy.

While this is a real contest between Church and State, all observers agree that it differs from the civil conflicts to which Mexico is so accustomed, for both sides are avowedly opposed to stirring up actual revolution, the State relying chiefly on its authority and prestige, and the Church being committed to a campaign of "passive resistance."

Replies to The Literary Digest's telegraphic request to Mexican editors for comment showed a caution not unnatural under the circumstances.

The leading article in The Literary Digest, this week, presents a detailed statement of all the facts. It gives the views of American newspapers, outlines both sides of the case from authoritative Mexican sources, and thus enables American readers to understand the situation as it exists in the Mexican Republic.

High-Priced Senators in Illinois

Something over $1,000,000 to nominate two United States Senators in Illinois, coming after the disclosure of "cash register politics" in Pennsylvania, sets the country wondering whether ballots are to be displaced by large-denominated bills in our State primaries.

This news-article shows public opinion upon the investigation being conducted by Senator Reed of campaign contributions in Illinois.

A TISH STORY

By

Mary Roberts Rinehart

No matter what Charlie Sands might try to insinuate, there was no disputing the fact that at Tish's first séance she materialized an undeniable goldfish—and, at her second, she transmuted said goldfish into something suspiciously resembling an astral cat!

Yet her psychic powers—and her indomitable will—ran slap, bang into a stone wall when she wrestled with Emmie Hartford, that human jellyfish, to cure her doting but deluded husband, Will, of his delusions.

There has never been a Tish story with as many laughs in it as this one and you will want to turn right to it the first thing in this week's Saturday Evening Post—now on sale—five cents.

HOOVER PRESENT AS MAC CRACKEN TAKES HIS OATH

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—William P. MacCracken Jr. of Chicago was sworn in as assistant secretary of commerce in charge of civil aviation today. The oath was administered to Mr. MacCracken by Chief Clerk Libbey of the commerce department in the presence of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and Assistant Secretary J. Walter Drake.

Without comment on his plans for the promotion of civil aviation, Mr. MacCracken, after a brief ceremony, took over the suite of offices which have been assigned to him, and buckled down at once to work.

Assistant Secretary MacCracken's installation marked the completion of the groundwork of the comprehensive civil and military aviation programs authorized during the last session and under which he, as well as Assistant Secretary of War F. Trubee Davison, in charge of the army air corps and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Warner, in charge of naval aeronautics, were appointed.

Assistant Secretary Davison, accompanied by Brig. Gen. William N. Gilmore and Capt. Robert Walsh, both of the air corps, left Washington last night for Dayton, O., there to begin an inspection of army air fields which, beginning with the McCook field at Dayton tomorrow will include visits to Scott field at Belleville, Ill., and the air corps technical school at Rantoul on Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Davison expects to fly from Dayton to Belleville and Rantoul and will return to Washington by air, stopping en route at North field, Columbus, O., and Selfridge field, at Mount Clemens, Mich.

Assistant Secretary Warner left yesterday in a seaplane for Pensacola, Fla., to inspect the naval air station there. He planned a stop at Hampton Roads, Va., and after inspecting the Florida station, will proceed by rail to Detroit and Cleveland.

Two army training and observation airships of the nonrigid type—the "T. C. 5," and the "T. C. 9," made a practice flight from their base at Langley field, Hampton, Va., to Washington today, hovering over the city for several hours, before returning to their home station.

Each manned by two officers and two enlisted men, the big ships circled the capitol and Washington's monument several times, demonstrating their air worthiness by dipping down to within a few hundred feet of the buildings and then shooting up again at an acute angle.

TOURING PLANES ARE LANDED AT DES MOINES, IA.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 11.—(AP)—With the exception of two planes, the 22 airplanes of the Edsel Ford commercial airplane reliability tour, negotiated the fifth leg of their journey, 230 miles from St. Paul to Des Moines today, without serious mishap.

The Woodson No. 14, piloted by P. H. Downe, forced down with minor damages near Ankeny, Ia., was able to continue to the flying field here late today, but the Pitcairn No. 19 piloted by J. G. Ray, forced down five miles northeast of Faribault, Minn., may be out of the tour entirely, a telegram received here said, unless repairs can be quickly made.

The Travel-air No. 2, piloted by Walter Beech, the first plane to arrive here, landed at 12:26 p. m., and turned in a flying time average of 116.94 miles an hour, which keeps him in the lead he has maintained since leaving Detroit.

Although one wheel on the landing gear was lost on today's trip, the Pitcairn No. 20, by skillful handling, was able to land without accident.

Parachute Caught; Killed.

Dayton, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The brilliant career of an army air ace, Lieut. E. H. Barksdale who was credited with having bagged half a dozen airplanes during the world war and who many times escaped death by a hair, was ended at McCook here today when he jumped from his plane and his parachute failed to open.

Apparently realizing he would be unable to right the plane, Lieut. Barksdale jumped. His parachute caught in the fuselage and the plane swung over and over and the body of the officer was seen to fly through the air. Then, within a few hundred feet of the ground his parachute became loosened—the ropes sawed in two—and the lieutenant was hurled to the ground. He was killed instantly.

AIR TRANSPORT PROVES SUCCESS, COMPANY SAYS

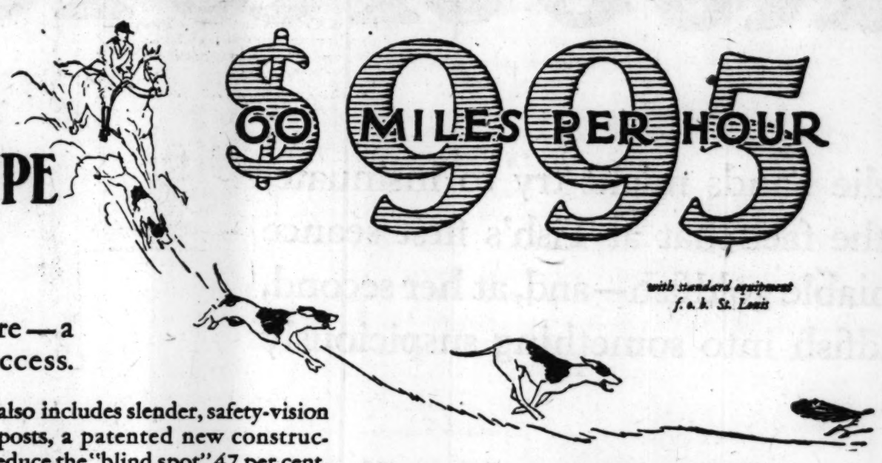
Closing its first quarter the National Air Transport company yesterday announced operation at ninety-seven per cent efficiency, an impressive record, it says for commercial aviation in America.

Carrying express and air mail over its thousand mile line from Chicago to Dallas, Tex., the company failed only once to deliver its cargo. In 368 flights with mail only ten forced landings were made and only one of those was due to mechanical trouble.

A date will be announced soon, the company said, when passenger traffic will be started. A new multi-motored all steel monoplane will be available for that service before Sept. 1.

The Jubilee MOON 6-60

A New Revolutionary EUROPEAN-AMERICAN TYPE SIX UNDER $1000



60 MILES PER HOUR $995

with standard equipment f. o. b. St. Louis

The long-looked-for Jubilee Moon "6-60" is here—a fitting climax to 20 years of world-wide success.

It is just the car you have wanted for a long time. Three billion dollars' worth of concrete roads, new cars increasing at the rate of three million a year, traffic conditions that did not exist three years ago, all demand it.

Styled in Europe—Built in America

The Jubilee "6-60" is of distinctively different, original design. It is a compact, low, roomy, economical, light European type, adapted thruout to meet America's motoring needs.

It has great driving speed, tremendous acceleration, high pulling power at low speed and extreme flexibility.

You can get 22 miles to the gallon of gas from its high-torque, long-stroke motor. You can shoot its speed from 5 to 25 miles in 7¾ seconds—and then up to 60 miles an hour.

Designed for Women, Too

Growing millions of women at the wheel demand easier steering and parking. With the "6-60" you can turn in a 39-foot radius and park in a 14-foot space with one hand. And the patented steering gear which makes this possible, also self-centers the front wheels.

Today you must have brakes that work more quickly, surely, smoothly. The Moon Lockheed four-wheel hydraulic brakes insure a safe, positive stop—and they are the only kind that stay equalized against skidding.

The "6-60" also includes slender, safety-vision windshield posts, a patented new construction. They reduce the "blind spot" 47 per cent. And cut the possibility of accident by one-half.

New Light-Car Ease

Everybody wants a compact car of greater ease and comfort. The "6-60" has an extremely low center of gravity, yet full road clearance. The car is only 70 inches high. A six-footer can look over the top—and also sit in the car and drive with perfect freedom of movement and plenty of room.

The body is cradled low and sprung for restful riding. Imagine an automobile with springs nearly as long as the entire frame (within 19½ inches).

Every unit carries an extra margin of strength and safety. For instance, the "battleship" frame of the chassis is 6 inches deep with 7 cross members.

The car is of such charm, such quality, so attractively priced, so deliberately designed for the new traffic needs that it is bound to leap into instant popularity.

See It Today

See the Jubilee "6-60" today. Admire its beautiful appearance. Ride in it. Know its comfort, its safety. Drive it. Compare its adaptability to modern driving conditions with any car you have ever known.

New "6-60" Features

1. European type, small bore, long stroke Moon-Continental motor, 2⅛"x4¾", developing 47½ brake horsepower at 2600 r.p.m.
2. Speed 60 miles an hour, accelerating from 5 to 25 miles in 7¾ seconds.
3. Economy-tested to 22 miles per gallon of gasoline.
4. Battleship frame 6" deep braced by seven cross members.
5. Spark full automatic.
6. Steers without effort, easily handled, easily parked; patented steering gear self-centers front wheels.
7. Four-wheel hydraulic brakes stay equalized and practically prevent skidding.
8. Extremely low yet plenty of road clearance.
9. Compact, yet roomy with rear seats 48" wide.
10. Springs are within 19½" of entire wheelbase length.
11. Narrow safety-vision windshield posts reduce "blind spot" 47 per cent.
12. New body design in attractive duo-tone lacquer. Enclosed cars upholstered in Mo-Tex, a special new automobile Fabric. Roadster in genuine leather.
13. Original and distinctive radiator.

Try to get them all in any other car at this price

In addition to the 2-door Brougham illustrated here, the "6-60" line includes a 4-door Sedan, Roadster, Coupe, Phaeton, De Luxe Brougham and De Luxe Roadster.

All cars have wood wheels, 29x4.75 tires, except de luxe models which are equipped with disc wheels and 29 x 4.95 tires.

GROW WITH THE TRIBUNE IN 1926

3 NATIONS SERVE WARNING NOTES ON BULGARIANS

Demand End of Boundary Raids by Irregulars.

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 11.—Jugo-Slavia, Greece and Roumania today served a collective note on Bulgaria demanding suppression of the Macedonian revolutionary societies and rigorous prevention of frontier violence.

The diplomatic communication, which has threatened the Balkan peace for the last week, was received at noon by M. Bourov, Bulgarian minister for foreign affairs, from the ministers of Jugo-Slavia and Roumania and the chargé d'affaires of Greece.

THE TRIBUNE is informed by the Bulgarian foreign office that the note "seriously drew the Bulgarian governments' attention to the necessity of definitely suppressing the evil producing activity of the revolutionary committees existing under several names in Bulgaria, and asks the Bulgar government to instruct the boundary authorities to perform their duty, not only as good neighbors but according to international rules regulating border lines, and to take vigorous measures to prevent future activities of the revolutionary organizations."

Notes Friendly, He Says.

Minister Bourov acknowledged receipt of the note and told the ministers they could expect a reply within a week, after the contents were communicated to the cabinet and studied. The Bulgarian foreign office refused to give out the text of the note, but assured THE TRIBUNE that the note did not contain anything other than the mention of what it summarized above, and that it was conciliatory and friendly in tone.

The absence of demands for extradition of specific persons charged with the murders which occurred in the last raid by irregular troops into Serbian territory is considered curious, in view of the statement made to THE TRIBUNE Sunday, and the belief is growing that Jugo-Slavia was forced to modify the note in order to obtain the signatures of Roumania and Greece.

Situation Still Clouded.

The situation is now no nearer solution than upon its reopening ten days ago, when threats of ultimatums began to fly. The Bulgarian policy remains as outlined in yesterday's statement to THE TRIBUNE. Sofia refuses to accept responsibility for the Macedonian raids.

CHICAGO JUDGE LAUDS PALESTINE ZIONIST COLONY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VIENNA, Aug. 11.—Judge Harry M. Fisher of the Circuit court of Cook county arrived here today from Palestine, where he had been investigating the Zionist colony. Judge Fisher, who is actively supporting the movement in Chicago, told THE TRIBUNE of his three weeks' stay in Palestine.

He said he was greatly impressed with the things accomplished by the Zionists in Palestine, but there was a setback last year. He attributes this largely to the economic collapse of Poland. A large number of Polish Zionists who had hoped to settle in Palestine were obliged to return to Poland, hoping to save something, and others who had counted on support from Poland now had spent all and have nothing to look forward to.

The unemployment problem, he said, was made worse by competition from Arab labor. Judge Fisher, nevertheless, believes wonderful work has been done in Palestine, not only by the Jews, but in establishing the social service organization, hospitals, children's work, etc.

He thought some of the agricultural work is long past the experimental stages, especially orange growing, which now is the best in Europe and on a par with the best American oranges.

Tries to Kill Self and Fails; Wants to Try Again; Jailed

Frustrated in an attempt to commit suicide by asphyxiation, George Hull, 48 years old, 3128 East 92d street, was locked up in a cell at the South Chicago police station when he continued to declare that he wished to end his life. He turned on the gas in his bedroom and was rescued only after his twin brother, Oscar, turned in a call for assistance. Oscar Hull was the roach exterminator who carelessly allowed a deadly gas to enter a south side flat in 1923, killing six persons. He was acquitted of all blame.

Stevens August Fur Sale

Presents the New Mode and Offers Rare Values

OUR early display of furs is noteworthy not only for the new styles in furs, as sponsored by Paris—but in addition, during the August Fur Sale, it offers such special prices that the values are extreme. ¶ Interesting inexpensive furs such as Hempster, Giraffe, and Carova in reversible coats with novelty wool linings, as well as Natural Calf and Bronze Hair Seal models for girls make their appearance this Fall, and the assortment is so large that it is a distinct pleasure to make a choice now. The added urge of economy makes it worth while for every woman who is planning to have a fur coat this winter—and a warm fur coat is a necessity in Chicago—to buy during the August Sale.

FEATURING

Hudson Seal Coat, crush collar of Natural Mink, special . $300
Bronze Caracul Coat, shawl collar and cuffs of Bronze Squirrel, $308
Grey Squirrel Coat, shawl collar $420
Special Tomboy Raccoon Coat $236

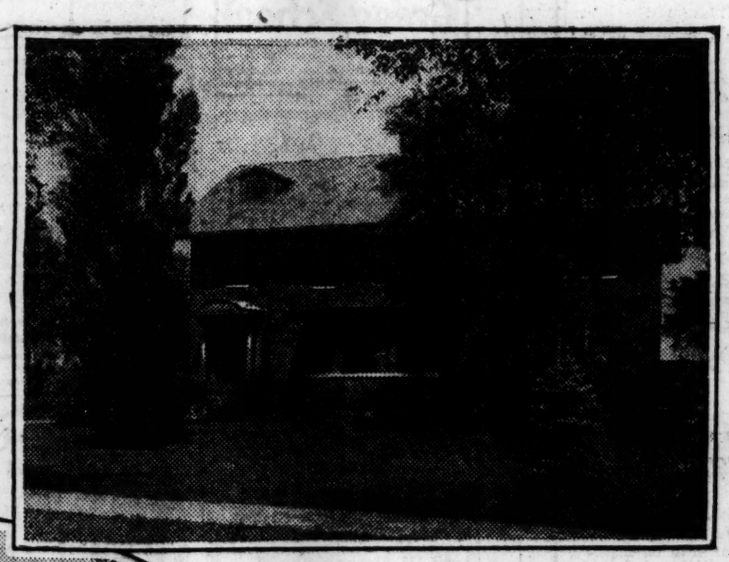
COST OF FUEL
Is Not the Cost of Heating

The price per ton is only part of the cost of coal. Your time must be added. Inconvenience takes its toll. Extra housecleaning must be paid for in money or effort. Your discomfort and mental anxiety make coal expensive at any price!

For seven years Oil-O-Matic has been eliminating all these items. The cost of operation compares very favorably with the bare cost of coal and you get complete automatic service in addition!

Oilomaticians offer you a character of service unique in the oil burner industry. Let the one nearest you quote you on an installation best suited to your needs.



Enjoys Oilomatic Heat During Summer

"Our burner is set for 68 degrees all during the summer. Every cold day it comes on and gives us such comfort. It is so clean and completely satisfactory that we urge all of our friends to get one. We heat 12 rooms and the garage which is 70 feet away."

Mrs. A. C. HOOF, 255 Park Ave., Hinsdale.

Physician Recommends Oilomatic Heat

"All that is claimed for Oil-O-Matic is true. We have heated our 12-room house since April 15, 1925 and have never had to call for service. We can't praise it too highly."

DWIGHT C. ORCUTT, M. D., 185 Green Bay Road, Hubbard Woods.

Make Your Furnace Take Care of Itself

Oil-O-Matic replaces coal with cheap Fuel Oil and feeds it automatically to your present boiler or furnace. It regulates its own draft. It starts and stops itself. It maintains a constant, uniform temperature. It supplies heat only when needed, but always then!

MIDWEST IS BUSY AND PROSPEROUS, IOWAN ASSERTS

Business prospects in the middle west are brighter than at any time during the last eight years, Paul Davis, an Iowa merchant, declared yesterday at the 10th semi-annual interstate merchants' conference on business building plans at the Sherman hotel.

Increased profits throughout the country mean increased buying power, he said. He added that the wise merchant will lay plans, through advertising campaigns and special merchandising events, to tempt buyers into his store.

Easy payment plans have brought luxuries like automobiles, radios, and pianos to the farmers and into communities, he said. With his money tied up in monthly installment payments, farmers hesitate to buy necessities, he declared. If the local merchants want business they must learn to go after it as aggressively as do the automobile salesman and the radio dealer.

Many Women Attend.

Of the 2,000 middle western merchants registered for the three day council, representing about 3,500 retail stores, nearly one-half are women. Many of those women are proprietors of independent business organizations.

Mrs. E. J. Corbin, owner of a millinery store at Brookings, S. D., declared that the farmer's wife has become a discriminating buyer. With her automobile, she gets around and sees more, even visiting shopping centers of the larger cities and now, far from being the dowdy dresser of a few years ago, she demands the latest modes and finest quality in her buying, Mrs. Corbin said.

Talks on Religion of Business.

Service to the customer was emphasized by H. P. Williams of Chicago, whose subject had to do with "The Religion of Business." The secret of success, Mr. Williams said, lies in getting as many people of your community as possible to believe in you. Profits will be the result of good service.

Other speakers included Ray Morton Hardy of Lansing, Mich., and J. R. Bauman of New York City. The merchants were welcomed to Chicago by W. R. Dawes, president of the Association of Commerce. Presiding over the sessions was C. W. Hall of Green Bay, Wis., president of the council.

Today's session opens at 2 p. m. with a discussion of the latest advertising methods by J. G. Patee of Detroit and Edward Thompson.

TELLS SIX WAYS TO HELP FIGHT ON MOSQUITOES

Six rules for the average family to follow in helping prevent the breeding of mosquitoes were recommended yesterday by Maj. Edwin M. Skinner, in charge of the anti-mosquito campaign of the Gorgas Memorial institute. They were:

Keep roof gutters clean.
Keep cisterns tightly covered.
Abolish tin cans which may be full of water.
Don't allow water in the basement.
Don't take down screens until cold weather.
Don't allow tall grass or weeds on your property.

If every family followed these rules Chicago would take a long step forward in eliminating the mosquito evil, Maj. Skinner said.

RESCUES INJURED CARRIER PIGEON.

An injured carrier pigeon, thought to have been run over by an automobile, was picked up on the street last night by Mrs. Peggy Pleimling, 901 North Keeler avenue. The bird had a metal clasp on its leg which bore the identification, W-S-C-8474-AJ-26. Mrs. Pleimling is caring for it in her home.

MA FERGUSON CHANGES MIND ABOUT RESIGNING

Austin, Tex., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Grounded on the proposition that the acceptance of a challenge made "by Jim is not acceptance of a challenge by Miriam" and dedicated to defeat of the Ku Klux Klan, the campaign of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson for the governorship of Texas was rechristened today in the garments it wore two years ago.

After days of silence as to her plans following certification of her name on the run-off primary ballot by the state Democratic executive committee Monday, she plunged full tilt today into all the turmoil of political affray. The battle cry of anti-klanism was uppermost, and her promise to quit thrown overboard by a contention that Attorney General Dan Moody, her opponent, never really accepted her challenge.

In a preliminary reply, Attorney General Moody, who lacked 1,770 votes of having a majority over his five opponents in the July 24 primary, laid the governor's statement at the door of her husband, former Gov. Ferguson, who is the political generalissimo of the present governor.

The Ferguson pronouncement removed all doubt as to the run-off primary, which is set by law for Aug. 28, and the Moody forces, who have been in a measure marking time, plunged at once into preparations.

UNITED STATES TIRES ARE GOOD TIRES

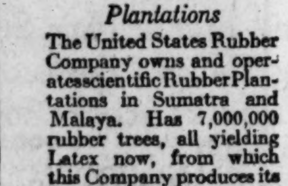
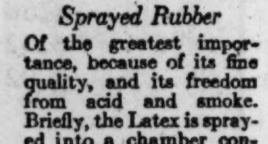
Answer—No.

Question—Then what does make a good tire?
Answer—The perfection of all the different operations that are necessary in producing the finished product from tree to tire.

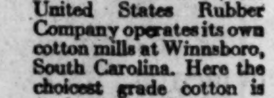
Question—As for example?
Answer—The success of the United States Royal Cord Balloon in delivering true balloon cushioning and comfort and yet giving long-lasting service, is largely due to these six important factors: Plantations, Sprayed Rubber, Uniform Cotton Cord, Latex-treated Web Cord, Flat Band Method, Tests.



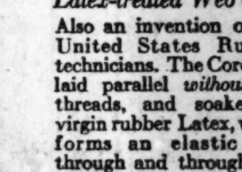
Plantations
The United States Rubber Company owns and operates scientific Rubber Plantations in Sumatra and Malaya. Has 7,000,000 rubber trees, all yielding Latex now, from which this Company produces its Sprayed Rubber and its Latex-treated Web Cord.



Sprayed Rubber
Of the greatest importance, because of its fine quality, and its freedom from acid and smoke. Briefly, the Latex is sprayed into a chamber containing hot, dry air, which dries out the liquid from the Latex, leaving the pure, solid rubber. This does away with the old methods of smoke-drying and acid coagulation.

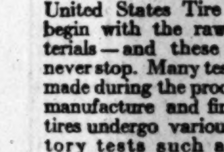


Uniform Cotton Cord
To ensure absolute uniformity and high quality of the cotton cord used in United States Tires, the United States Rubber Company operates its own cotton mills at Winnsboro, South Carolina. Here the choicest grade cotton is made into cords to meet the rigid requirements of the tire factories where it is used to produce Latex-treated Web Cord.



Latex-treated Web Cord
Also an invention of the United States Rubber technicians. The Cords are laid parallel without tie-threads, and soaked in virgin rubber Latex, which forms an elastic web through and through and between the cords. Important because it gives the cord structure maximum strength and maximum flexibility.

Flat-Band Method of Building Tires
Do not miss the importance of this revolutionary improvement in tire-building. The way it works is highly technical. But the result is that each cord in a United States Royal Cord is made to lie in exactly the right position, under precisely the right tension, and to take its due share of the work.



Searching Tests from the Tree to the Tire
United States Tire tests begin with the raw materials—and these tests never stop. Many tests are made during the process of manufacture and finished tires undergo various factory tests such as the "Tread Wear Test" illustrated. Even after the tires are sold and in use, their performance on the road is being checked by factory-trained experts stationed all over the country.

'WEIRDEST PLACE IN CHICAGOLAND' IS NAUVOO, ILL.

Strangest place in Illinois, and one of the strangest in the modern world, is our stopping place in story No. 17 of The Tribune's Chicagoland tour.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

For the pilgrimage to Nauvoo, temple town of the Mormons in the days when they controlled elections in the western part of Illinois, and their premier shrine place seven years before Salt Lake City was thought of, your correct base is Keokuk.

(Partly because Keokuk people are informative and companionable, partly because the hotel there, which bears the name of the state, is admirable, and partly because the rides to the north and east take you into beautiful and interesting country.)

Nauvoo is petrified history.

Eighty years ago it was larger than Chicago then was and a good deal solider. It was the scene of hard, constructive work that made the prairie turn gold with great crops, the scene of as amazing credulities and impostures as there is record of in the annals of this continent, and the scene of outrages and tragedies which conferred a kind of saintship on a York state Yankee whom 700,000 devotees call this day "the martyr" and "Joseph of Palmyra."

Today Nauvoo has a population of 1,000—and no railroad.

Most Interesting Relic of All.

All the entrancing ironies of history, all the mockeries and admonitions of cynical Father Time, stalk out at you from the highways and the byways, from the lowlands of the old Mormon residential area and from the heights where most of Nauvoo's present population dwell.

I said stalking. Nay, here is one comes tripping—pious, pretty Sister Roberta, who pauses on her way to St. Mary's convent yonder to answer a traveler's questions. She trips away and is lost to view beneath the cross-tipped portals of her convent home.

And that structure was the Mormon arsenal in days when Prophet Joseph Smith—also mayor and generalissimo—and his Nauvoo legion gave Hancock county its bellyful of fighting!

Home Built from Temple.

And yonder ivy clad house of buff colored limestone, where dwells Father Tholen, Roman Catholic pastor at Nauvoo—that was built from the ruins of the vast Mormon temple which had 30 hewn pilasters costing $3,000 each, and, in its secret chambers, a baptismal font supported by twelve colossal carved oxen, and which was to have cost a million dollars and to have had a tower 200 feet high.

The Mormons would have expended the million and finished their Nauvoo tower—for they were indefatigable builders and shrewd financiers—save that Hancock county and shires adjacent on both sides of the great river made Illinois too hot to hold them. So the end of the temple was a wagon shop, and in it were built under Brigham Young's driving gaze the thousands of wagons in which he transported at first 2,000 and later twelve or fourteen thousand more of his exiles from the banks of the Mississippi to the basin of Salt Lake, a feat in generalship more than comparable to Xenophon's maneuvering of the Ten Thousand across desolation and into safety.

Still Shrine for 100,000.

But the departure of Brigham and his hosts did not end the history of Nauvoo as a shrine city. As such it functions to this day. I said the place is petrified history. But there are a hundred thousand members of the "Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints"—that is the present ecclesiastical name of the body of descendants of the Mormons who did not follow Brigham—who devoutly believe that "in the Lord's own time" Nauvoo will be restored to its glory of 80 years ago, when it had a population of, some say 25,000 and some 50,000, and was the best built city in our state.

These descendants and their co-religionists—for their church is steadily growing—point you to chapter and verse in the Hebrew and the Mormon Bibles, in both of which they believe, for proof that the prophecy is a certainty. The sentence is, "And the waste places shall be built again," and if it comforts them to apply that to Nauvoo, who shall begrudge them? They are good, order-loving, gentle, industrious people now, whatever they may have been in Prophet Joseph's turbulent time. Anyway, he paid with his life for his truculence.

To Rise by Revelation.

The "reorganized" Mormons at Nauvoo, who declare their forebears never did believe in plural marriage—chapter and verse for that, too—assured me that the town now drowsing on the Mississippi, where it makes a mighty bend twelve miles above Keokuk and broadens out into a great lake, will be restored "by revelation." Pending that, they ought to engage a good, live go-getter and develop a chamber of commerce. Those are genuine aids to the Lord's work nowadays.

We were speaking of history's ironies.

Look yonder! There is one now: A mild faced elderly man who is driving a hay wagon in from the placid fields that surround Nauvoo, except where some of the places of the vanished Mormon magnificoes come close to the river's bank. And the driver of the hay wagon is, if you please, high priest in the Melchisedek priesthood, which is the highest priesthood in the Mormon church—reorganized or otherwise—and the keys of which are held, so Mormons believe, by St. Peter, St. John, and St. James.

Joseph Smith's Vision.

Ninety-seven years ago Joseph Smith, founder and first "revelator" of the Mormon church, said John the Baptist told him that about the keys and the saints when John appeared to him in a vision and today 700,000 persons, including two of the shrewdest, most useful members of the United States senate, believe it.

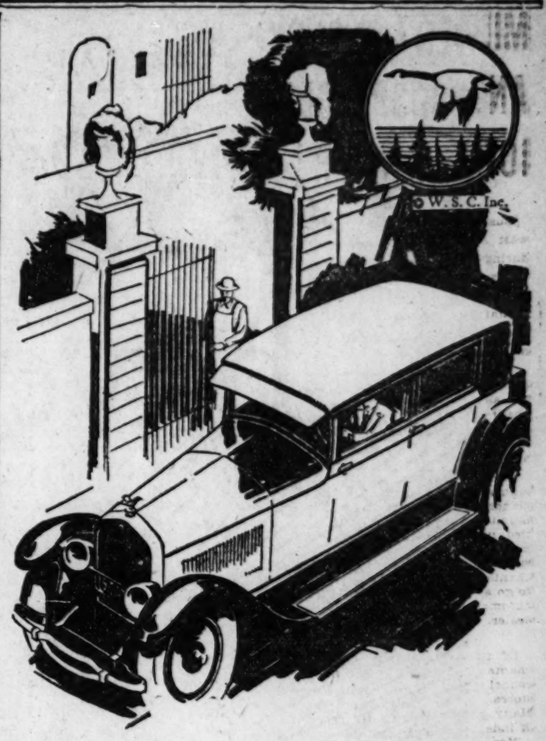
That old high priest on the hay wagon is John W. Layton, the most important man in the Mormon congregation at Nauvoo, which numbers 50 to 60 members and which has for pastor Heber—name outstanding in early Mormon annals—C. Snively.

So you see Nauvoo is no dead shrine. It functions, and has Mormon pageants and solemn anniversary services near the supposed grave of its murdered "martyr"—and entering the stately old mansion by the river bank, once the martyr's manor house, where High Priest Layton now lives, I heard one of the strangest tales I ever heard, and tomorrow I will tell it to you.

[Tomorrow: Over to the "Shrine Jail" at Carthage.]

Brother Arrested in Hunt for Slayer of Barbagallo

After a five weeks' search Samuel Barbagallo, 35 years old, 3115 South Wells street was taken into custody yesterday by county highway police in connection with the slaying of his brother, Louis Barbagallo, a barber, who was found shot to death in the Stickney road and whose murder was never solved. It was said that there had been trouble between the Barbagallo brothers since the slain man had been tried and acquitted three years ago of the slaying of another brother, Frank.



YOUR FAMILY'S THIRST. . . DO YOU DELIGHT IT. . . OR IGNORE IT?

When parched throats long for cool refreshment, what have you to offer? Thousands of homes are pleasanter because mother keeps generous bottles of Clicquot Club always on ice

YOUR family boasts of the meals you serve. Are they silent, disappointed, with what you give them to drink? A little knack of pleasing thirst has made thousands of homes more pleasant. It consists simply of planning for thirst as you do for hunger—of ordering enticing Clicquot Club Ginger Ale along with tempting food, and keeping this pure bubbling beverage always cooling on the ice.

Thousands of alert mothers have added this comfort to their home. With cool, bubbling Clicquot, these modern hostesses delight children, husband and guests alike. They all like it!

Some like the Clicquot Club Golden with its full invigorating ginger flavor. Others prefer the more subtle, delicate Clicquot Pale Dry. Neither of these drinks has that flat, insipid taste you find in ginger ales that have sprung up over night. Clicquot Club—since it was first made more than forty years ago, has pleased more people than any other ginger ale.

Clicquot Club is a healthful drink. It stimulates, refreshes without harm. It has a definite caloric food value. The real Jamaica ginger prevents stomach chill. The high carbonation aids digestion. These facts are recognized in the scores of hospitals where Clicquot is a regular part of the diet.

Next time you hear the words "I'm thirsty" will you be ready or ashamed? You can buy Clicquot by the case—24 bottles—from your grocer, or get it by the bottle, ice cold, from the drug store. The Clicquot Club Company, Millis, Mass.

More for your money

Clicquot Club is the best ginger ale that money can buy—and you get more ginger ale for your money. Each generous bottle contains a full pint—one third more than most other ginger ales.

Two flavors

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale comes in two flavors: the "Pale Dry," delicate and subtle; and the zestful, refreshing "Golden," America's favorite for forty-odd years.

When you order Clicquot Club no other drink can be substituted for it—because the name "Clicquot Club" is blown in the bottle itself; because the trade mark is on the bottle cap; because the bottle is distinctive in shape and, most important, because the contents are impossible of imitation.

Lady Diana Manners

England's most famous beauty and an actress of international repute, found Clicquot Pale Dry a real boon while traveling in America. She said: "Not only is it much safer than frequent changes of water, but it is delightfully refreshing. And it is always the same wherever I order it, on trains, and hotels in different cities."

For Those Who Demand Something Different

If you are content with blue serge, roast beef, square houses and domestic cigars, then Wills Sainte Claire is not made for you.

Other motor cars of more or less distinction will do just as well.

Happily, there is a small but extremely worth-while group of people who are more exacting in their tastes. They are rather partial to Biltmore tweeds, squab pheasant, sandstone cottages and pure Havana leaf.

They do most of the things worth while in this world, and they do what they do with a flare—LIVE WITH AN AIR!

For these C. Harold Wills created Wills Sainte Claire. One must be born with the divine gift of INDIVIDUALITY, before the half-European beauty, and wholly American pep and power of this remarkable car becomes an irresistible necessity.

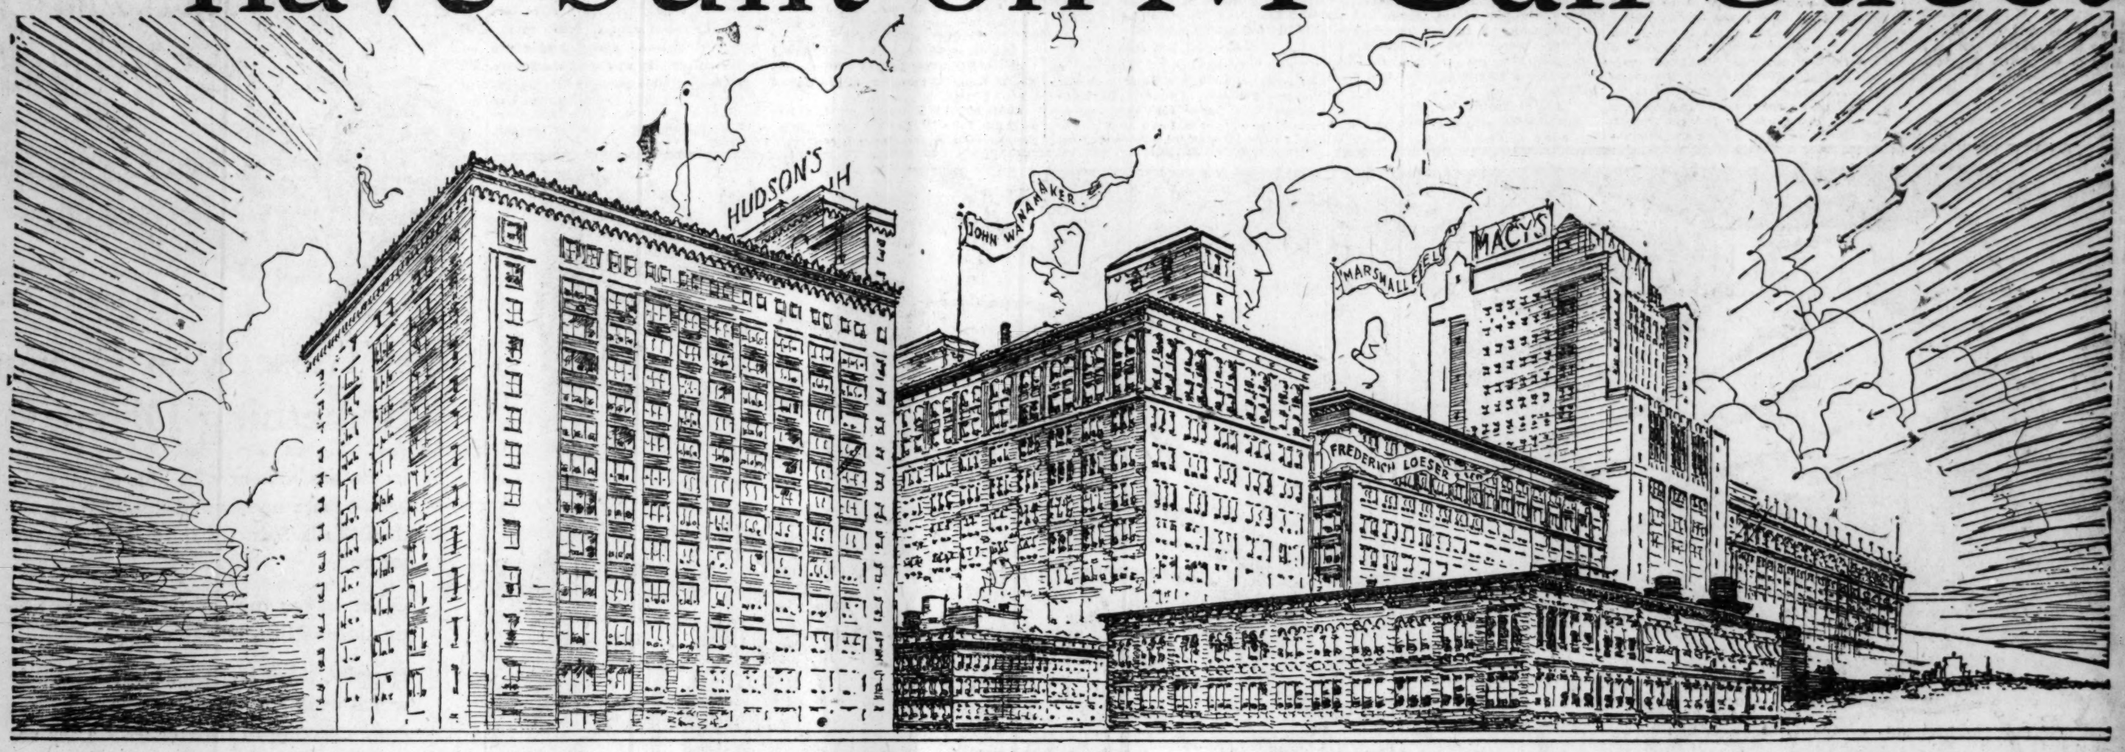
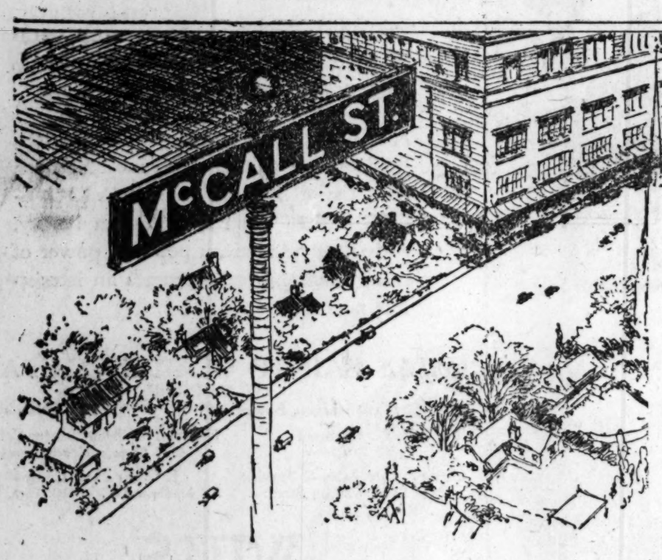
9,453 Retail Stores have built on McCall Street



JOHN WANAMAKER R.H. MACY FREDERICK LOESER MARSHALL FIELD J. L. HUDSON



They are using the famous McCall Printed Pattern to promote the sale of piece goods and notions

HOME dressmaking is a vital part of American life. Since the advent of the sewing machine and modern style and pattern services, there is hardly a family which does not produce a part of its wardrobe in the home.

Every Spring there are millions of children who must be outfitted for the coming summer and hundreds of thousands of young girls who must have a stylish and adequate vacation wardrobe. Then there are the countless Marys and Janes and Annes who must have that cherished new dress for graduation or confirmation, not to mention the thousands who are ever busy fashioning the bridal trousseau.

This vast volume of home dressmaking has created a market for piece goods and notions that is highly profitable to the nation's department stores. For it is in the piece goods department that the shopping interest of so many women centre. It is the magnet that draws much trade to the store.

The great stores pictured above—just a few of the 9,453 retail stores on McCall Street—make their piece goods department a vital part of the store, and their pattern department the vital part of the piece goods department. All these stores sell the McCall Printed Pattern, because it is now the outstanding pattern service of the world.

There is a tremendous demand for these patterns from the 2,112,377 families on McCall Street because the McCall Patterns are featured in the regular fashion section of McCall's Magazine. In this fashion section, "L'Echo de Paris," are shown the latest creations of the great French couturiers and the smartest vogues of fashionable Europe. Through the McCall Pattern Service these styles are quickly made available to the women on McCall Street.

McCall Street—a style-minded market

Women who are accustomed to dress themselves and their families according to such up-to-date and dependable style advice, are surely the kind of women who have a similar viewpoint about the food they serve and the way it is served; the furniture and household appliances they buy; the toilet goods they use; and all the various articles that families of good taste and good income require.

McCall Street is a distinct and definite group that knows the new thing; that wants to do it; that invariably finds the money to do it with—in short, the people who are getting ahead in life.

If you are seeking a market where the viewpoint and purse is quick to respond to known merit, advertise on McCall Street.

McCall Styles dress the world

The greatest French couturiers inspire the styles for McCall's. They even create directly the fashions for the famous McCall Printed Patterns. These authentic styles are brought to America by the McCall Company and through the McCall Printed Pattern are quickly made available in practically every city and town in the United States and Canada.

Because of their simplicity and authenticity McCall Patterns have a world-wide reputation and sale. McCall Fashions are on sale in Selfridge's of London—the greatest store in the British Empire—in Liverpool, Glasgow, Edinburgh, throughout the British Isles. They are bought by the women of Melbourne, Australia, and through David Jones, the great department store in Sydney, which has one of the largest pattern departments in the world. In Johannesburg, in Havana, in Sitka—wherever women take pride in their dress—McCall Printed Patterns and the McCall Style Service are known. The world looks to Paris for its fashions, but it looks to America to create the patterns that will reproduce them successfully.

McCall Street is McCall's Magazine

If the 2,112,377* families in which McCall's Magazine is read all lived on a single street—a home every 25 feet—the houses would line both sides of a roadway from Boston to San Diego. Seventy per cent of the McCall Street families are concentrated in the trading areas of the 287 cities of 25,000 population and over.

*Average net paid circulation for entire year 1925

Known Merit

TO have merit and not be known may mean something in the future, but it means nothing at present. To be known but to be without merit is to be sliding from the present into the past.

But known merit is a thing of the immediate present. McCall's is a magazine of the immediate present. Its contributors are writers of known merit. Its advertisers offer goods of known merit, and its readers buy and consume known merit.

TWO BILLS WIN GRUELING DAVIS DOUBLES MATCH

Play 32 Games in the Final Set.

BILL JOHNSTON. [I. & H. Photo.]

The beaten team, which had taken the two previous matches on Monday and Tuesday, carried America's first two ranking players through one of the longest and most brilliantly played battles of tennis history in the final set.

Richards Finally Loses Serve.

For thirty games, service prevailed without a single break, and then the national singles titleholder and his far best partner smashed through Richards for advantage. Johnston then battered his way through the thirty-second game for a victory without losing a point.

Few doubles encounters on the historic west side courts have produced more sensational tennis than today's struggle between members of the "Big Four." So strong and accurately placed were the services of each player and so decisive were the volleying and smashing at the net that only seven of the games advanced as far as deuce. Moreover, there were only eleven deuce games and but four breaks through service in the entire match.

Williams proved the vulnerable link in the championship team during the first two sets, two breaks in the first set and one in the second being scored by Tilden and Johnston whipped back the ball at his feet. The victors also had better teamwork.

Lott and Chapin Win.

Preceding this match, which lasted almost two hours, Edward G. Chandler of California and Lewis N. White of Austin, Tex., lost the final struggle of their series against George Lott of Chicago and Alfred H. Chapin Jr. of Springfield, Mass., 6—4, 6—4, 1—6, 1—9, 6—4.

SEEDED JUNIORS WIN

The national junior tennis tourney favored of California yesterday as four Pacific coast boys won their way into the quarter finals with impressive victories over their fourth round opponents. One Texan, one Chicagoan, and two easterners also landed in the select group of eight as the result of the day's play, which left only seeded players for the final dash for the title.

Only two of the favorites were forced to travel three sets to gain their brackets, and both displayed fight by coming back to win the final sets after dropping the first.

Howe Bancroft of San Diego upset Don Strachan of Philadelphia, 3—6, in the opening set, but Tilden's protégé had evidently learned the secrets of the national champion's comeback power, for he increased the speed of his drives and crushed Bancroft in the next two sets, 6—0, 6—3.

Pare Shows Improvement.

Ben Gorchakoff, Los Angeles, struck a tartar in Jimmy Quick of Dallas, Tex., dropping the first set, 3—6, and then winning the next two, 6—2, 6—1. Ernest Pare, displaying an improved game, carried Chicago's colors into the quarter finals by eliminating Eddie Jacobs, Baltimore southpaw, 9—7, 6—4. Jacobs' chopping game kept Emmet Pare driving with his accustomed power, but the former St. Mel boy kept the upper hand at all times.

Berkeley Bell, the wiry, bronzed Texan, loomed larger as the coming champion by crushing Malcolm Hill of Wabash, Mass., with unexpected ease, 6—1, 6—2. Bell has yet to lose more than two games a set to an opponent.

Howard Langlie, of Seattle, tumbled before Dolf Muehleisen of San Diego, 6—3, 6—2, while John Doeg, seeded number 2, disposed of Joseph Smith of St. Louis, 6—3, 6—4.

In the other matches of the day Julius Seligson, New York, beat Art Bowman, Los Angeles, 6—4, 6—1, and Robert Seller, San Francisco, eliminated Gustav Feuer, Miami, 6—2, 6—3.

O'Loughlin Beats Sheldon.

Johnny Sheldon of Glencoe furnished the main fireworks in the boys' division by chasing Billy O'Loughlin of Pittsburgh, second seeded player, through three long sets before succumbing at 7—5, 6—4, 6—4.

The victory put O'Loughlin in the semi-finals with Junior Coen, Keith Gledhill and Sidney Wood.

Two major upsets marked the play in the junior doubles, the third and fourth seeded combinations toppling in unexpected defeat. Langlie and Don Strachan, Philadelphia, provided the biggest surprise by downing Bancroft and Doeg of California, seeded third, 6—2, 1—6, 6—4. Langlie's sharp volleying and smashing overheads, coupled with Strachan's speedy ground

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cleveland, O., Aug. 11. — Being the fourteenth anniversary of Ray Schalk's ascension to a major league job the Sox celebrated this day as befitted the occasion. The only complication was that the affair was too protracted for the comfort of the hungry patrons, a verdict not being reached until after thirteen rounds of milling that rightly could be termed sensational.

BIB FALK. [Tribune Photo.]

After all that extra labor the Chicagoans were in possession of a 7 to 2 score, this strange count have been brought about by a robust rally that netted the tourists five runs in the final chapter. Some terrific hammering of the pill was responsible for the rally and utterly ruined the day for Joe Shaute, who had southpawed from the start and who for twelve tight innings had throttled the eventual victors to eight hits.

Hunnefield Stars at Second.

The principal actor in the effort to celebrate in Schalk's behalf was Hunnefield, who will try anything once without complaining. Boss Collins unexpectedly switched the young fellow to second base and the way in which he handled himself indicated that he has been keeping secrets from his employer.

"Honey Boy" was a veritable knockout as a fielder on at least a half dozen chances and he made himself additionally prominent by uncorking the hit that broke the tie and brought on the deluge in the thirteenth. Another part of this deluge was a homer that Bib Falk clouted over the wall for his fifth hit of the engagement.

Jim Joe Edwards, the Mississippi rebel, starting the hurling against the Indians and did a good job of it while he lasted. After seven rounds he found his right knee barking for attention, so excused himself. That unforeseen incident brought Ted Lyons to the knob, and the Indian nemesis not only held the resident athletes runless for six innings, but made a single that opened the big five run rally after two were out in the thirteenth.

How It Happened.

Schalk and Berg, who played short, flied out in the thirteenth and Lyons blew himself to a single to center. Mostil doubled him to third. Here it was that Hunnefield broke up the party with his hit that sent Lyons and Mostil galloping home. That would have been sufficient, but to make it emphatic Sheely scored Hunnefield with a two bagger and Falk followed with his drive that sailed over the six story screen fence in right field.

The long melée got under way with the tribe nicking Edwards for a run in the first inning. Singles by Jamieson, Spurgeon and Burns accomplished this. It proved of little account because the Sox snarled right back at their hosts in the second and tied it. Falk's single, a hit by Barrett and an infield out were the contributing factors in this little matter.

Falk was up again in the fourth and dumped a two bagger in the open space behind third base. Kamm's single let him cross the plate. By this time Edwards was going along like a thoroughbred and there was every indication that his 2 to 1 margin would be enough.

It wasn't. The Indians tied on Jim Joe in the seventh when Luke Sewell and Lutzke doubled, but after this they did nothing to prevent Lyons collecting his fifteenth win of the year.

Giants Play Clown Baseball; Cubs Get 11 Hits and Win, 11-1

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Aug. 11.—The Cubs this afternoon ran up a score like an election return over a stumbling, fumbling squad of Giants.

GUY BUSH. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

The Cubs went at Jimmy Ring with a robust determination in the first inning and scored four runs which were only the nucleus of a final score that read 11 to 1. Ring didn't last through the inning, for a single, two triples and a double rattled off the Cubs shillalahs and four runs were entered in the book before John J. McGraw could get the club house on his little telephone and tell them to send out Chic Davies, a runt of a left bander who looks like Dickie Kerr.

Bush Stops 'em Cold.

Guy Bush held the Giants to three hits. Toiling along at an unemotional pace with a wad of sucking tobacco as big as a parker house roll bulging over his lean jaw, Bush flipped the ball up the runaway with such dexterity that no member of the Giants got as far as first base until the fourth inning when Jackson's bounder took that hop. And he kept such command of his work that no Giant got into circulation on the dusty highways in the seventh, eighth or ninth.

But let us return to the first inning. Sparky Adams fouled out to the catcher and Cliff Heathcote singled. Riggs Stephenson was the next hitter and he derived the first of his three bases on balls. Then Hack Wilson came up and laid his bulk against one for a triple to center which scored both of his colleagues.

Charley Grimm tripled to center field, and Wilson came in with run No. 3. Freigau doubled, scoring Grimm, and Jimmy Ring was led away. Davies held Cooney and Hartnett to infield slaps that retired the side.

Giants Stage Comeback.

The outburst in the third began with two bases on balls, to Stephenson and Wilson. Grimm hit a rap that was intended to be a sacrifice. But Frisch, playing third, hit Davies on the head with a throw to second and the ball bounced away to center field. Stephenson scampered around to score and nobody was out yet.

Freigau then drove one to Jackson, who threw to Snyder to catch Wilson at the plate. Wilson changed his mind and turned to retreat to third. But in tossing the ball back and forth over Wilson's head Snyder fell down and Wilson ran by him and scored. Grimm went to third and came home a minute later when Hartnett singled to left.

Jackson still had some sins in his system and he sent another Chicago runner home in the fifth when he fumbled a grounder from Cooney's weapon. Wilson had doubled and Grimm had sent him to third with a sacrifice. When Jackson got through toying with Cooney's rap, Wilson was in with the ninth run.

The Cubs made their last two in the ninth with three hits as follows: Freigau singled, Cooney doubled and Gonzales shooed them in with a single to center.

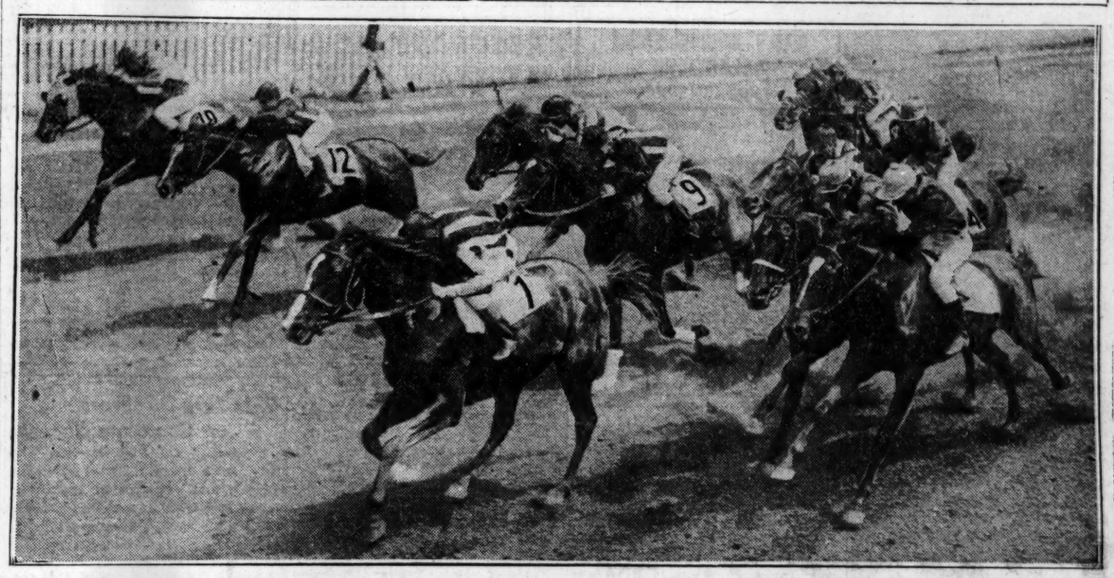
A BEVY OF MAIDENS GETTING AWAY IN A BUNCH



Clover Club getting off in front in the second race for two year old maidens at Lincoln Fields yesterday. Lost Lady, however, got up into a two length lead by the quarter pole, which she held throughout the rest of the race. Clover Club, after dropping back to third, came fast in the last eighth to take the place, while Penumbra, No. 9 in the photo, took the short end of the purse by a nose from four others. Ourieda, the favorite, was far back. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

While Fidel La Barba, the world's flyweight champion, and Charley Phil Rosenberg, holder of the world's 118 pound crown, cannot lose their titles in their bouts against Emil Paluso and Joey Sangor, respectively, at the Cubs' baseball park tomorrow night, they can lose a world of prestige if the referees' decisions go against them.

La Barba is making his first start here since he won the title from Frankie Genario. Fidel met Paluso on the coast and has a very good idea of his opponent's style of milling. The champion, however, respects Paluso, who swings wildly, but has so much steam in his punches he may upset the title holder if he connects.

While chatting about the contest yesterday Fidel asserted he intends to be careful, but he has promised to make a fight of it. He is anxious to make good in the middle west. It's a sure bet that Paluso will lead. He is so aggressive that he frequently leads with his chin while both arms swing in windmill fashion. He knows a referee's decision over the champion will bring him a world of prestige, and when he steps into the ring science will be thrown to the winds to put over the punch that will bring about the desired result.

Rosenberg is smarting under accusations that he is a false alarm and discredited champion. Charley has already convinced the railbirds at Mullen's gymnasium that he knows something about the boxing racket, and he intends to show his wares to a queen's taste tomorrow nigh. If he carries out his plans he will be the aggressor and will carry the fight to Sangor in every round. In fact, Charley expects to stop the Milwaukee fighter inside of eight rounds.

Sangor, a quiet, unassuming fighter, is making no statements. The fans know that Joey is game to the core and will be in there fighting until his physical energy is exhausted. He does not fear the champion. In fact, he welcomes the opportunity to step into the ring with the king of the 118 pounders and he is aware of the fact that a referee's decision over the title holder will put him in a position to demand more money for his appearances in future bouts.

EDERLE OFFERED $5,000 TO TRY CATALINA SWIM

Wrigley Ready to Back Channel Attempt.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Los Angeles, Aug. 11.—William Wrigley, Jr. today issued an invitation to Gertrude Ederle to be the first human to swim the Catalina channel. He asked THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE to transmit the offer to her.

Mr. Wrigley said he is setting aside $5,000 for Miss Ederle's project. This sum is intended to underwrite all expenses of her trip to the west coast, and her training here. The balance of the $5,000, according to Mr. Wrigley, will be a "merited reward to America's greatest swimmer whether she succeeds in the Catalina swim, or not."

"There are no strings on my offer," the owner of the ball clubs, skyscrapers, mines, steamship fleets and an ocean island declared. "The Catalina channel never has been swum."

"It is only fair that this triumph should wait for the wonderful New York girl and be a strictly American triumph."

Mr. Wrigley said that the choice of time and place for the swim would be left to Miss Ederle, but that he thought that some time betwen October and the Christmas holidays would be suitable.

The distance between the California mainland and Santa Catalina 'sland at the most approachable points is about 23 miles. The water of the channel is reported as generally smoother and no colder than the English channel even during the winter season here.

TRUDIE GOES TO GERMANY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CALAIS, Aug. 11.—"Packing to start homeward after two months of training for the English channel is harder than swimming the channel," said Gertrude Ederle, girlish channel champion, in the hectic flurry today of getting off for Germany via Calais to visit her grandmother before she sails for New York.

Trudie said a fond farewell at noon to Gris-Nez and her good friends with whom she has passed a large part of two summers and, with her party, proceeded to Calais where she was again met by a large and enthusiastic crowd and taken in tow by Gaston Smith, United States consul here, who had arranged a reception in her honor.

Tonight, following the reception, it was on to Germany for Trudie and her gang. The party set forth by train for Stuttgart, near where her grandmother lives at Bissingen, Wittenberg.

Camden's Nor' Easter Wins Feature at Lincoln Fields

BY FRENCH LANE.

Senator Johnson N. Camden's white, red, and black silks were in evidence at Lincoln Fields yesterday when the two year old Nor'easter raced to a brilliant victory in the Englewood Juvenile stakes.

Backed with confidence, the odds almost the shortest of the season, Nor'easter never left the result in doubt once Jockey Willie Garner shot him into the lead almost as the barrier went up. The son of North Star III., sire of Bubbling Over, won finally by a length and a half from Dr. Washington, generally regarded as one of the best two year olds in the west. Sea Scamp, from R. S. Clark's New York stable, was third.

A crowd greater than the one which packed the new plant near Crete on opening day came out for the racing. It was estimated at 15,000. The thousands watched all kinds of racing. They watched favorites scamper home, watched favorites beaten, and in the feature race, which Nor'easter captured, watched a spill in which Jockey J. Roberts went down on the colt Sixty and Jockey H. Elston was splattered all over the track when Kum Kalessi also went down.

No Severe Injuries.

The ambulance was rushed out and both jockeys were brought back in it, but latest reports from the track physicians were that neither had been seriously injured. They were considerably shaken up, however, and it may require later examinations to determine just how badly they were hurt.

Jockey L. Schaefer on Dr. Washington was held responsible for the spill, being charged with crossing in front of Sixty and piling up the two horses. The stewards gave him a 15 day suspension.

Both Nor'easter and Dr. Washington were backed with confidence. The latter, a son of Cudgel-Miss Jemima, was regarded as a possible champion until this race, and he still may be a champion, for Jockey L. Schaefer gave him a weird ride and took him all over the track in the late going, but Nor'easter seemed so much the better he didn't have a chance.

Laddie Buck Also Wins.

The big crowd did not give all its attention to the fashionable juveniles, the Blue Island purse at seven furlongs taking second place on the program, and when the outsider Laddie Buck was guided safely home by Jockey Tommy Burns, it brought considerable of an upset. He beat Honest Jack Keene's In Bounds by three lengths after leading nearly all the way.

Pricemaker finished third. Another Camden color bearer proved a bitter disappointment when Mayfair failed to figure prominently in the late running, finishing out of the money.

In Bounds might have won but for Jockey Elston's timidity in the early going, keeping the son of Fair Play back until they straightened out in the stretch. In Bounds made up much ground, but couldn't get to the flying Laddie Buck.

Jones Gives 'Em Ride.

Jockey R. Jones, diminutive lad from way down in the southern part of California, stole the riding honors for the day when he got home in front with Lost Lady in the second race and had Wrackhorn up to nip his fashionable field in the fourth. The boy rides like a coming champion and may be dividing honors with Sande, Fator and others in the east real soon.

Sneak Thief in Yankees' Locker Room Gets Beating

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—On the pretense of being a friend of Babe Ruth, a stranger talked his way into the Yankee dressing room before today's double header, and raided a strong box containing the players' money, jewelry, and valuables. Trainer Al Woods, becoming suspicious when he saw a diamond ring fall from the stranger's towel, seized the thief, searched him, found a roll of bills, and then gave him an old fashioned thrashing. The man was not turned over to the police.

Dunlap Eliminates Tveraa Then Loses in Junior Golf

Never did a golfer try harder to live up to the things expected of him than Art Tveraa, Minneapolis amateur champion, in the first round of match play in the western junior tournament at Edgewater Golf club yesterday. But all the determination and courage he was able to develop was inadequate to offset the equally courageous and more skillful play of Gibson Dunlap, and the Minnesota favorite went down, 3 and 2.

Tveraa's defeat was the first upset in a day filled with surprising reversals of form. Dunlap loomed as a strong contender for the championship after his victory over the Minneapolis lad, who was medalist Monday with a 73, but his chance went glimmering in the second round, when he lost to Tom Cooley of Kankakee, Ill.

Alpert Wins Twice.

Sam Alpert, Chicago prep champion, got away to a good start by eliminating Donald Carrick of Toronto, Canadian amateur champion, 1 up in 19 holes, in the first round. He reached the quarter-finals by defeating John Verbos of Kenosha, 1 up. Carrick, along with Tveraa, was considered one of the leading contenders for the title. Alex Carrick kept Canada in the running, however, by winning from H. Judelson of Maywood, Cook county boys' champion, in the first round, and from Robert Baldwin of Bloomington, Ill., in the second.

Four of the eight survivors who will go into the quarter-finals this morning are Chicagoans. They are R. C. Mullin, Sam Alpert, Richard Martin, and Francis Clary. The others are Tom Cooley, Kankakee; Jack Lanphier, Springfield, Ill.; A. C. Carrick, Toronto, and Lawrence Moller, Quincy, Ill. The winners in the morning play will meet this afternoon in the semi-finals. The 36 sole championship match will be played tomorrow.

FIRST ROUND.

Gibson Dunlap, Maywood, beat Art Tveraa, Minneapolis, 3 and 2; Thomas Cooley, Kankakee, Ill. beat Gordon Soderquist, Rockford, 3 and 2; R. C. Mullin, Chicago, beat Ed Charlton, Springfield, Ill., 1 up; Herman Fell, Chicago, beat M. Benedict, Chicago, 4 and 3; San Alpert, Chicago, beat Donahi Garrick, Toronto, 1 up, 19 holes; John Verbos, Kenosha, Wis., beat Stephen Williams, Chicago, 1 up, 10 holes; J. R. Lenfesty, Chicago, beat John Burnham, Michigan City, Ind., 5 and 4; Robert Baldwin, Bloomington, Ill., beat Sam Gilbert, Chicago, 7 and 5; A. C. Carrick, Toronto, beat H. Judelson, Maywood, 5 and 4; Francis Clary, Chicago, beat Wilmore Miller, Chicago, 1 up, 20 holes; George McWilliams, Chicago, beat John Lohman, Gary, Ind., 2 and 1; Richard Martin, Chicago, beat J. D'Esposito, Chicago, 5 and 3; William Mason, La Salle, Ill., beat Andrew Kucela, Elkhart, Ind., 5 and 4; Lawrence Moller, Quincy, Ill., beat Raymond Koopman, Chicago, 3 and 2.

SECOND ROUND.

Cooley beat Dunlap, 1 up; Mullin beat Fell, 1 up; Alpert beat Verbos, 1 up; Lanphier beat Lenfesty, 4 and 3; A. Carrick beat Baldwin, 2 up; Clary beat Miller, 2 and 1; Martin beat McWilliams, 1 up; Moller beat Mason, 3 and 2.

The pairings for the quarter-finals: Cooley vs. Mullin, Alpert vs. Lanphier, Garrick vs. Clary, Martin vs. Moller.

Democrats to Hold Golf Tourney at Butterfield

LEJACK BEATS RICE; IS NET SEMI-FINALIST

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Charles Lejack, Chicago, furnished the first big upset of the national public park tennis today by defeating Ralph Rice, number two seeded player, in the round before the semi-finals. Playing a superb net game with his deep drive working almost to perfection, Lejeck was easily the master after losing the first set, 3—6. He took the next three sets without extending himself, 6—1, 6—4, 6—3.

Notes of the Races

A FIELD of a dozen starters is in prospect for Saturday's $5,000 Crete handicap. Capt. Hal, T. S. Jordan, Reputation, Senator Norris, Dark Phantom, Max Brick, Malcomb B. Jr., Fabian, Thistlewood, Sanola and Blabbermouth are among the possible starters.

Old John Troxler who spurned a fortune to retain ownership of the handicap star King Nadi has arrived at Lincoln Fields with his horse and says he will cut quite a figure in future stake and handicap events.

It has been decided that post time for the first race on Saturday will be 2:30 p. m., and that a special C. and E. I. train will leave the Dearborn station on Saturdays only at 1:15 p. m. On all days except Saturday the horses will go to the post at 2 p. m.

The eastern millionaire, Edward Cebrian, has shipped four horses to Lincoln Fields. They are Lakme, Rosebec, Flying Chief, and Nairbec.

Kroydon Clubs

A NEW MODEL

With Face Plate

MANY golfers believe an inserted face of hard material gives more distance, and they also like the added touch of beauty it supplies.

Kroydon has perfected a club with a NEW and superior face plate.

In the center of a substantial metal plate is an insert of colored Kroyalin, screwed deep into the wood. It won't work loose—and it provides a solid but highly elastic striking surface.

The Royal, Model 93
With HICKORY SHAFT $12.00
With STEEL SHAFT $14.00

Kroydon Niblick R-8
With HICKORY SHAFT $6.00
With STEEL SHAFT $7.50

A splendid trouble club. Well lofted. Deep faced. Has a rounded sole that cuts turf easily and helps "explode" the ball safely from sand.

3 RECORDS FALL IN SOUTH PARK JUNIOR MEET

Grand Crossing and Palmer park tied for first place in the South Park junior track meet yesterday. Two hundred boys competed.

Three broken records featured the meet. W. Swanson of Grand Crossing, started it off by beating L. Goldstein of McKinley, who had already broken the old record. Then Goldstein stepped the 75 yard dash in :08 3-5 to break another record.

Then came Coler of Hamilton with 5 feet 4 inches in the high jump for another record. Goldstein also was high point man of the meet with 12 points, his park's total.

Summaries:

75 YARD DASH—Won by L. Goldstein, McKinley; M. Estrada, Palmer, second; J. Luben Grand Crossing, third; B. Wehrmeister, Cornell, fourth. Time, :08 3-5.

BROAD JUMP—Won by W. Swanson, Grand Crossing; Goldstein, McKinley, second; Cavalli, Grand Crossing, third; Schulz, Fuller, fourth. Distance, 18 feet 3 inches.

HIGH JUMP—Won by G. Coler, Hamilton; Estrada, Palmer, second; Hogan, Cornell, third; Johnson, Ogden, fourth. Height, 5 feet 4 inches.

Table of points: Palmer, 13; Grand Crossing, 13; McKinley, 12; Fuller, 8; Ogden, 7; Hamilton, 7, and Cornell, 4.

Ohio Jury Disagrees on Gambling Charges

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The jury which heard the case of eleven officials and employés of the Coney Island race track on gambling charges disagreed and was dismissed late today. The defendants were charged with promoting gambling in connection with the sale of pari-mutuel certificates on horse races at the Coney Island track.

Q. and A. Stuff By Bob Becker, Ye Fishing Ed.

Chicago. — [To the Editor.] — Sir: Does oiling one's fishlines with machine oil preserve the lines, or do you use some special preservative? How about running them through wax? Also will you kindly send me your anti-mosquito formula?

H. O. EKBERG.

Answer—If you want to dress your lines with a preparation that will "preserve" them, better purchase a regular line dressing. There are a number of good concoctions on the market. You can get them at most any sporting goods store. Wax and machine oil are not recommended.

The anti-mosquito lotion which I used and found highly efficient on a recent trip through the Superior national forest was made up as follows: Castor oil, 2 ounces; oil of citronella, ½ ounce; pine tar, 1 ounce; oil of cedar, ¼ ounce, and spirits of camphor, ¼ ounce.

Chicago.—[To the Editor.]—Sir: The writer expects to take two weeks' vacation the last of this month and would like to go to some place in Minnesota or Canada. If you will make a few suggestions on where to go I would appreciate it very much.

R. BEN EGAN.

Answer—I am going to send you by mail a map and a few suggestions on places for a couple of weeks' fishing. However, wish you'd tell me what you want—muskies, bass, or pike?

A World's Record?

Macdonald Smith's average of 70⅘ (67-73-74-72-70-72-66) for the seven rounds, including three play-offs, in the Metropolitan Open Championship probably established a world's record.

Griffs Upset Yanks Twice; Babe Hits 37th

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Home from an unprofitable western trip, the Washington Senators gave the league leading New York Yankees a set back today, taking both games of a double header by the same score, 5 to 4. The nightcap lasted eleven innings, Tate breaking it up with a homer to deep center.

In the sixth inning of the second game Babe Ruth hit a home run over the right field wall, his thirty-seventh of the season. Score:

Notes of the Sox

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—The Sox play the Indians again tomorrow and it will be the last meeting of the teams this season. Red Faber and George Uhle will try to pitch.

Chief Bender pitched to the Sox in batting practice. Of these who hit against him today Ray Schalk was the only one who faced him when he was a real hurler.

A couple of old gentlemen named Larry Lajoie and Terry Turner were among the 5,000 customers. Larry and Terry were infielding when most of the present day big leaguers were training on teething rings.

When Lyons started to pitch in the eighth he walked Spurgeon. Speaker endeavored to sacrifice, but bunted straight to Kamm, who threw to second, forcing Spurgeon. The next two batters didn't get the ball out of the infield.

Manager Collins earned his day's pay, which is considerable, by coaching from the third base box. He has no idea as to when he will attempt to play again.

CADDIES PLAY MONDAY.

Secretary J. G. Davis has received entries from 20 clubs for the annual caddy tournament of the Chicago District Golf association to be held at Midlothian on Monday.

Wallace and Martin Lose in City Golf

Bill Wallace, semi-finalist in the National Public Links tournament at Buffalo last week, and Russell Martin, Flossmoor champion, yesterday were eliminated from the City Amateur golf meet at Jackson park. Wallace fell before B. Burke of Marquette and Martin bowed to D. Armstrong of Aurora.

Armstrong beat Martin by his long tee shots. His best was at the third hole when he drove the green, 296 yards. This gave him an early lead and the Flossmoor player was beaten 2 and 1.

Burke finished with a margin of 2 and 1 over Wallace. Both players had several three putt greens, but Burke managed to slip in a couple of birdies and take the match.

Ted Lloyd of the home club was in fine form and defeated Dave O'Connor, Lincoln park champion, 3 and 1. Lloyd outplayed the north side sharpshooter by several strokes.

The results yesterday were:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT.

J. T. Conlon, Forest Park, defeated Keith Morrison, Jackson park, 3 and 2; A. L. Quigley, Columbus park, defeated E. E. Bones, Jackson park, 2 and 1; Ted Lloyd, Jackson park, defeated Dave O'Connor, Lincoln park, 3 and 1; W. A. The championship and first flight rounds today will be over eighteen holes.

IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS

DEMPSEY AND TUNNEY.

IN CERTAIN quarters, regret is expressed that the Dempsey-Tunney bout, once headed this way — at least for publicity purposes — will now be held in the natural habitat of fat gate receipts.

Many of us, personally, wanted the bout here because the trip to New York, both as a matter of expense and of time, will prevent Chicagoans from seeing it. There was no question of a paying gate, not a $2,000,000 gate, but enough to show a profit if expenses were not out of line.

For the future of local boxing, however, we think the present situation is more healthy. In the first place, Rickard has the principals. He is not a resident of Illinois, as required by our boxing law. That meant "selling" the affair to local men whose names would be used as a cloak for Rickard's interest. Thus, if held, the affair would begin in evasion and subterfuge. That is not a good way to begin operation of a new law, the kind of law always subject to attack by reformers.

Furthermore, there were so many peculiar quirks developing and so many jealousies being aroused during Rickard's brief visit here that we feel Chicago is better off without this title fight at this particular time.

The Crack of the Bat.

The radio's tunes are pleasant,
I'm willing to grant you that,
But for a regular diet,
Give me the crack of the bat.

The yell of the crowd "It's a homer!"
The wreck of my new straw hat,
The moment of breathless excitement
That follows the crack of the bat.

Masomenos.

"What For?"

To Miss Gertrude Ederle we are indebted for the latest snappy comeback —"What for?" It is surprising how rapidly it has grown since the Yankee swimmer gave that reply during her channel swim to the admonition from the tug for her to leave the water before her task was completed. When used in some similar connection, we welcome "What for?" to our current phrases

Baseball Averages.

Harvey: Tell "Keystone" that baseball averages are all right if you read them—all. The records show that the Yankees and Cleveland have had much better pitching than the White Sox. The Athletics also excel the men of Collins in this department, although not by so great a margin.

By fine fielding, smart baseball — in which they have a margin over all other teams—and heavy hitting by individual players, the White Sox have kept in the race with all rivals except the Yankees, as the pre-season dope indicated they might.

"Giving Up Golf."

We have a florist down here at Momence, Ill., who put eleven in a water hole that is under a high tee. Horse in adjoining pasture laughed itself to death. Now the farmer wants the golfer to pay for the horse. The latter says he will if he can have a horseshoe. I think they will get together. He still plays.

DUNCAN DARES HAGEN TO PLAY FOR $2,500 STAKE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 11.—George Duncan, the noted British golf pro, who challenged Walter Hagen following the latter's criticism of British professional golf, is astonished at not having received a reply from Hagen. After Hagen's remarks about golf here, Duncan intimated that he was ready to play Hagen on American soil in a 72 hole match for a $2,500 side bet.

Duncan wants the match next month and has named Pine Valley, near Philadelphia, as the battle ground, this being considered the hardest test of golf in the United States.

N. Y. RING BOSSES GET STAGE SET TO O. K. DEMPSEY

New York, Aug. 11.—[U. N.]—Jack Dempsey will "comply with the rules and regulations of the New York state athletic commission" at a special meeting of that body tomorrow morning.

When the heavyweight champion has complied thus with the conditions imposed by Col. John J. Phelan, chairman of the license committee, he will receive a license to box in this state.

This is the program mapped out by Tex Rickard, who has taken charge of the ludicrous three ring circus which the ambiguous vacillation of the boxing board and the license committee has made of the preliminaries of the Dempsey-Tunney fight.

Rickard said tonight he was confident everything would go through without a hitch and that the champion would be able to take the night boat up the river to his training camp within another twenty-four hours.

It is a good thing for those interested financially in this fight that Rickard seems to know what he is doing, for no one else seems to.

As a business proposition involving millions of dollars, the forthcoming heavyweight championship battle has been the most muddled and mismanaged affair on record.

After conferring with Commissioner Muldoon of the boxing board, however, Rickard believes he can lead the whole flock out of its bewilderness. He and Gene Normile and Dempsey will appear before the commission at 10 a. m.

"I won't be there," Col. Phelan said today. "Let the athletic commission act independently. There will be no meeting of the license committee until after Dempsey has complied with the commission's rules."

PRICES OF GRAINS WORK LOWER ON GENERAL SELLING

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Bearish sentiment prevailed in the wheat trade and while the market was about steady at the start the finish was well toward the bottom, with net losses of 2⅝@3⅝c, with September leading The latter sold down 4c to $1.36 and finished at $1.36½@1.36⅝, with December $1.41⅛@1.41 and May $1.46⅛@1.46¼. Corn, after selling up 1½c early to 91½c for December, a new high on the crop, reacted 2½c from the top and closed ½@⅞c lower, with September 84¾@84⅞c, December 89⅛@89c, and May 95⅝@95½c. Oats were 1@1⅛c lower, with September 41⅛c and December 44⅛@44⅝c. Rye was off 2⅛@2¼c, with September $1.00⅞@1.01 and December $1.05⅝.

There was nothing in the general run of the news to account for the selling, as the government reports on wheat were construed as moderately bullish. General selling, however, developed immediately after the opening and there was a lack of aggressive support with numerous stop-loss orders caught on the way down. Buying against bids and short covering checked the decline.

World's Situation Strong.

The Canadian trade were inclined to the belief that the government report on the three provinces was considerably too low, and that market was 2¼@2½c lower at the last. Minneapolis was weak and 3½@3¾c lower, while Kansas City was off 2⅞@3⅛c. Broomhall estimates the world's exportable surplus of wheat at 768,000,000 bu, or only 16,000,000 bu more than last year, while import needs are 704,000,000 bu, against 602,000,000 bu last year.

Failure of importing countries to buy cash wheat in round lots, with sales at the seaboard estimated at 400,000 to 500,000 bu in all positions, tends to increase bearish sentiment, although it was pointed out that the disposition is to run on small stocks abroad and the weekly clearances indicate that there is a much better demand than is being claimed. Cash wheat here sold as low as $1 for damp grain and the percentage of contract grades in the daily arrival is much smaller than recently, reflecting the heavy rains when the grain was in the shock.

New High on Corn.

A bullish construction placed on the government report on corn led to general buying at the start, with December and May at a new high on the crop. Profit taking and the easier tone in wheat caused a reaction, however, and the finish was at the bottom. Some of the best recent buyers were on the selling side during the day, and there was also free buying of September and selling of December to close spreads. Good rains were reported in parts of Nebraska, Iowa, and Illinois, with the forecast for showers over the greater part of the belt. Shipping demand showed improvement, with sales of 210,000 bu.

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Export demand for cash wheat improved as the result of the break in futures, and sales of hard and red winters were finally estimated at 400,000 to 500,000 bu. No. 2 hard, last half August loading, sold at Galveston at 7¾c over Chicago September, and there were claims of sales of hard winter c. i. f. Montreal at 9½c over. Demand for other grains was light.

Local handlers sold 210,000 bu corn and 74,000 bu oats to the domestic trade, with 100,000 bu oats to go to store. Charters were for 660,000 bu wheat to Montreal and 320,000 bu wheat and 110,000 bu corn to Buffalo, and 110,000 bu corn to Georgian bay.

Low grade wheat is steadily declining as compared with the September here, and it is claimed that much grain will have to be dried before it can be stored with any degree of safety. Basis was steady on contract grades and as much as 3c lower on the damp grain. No. 2 red brought ½@1c under, No. 3 red 2@4c under, and No. 4 red 6@9c under September, with No. 2 hard September to ⅝c over, No. 3 hard 2@3c under, and No. 4 grades 6@12c under the future. Basis at Kansas City, St. Louis, and Omaha was unchanged.

Offerings of cash corn were only fair, with the basis steady to ⅝c higher. No. 2 grades brought ½@1½c under, No. 3 grades 1½@5c under, and No. 4 grades 4@9c under the September. Outside markets were ½c lower to 1½c higher, with Omaha closing at the decline.

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Wednesday: Wheat, 321 cars; corn, 76 cars; oats, 133 cars; rye, 8 cars; barley, 19 cars.

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

Action of the wheat and corn markets disappointed the bulls who mainly put a bullish construction on the government reports. Refusal of foreigners to become excited over the reduction in estimates on the Canadian crop not only failed to bring in buying orders from abroad but induced selling by local and northwest interests of sufficient magnitude to offset the bullishness of the trade in general.

The United States has 170,000,000 bu more wheat than last year and Canada 94,000,000 bu less, leaving an excess for the two countries of 76,000,000 bu as compared with last year. This was a factor in shaping operations of many traders.

Based on the increase in the par level between July 1 and Aug. 1 of about 142,000,000 bu B. W. Snow says the government report represents a natural loss in corn during August of 226,000,000 bu.

A corn specialist calls attention to the large stocks of corn which he says offsets a great part of the loss in the crops compared with last year. Reports to J. E. Bennett & Co. from 374 stations in Illinois indicate approximately 31.1 per cent of last year's corn crop still on farms. There have been some reports from other sources of late claiming that 50 per cent remains unmarketed.

World's import requirements of wheat for 1926-'27 season are estimated by Broomhall at 704,000,000 bu, compared with 601,000,000 bu the previous season. European countries need 560,000,000 bu, or 55,000,000 bu more than last year, while non-European countries require 144,000,000 bu against 96,000,000 bu last season. World's exportable surplus including Russia is figured as 768,000,000 bu, against 752,000,000 bu in 1925-'26. He figures Canada can spare 248,000,000 bu, against 280,000,000 bu last year, despite the decrease of 94,000,000 bu in the crop, and gives the United States 200,000,000 bu; Argentine, 120,000,000 bu; Australia, 88,000,000 bu; the Danube, 48,000,000 bu; Russia, 40,000,000 bu, and other countries 24,000,000 bu.

PRESSURE ON LARD

Weakness and lower prices for provisions resulted in a tame close at the lowest of the day, with net losses on lard of 20 to 25c on the nearby deliveries, and 7½c on January, while short ribs lost 20 to 25c and bellies 25 to 32½c. Buying support was mainly by shorts who were taking profits. Lard in Liverpool was 1s to 1s 6d lower. Cash trade in lard remains slow and export clearances from the seaboard were 428,100 lbs. and bacon 123,700 lbs.

Packing in the west for the summer season to date 13,638,000 hogs, against 13,876,000 hogs last year. For the week, as given by the Price Current Grain Reporter, it was 614,000 against 459,000 hogs for the same time last year. Prices follow:

DRY GOODS MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The establishment of lower prices on men's semi-staple and fancy woolen and worsted suitings, as well as top coat fabrics, at the American Woolen company's opening, was the feature of the dry goods markets today. Prices averaged 7½@12 per cent under those of a year ago, with reductions ranging from 15 to 50 cents a yard. A trend away from solid colors to light and medium colored mixtures was noted. Cloth markets were quiet, with lower quotations for raw cotton creating hesitation among buyers to cover gray cloth requirements. Combed broadcloths were firmer because of new commitments. The burlap market was weaker.

SUGAR MARKETS.

New York, Aug. 11.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw—Prices declined 1-32 cent to the basis of 4.24c for Cuban duty paid. Raw futures closed 2 to 5 points lower. Refined prices were unchanged at 5.70 to 5.80c for fine granulated. Prices follow:

Extreme range of hog prices narrowed yesterday, as light weights took the lead in a 10@25c break in better grades, while packing hogs strengthened after a generally steady opening. Top lowered 20c at $13.45, small lots at $13.50 being no criterion. General average figured 10c lower at $11.45, against $11.75 Monday and $11.20 the previous Wednesday, the lowest daily average in 1926 thus far. Most buyers showed a preference for the relatively cheap packing sows. Weighty mixed and packing grades at $9.75@10.50 comprised a big share of offerings. Bulk of medium and weighty butchers brought $11.25@12.25, prime 400 pounders at the inside figure. Light weight butchers sold largely at $12.50@12.75, with sales above $13.00, too few to cut much figure in the general trade.

Better grades of cattle held up remarkably well in view of the liberal receipts at 13,000, the largest for Wednesday since middle of June. Well finished medium weight offerings in some instances sold to slightly better advantage, spots indicating upturns of 10c on 1,000@1300 lb. steers. Prime 1,279 lb. averages topped at $10.65, highest in several months for that weight. Mixed yearling steers and heifers averaging 864 lbs. and 1,172 lb. steers also reached the peak. Choice 1,325 lb. cattle reached $10.30, and 1,419 lb. averages $10.10. Several lots, averaging 1,512@1,529 lbs., brought $9.90. Better grades of cows and heifers held steady, with others 10@15c lower. Canners and cutters ruled weak to lower. Bulls steady. Calves broke 50c. Stockers and feeders held firm.

Lamb Market Erratic.

Trading in killing lambs was two sided, ranging from 25c lower to 10c higher, choice fat range lambs showing the advance compared with low sales the previous day. Bulk of business was on par with the general selling Tuesday, most fat natives bringing $13.25@13.50, with top at $13.75. Strong weight culls $9.00@9.50 and light thin kinds around $8.00, with throwouts down to $6.00. Bulk of western range lambs brought $14.00@14.15, with several lots held at $14.25@14.35 unsold at a late hour. Aged sheep and yearlings ruled steady to 25c lower. Feeding lambs held firm at $13.00@13.85 for 55@70 lb. averages. Breeders strong.

PROPERTY OFFER ROILS MEMBERS OF FLOSSMOOR

BY AL CHASE.

C. M. Kittle, president of Sears, Roebuck & Co. and former vice president of the Illinois Central, has made the Flossmoor Country club an offer for some land it owns, which has thrown that usually calm and conservative organization into an uproar, with the uproarers grouped in three roaring factions.

C. M. KITTLE.

The mail order magnate told the Flossmoor directors he'd like to buy a strip of land 1,400 feet long and 200 feet wide along the north end of the club grounds. It's not being used at present. For payment Mr. Kittle said he'd pay off the club's $68,000 bonded indebtedness.

On this property, if he gets it, Mr. Kittle says he'll build a $100,000 residence on the site of the old club house which burned down. He also promises never to subdivide it and not even sell it unless the club directors approve. His total investment, he estimates, would be $200,000.

Cost $750 in 1900.

One of the trio of belligerent factions O. K.'s Mr. Kittle's proposition. Faction No. 2 insists that the club shouldn't sell a foot of its ground.

But No. 3 comes to bat with a proposition of its own. It agrees to pay $100,000 for the land and erect five houses, each to cost between $35,000 and $40,000.

No matter whether the No. 1 or the No. 3 wins out and the property is sold, the club shouldn't shed any tears over a bad deal, for the property cost only $750 in 1900.

May Build $500,000 Plant.

The Parisian Novelty company, established in 1898 and now located at 22d and La Salle, has purchased a site for a proposed $500,000 plant on the west side of Western avenue, 120 feet south of 35th street, from Charles Matt. The property is 120x267 and extends through to Artesian avenue.

The Parisian concern, which claims to be the "largest exclusive manufacturers of celluloid advertising specialties in the United States," now occupies a five story building erected in 1909. This must be vacated, according to L. L. Joseph, president of the company, because of the proposed widening of 22d street. Sonnenschein, Berkson, Lautmann & Levinson were attorneys.

PENNSYLVANIA SYSTEM LEASES GROUP OF OHIO AND MICHIGAN ROADS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Further simplification of the corporate structure of the Pennsylvania railroad system will be made possible by the approval today of the Pennsylvania's application to lease for 999 years the properties of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Detroit, the interstate commerce commission announced today in authorizing the lease.

The Pennsylvania, Ohio and Detroit, already controlled by the Pennsylvania interest through stock ownership, is a consolidation, under state laws, of the Cincinnati, Lebanon and Northern, the Cleveland, Akron and Cincinnati, the Toledo, Columbus and Ohio River, the Pennsylvania-Detroit, and the Manufacturers' Railway of Toledo. Its properties embrace nearly 800 miles of main and branch lines.

The commission stipulates that the Pennsylvania shall not permit the sale, pledge, or other disposition of stock of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Detroit without consent of the commission.

WALL STREET NOTES

New York, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Heavy selling by professional traders just before the close of today's curb market checked a promising rally and brought about considerable irregularity in closing quotations. Oils were sluggish on confirmation of private estimates of a large increase in crude oil production the past week and the fear that the proposed retirement of Standard Oil of New Jersey preferred stock, involving heavy financing, would have a temporarily depressing influence on the oil group. Net recessions, as a rule, were held to fractions, although Red Bank and Reiter-Foster yielded a point or so.

A sudden revival of speculative interest in the baking group was accompanied by reports of marked improvement in that industry. Continental Baking "A" jumped 4 points to 79, and the "B" advanced 1⅛. Purity Baking "B" closed more than 2 points higher at 36⅞, and General Baking "B" improved fractionally.

Motors also showed signs of good buying support, Reo jumping 3 points while Durant closed nearly a point higher on another turnover of about 50,000 shares. Central Steel, Metropolitan Chain Stores, Music Master, and Todd Shipping all showed substantial gains. Servel was heavy on selling inspired by recent price cutting on some types of electrical refrigerators.

Bond prices drifted aimlessly in one of the dullest trading sessions of the year. Recent indications of stiffer credit conditions placed a damper on buying for both speculative and investment account, although special considerations accounted for a few independent displays of strength.

"The Language of Bonds"

The Bond Business, like every other business or profession, has its technical terms, its pet phrases—its "language." To Bond Men these terms are clear and readily understood—mere words of everyday conversation with them. But to many people they are unintelligible and seem unnecessarily confusing. Even large investors, we find, frequently have misconceptions of the meanings of certain terms.

We believe more people would buy bonds, if more understood them. That's why we have prepared our 14-page booklet, "The Language of Bonds," which defines 45 terms and phrases used in the bond business, tells how yields are figured and gives information of value to large and small investors alike.

A copy of this booklet will be sent you on request. Ask for Booklet T-8, please.

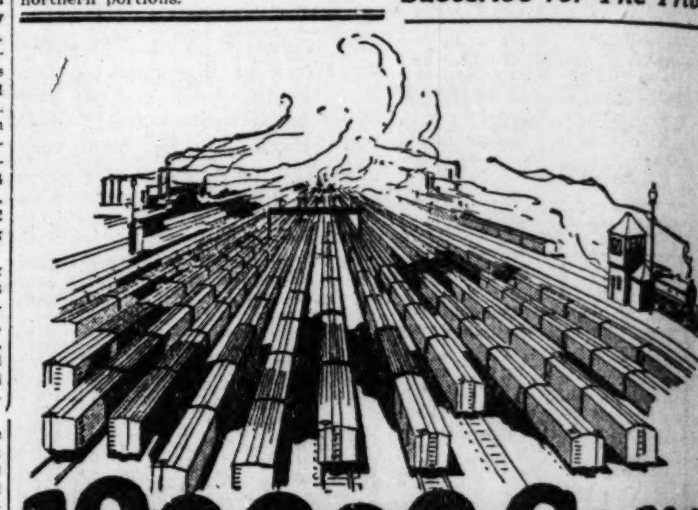
WHEAT RECOVERS FROM THE HEAT IN SASKATCHEWAN

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Wheat has made a surprising recovery throughout the northern half of Saskatchewan since the July heat wave. When grain starts pouring through the thrashing machines here the last of this month weighers no doubt will record yields many bushels above the earlier estimates.

Growers in this part of the province expect to do their share in offsetting the short Canadian wheat crop. Northern sections of Saskatchewan have not suffered so much from dry weather and hailstorms as they have in the southern part of the province. There are spots where yields will be low, but there are also vast stretches of wheat fields that will turn out exceptionally big crops. For five miles out around Saskatoon the summer fallowed and plowed fields will produce an average of from 30 to 35 bushels to the acre and many big areas in the northern half of the province will go as high or higher.

In the dry sections the hot winds scalded the heads, causing the tips to turn white and have lowered the yield, but even in many of these sections the wheat will not likely go below 12 bushels to the acre.

The oat crop over the northern part of Saskatchewan is expected to average 35 to 40 bushels to the acre. Oats are still green; barley is going to average 25 to 35 bushels. Most of the rye has been thrashed and has averaged 20 to 30 bushels in various parts of the central and northern portions.



100,000 Cars

Future trading has steadily moved forward in the butter and egg industry in Chicago ever since the first day of this kind of trading in 1919. Last year 100,000 cars of such merchandise were traded in on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

The acceptance of this form of trading by economists, jurists, and commercial leaders has established it as a business necessity. Its application to trading in butter and eggs is as essential as it is to grains and cotton.

Markets of unlimited range are made by it. The old-time system of secrecy has disappeared. Producer and distributor now are familiar with prices at all times, thanks to the publicity which future trading has made possible.

The future market of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange has developed along substantial lines, and its growth continues. You are invited to participate in this form of trading because your trades are as helpful and legitimate in making a broad, accessible market, as are the trades of men actively engaged in the merchandising of butter and eggs.

You can easily employ a member of the Clearing House to act as your broker. A list of these brokers is a feature of the interesting booklet, "How to Buy and Sell Butter and Eggs," a free copy of which we will be glad to send you.

Unusual Industrial Site

There is available in Chicago, at an attractive price, one of the best Large Factory Locations (approximately 100 acres) in this country.

It is located on the Best Rail Transportation Service in the country.

Also on the New Proposed Lakes-to-Gulf Waterway.

It has a 100 per cent ideal labor market situation.

It is in the heart of raw material sources.

It is in the heart of the greatest consuming market on earth.

It has never been offered for sale, but is now available to close out an estate.

It has been pronounced by industrial engineers to be one of the best large plant locations in the country.

Executives desiring to take advantage of the tremendous possibilities of such an ideal mid-west location should wire or write for information—it is a most unusual opportunity.

Southern Railway.

G. B.—Southern railway reported net income of $22,579,172 for 1925, against $17,769,140 in 1924.

The earnings were equal to $16.32 a share on the $120,000,000 common stock in 1925, as compared with $12.31 a share in 1924.

The company's share of surplus earnings of subsidiary companies in 1925 actually amounted to better than $5 a share on its common stock, which, added to its own earnings, brought total earnings above $21 a share.

In the first six months of 1926 the net income was $9,446,000 after charges and taxes, equivalent after preferred dividends to $6.62 a share earned on the common stock.

This compares with $5.70 a share earned in the first half of 1925 and comes within 38 cents a share of the full annual dividend of $7, which the company is paying.

The common stock is high grade.

NEW ISSUE

North American Light & Power Company

30-Year Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, Series A 5½%

To be dated July 1, 1926—To be due July 1, 1956

Price 94.50 and accrued interest, to yield about 5.90%

The Company agrees to pay interest without deduction for any normal Federal Income Tax not exceeding 2%, which the Company or Trustee may be required or permitted to pay at the source.

The following information is taken from official sources:

Business and Properties: North American Light & Power Company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware, controls the entire common stocks of Illinois Power and Light Corporation and Missouri Power & Light Company, which directly or through subsidiaries serve a population of more than 1,350,000 in over 520 municipalities in the states of Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. About three-fourths of the net earnings of the system are derived from power and light. The electric properties include generating stations with an aggregate capacity of 375,960 h.p. serving 271,762 customers. The gas properties furnish artificial gas to 90,410 customers. The railway properties consist of 550 miles of trunk line electric railroad connecting central Illinois with St. Louis and a steam road of 45 miles and city railways with an aggregate of 235 miles of track.

Capitalization
(After giving effect to present financing)

30-Year Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, Series A 5½%	$15,000,000
Cumulative Preferred Stock—$6 dividend—entitled on dissolution to $100 per share and accrued dividends—without par value	85,000 shares
Common Stock (without par value)	600,000 shares

Sinking Fund: The Debenture Agreement will provide for a cumulative sinking fund beginning July 1, 1931 of $150,000 annually, payable semi-annually, which may, at the option of Company, be used to purchase and retire Debentures of this issue and/or to purchase stocks, bonds or other securities of the constituent or other companies which shall be pledged with the Trustee. The income on all Debentures retired or securities purchased by the sinking fund will be added to the sinking fund. It is estimated that the operation of this sinking fund will retire 40% of this issue before maturity and/or correspondingly increase the security therefor.

Balance		$ 2,152,330

Balance of $2,977,330 is over 3.6 times annual interest requirements of this issue.

Includes $336,797 profit realized on sale of certain properties.

Equity: These Debentures will be followed by 85,000 shares (no par value) of $6 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock (entitled on dissolution to $100 per share and accrued dividends) and 600,000 shares of common stock of no par value. On the basis of the price ($25 per share) at which common stock is changing hands between the former owners and the new interests, the common and preferred stock of the Company indicate in the aggregate an equity of over one and one-half times the principal amount of the Debentures to be outstanding.

A portion of the Debentures may be issued to former shareholders of the North American Light & Power Company (Maine) in connection with the reorganization, in which case the Company will receive cash on account of common stock equal to the cash it would have received had such Debentures been sold by the Company.

Purpose of Issue: The proceeds of the Debentures sold by the Company (and cash received for any common stock so issued) will be used to retire the entire issue of notes of this Company known as North American Light and Power Corporation 7% Secured Notes and the preferred stock of North American Light & Power Company (Maine), to furnish additional working capital, and for other purposes in connection with the reorganization of the Company.

Management: Arrangements have been made whereby, on completion of the reorganization of the Company (of which the issue and sale of the foregoing Debentures constitute a part) the Middle West Utilities Company and The North American Company will each acquire a substantial interest in its common stock. It is believed that this affiliation with two of the foremost public utility interests of the country will permit of new economies and promote increased efficiencies in operation. Mr. Clement Studebaker, Jr., and his associates will also become holders of a substantial interest in the new common stock and Mr. Studebaker will continue as President in active charge of the operations of the Company.

These Debentures are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us and all legalities in connection with this issue will be passed upon by Messrs. Pam and Hurd of Chicago, for the Bankers, and Messrs. Defrees, Buckingham & Eaton, of Chicago, for the Company. Interim Certificates of the Trustee or Temporary Debentures will be ready for delivery on or about August 20, 1926.

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS

Wednesday, Aug. 11, 1926.

Day's sales............ 22,000 Year ago.............. 33,000 Total, 1926........ 6,990,000 Year ago............ 8,144,353

Chicago stocks were mainly weak yesterday, the exceptions being Thompson, Stewart-Warner, and Evans. Thompson closed ¼ higher and Stewart-Warner and Evans each advanced a point to 75 and 30, respectively. Rumors were current that Evans directors will place the stock on a $3 basis soon. Yellow Truck was down a point to 31½ and Swift International was off ⅝. On small sales Adams Royalty, U. S. Gypsum, and Great Lakes Dredge each declined 2 points and Beaverboard preferred and Kraft Cheese were each a point lower. Directors of U. S. Gypsum declared an extra dividend of $1. Reo Motor gained 2⅜ and Northwest Utilities preferred was up 2 points. The governing committee listed 32,000 shares of the American Furniture Mart Building corporation, 60,000 shares of class B, $5 par, of the E. S. Evans company, and 40,000 shares of class A stock, no par, of the Hartman corporation. An additional $3,000,000 of certificates of deposit for first mortgage bonds of the Chicago Railways company was also listed.

COTTON REPORT BEARISH

A favorable showing was made by the weekly government crop report, which led to selling and a sharp decline in values. The close showed losses on futures in Chicago of 27@40 points, and in New York of 39@45 points. Spots in New York were 40 points lower at 17.85c, and in New Orleans 34 points down at 17.36c.

Some large selling orders were executed, one house selling 15,000 bales for December. Buying support was poor until inside figures were reached, when it increased slightly. Hedging pressure is increasing and it is expected to continue. Prices in leading markets follow:

The reaction, which covered practically the entire list, reached its climax in the last few minutes of trading, and followed an early period of strength during which many issues had been marked up 1@9 points. These early gains were wiped out, for the most part, and replaced with net losses ranging from fractions to 6 points.

In the absence of any large overnight accumulation of selling orders after yesterday's drastic break operators for the rise started to mark up prices soon after the opening. They were aided by a plentiful supply of call money around 4¼ per cent and a favorable quota of trade news, including the announcement that freight traffic in the week ended July 31 had attained a new high level for the year.

General Motors Sags.

General Motors, which has been the feature of recent markets, opened 1½ points higher at 208, crossed 212 before midday, and then broke to 203, closing at the bottom. U. S. Steel common was hammered down from 151⅝ to 147⅝ and then rallied to 148¾, off 1⅜ points net. Extreme nervousness characterized the trading in these two issues, due to the uncertainty as to what dividend action will be taken by General Motors directors at their meeting tomorrow.

Professional traders were of the opinion that General Motors dividend action is likely to determine the immediate trend of prices. Hope is still held out for a stock dividend of 50 per cent and a cash extra of $3 or $4 in addition to the regular payments.

Some Gains Are Held.

Among the few stocks which were able to maintain part of their early gains were American Agricultural Chemical, American Safety Razor, Brooklyn Manhattan Transit, Interborough Rapid Transit, Murray Body, Shubert Theaters, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, and Ward Baking B. R. H. Macy, Butterick, and Norfolk and Western attained new 1926 highs. The sharpest breaks took place in such issues as Air Reduction, American Brake Shoe and Foundry, Baldwin, Manhattan Electrical Supply, and National Lead, all off four points or more.

Call money held steady at 4½ per cent all day. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged. Foreign exchanges moved irregularly lower. Renewed selling of French francs carried them down several points to around 2⅝ cents, with sympathetic declines in the Belgian and Italian rates. Demand sterling eased slightly to around $4.85 11-16. Scandinavian exchanges were firm.

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following Joint Resolution of the Fifty-fourth General Assembly, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Illinois, which proposed amendment will be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on November 2, 1926.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4.

RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Illinois, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That there shall be submitted to the electors of this State for adoption or rejection at the next election of members of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, in the manner provided by law, a proposition to amend Article IX of the Constitution by adding thereto an additional section to be known as section 14 of Article IX, as follows:

ARTICLE IX.

Sec. 14. From and after the date when this section shall be in force, the General Assembly shall have authority to provide by general law for the levy and collection of taxes for public purposes upon persons, property and income, free from the limitations contained in sections one (1), three (3), nine (9) and ten (10) of this article. Taxes levied under the authority of this section shall be uniform upon all persons, property or income of the same class. All real estate shall be in one class, except that mineral land and land devoted to reforestation may be in different classes. Exemptions from taxation may be established only by general law. This section shall not affect existing exemptions established by law under the authority of section 3 of this article. Taxes by valuation under the authority of this section shall be based upon a value to be ascertained by some person or persons to be elected or appointed in such a manner as the General Assembly shall direct, and not otherwise. No act for the imposition, increase, continuance or revival of a tax under the authority of this section, or for the establishment of exemptions under the authority of this section, shall become a law without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to each house.

Adopted by Senate May 27, 1925, and House Amendment concurred in on June 16, 1925.

J. H. Paddock, Secretary of the Senate. — Fred E. Sterling, President of the Senate.

B. H. McCann, Clerk of the House. — Robert Scholes, Speaker of the House.

The form in which the proposed amendment to the Constitution of Illinois is to appear upon the official ballot at the general election on November 2, 1926, is as follows:

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT BALLOT.

Proposed Amendment Adding Section 14 to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Illinois.

This proposed amendment imposes no new taxes. It affects no existing exemptions from taxation. The provision concerning the "two-thirds" vote (contained in the proposed Section 14) applies only to such future tax and exemption legislation as may be pursuant to, that is "under the authority of this section." It does not apply to past legislation, nor to such future legislation as may be under the general powers of the General Assembly nor as may be only under one or more of the old thirteen sections. The rates under new methods of taxation authorized by the amendment will require a two-thirds vote. The proposed amendment permits two-thirds of the members of the two houses to adopt methods of taxation, free from limitations in the present Constitution, adopted fifty-five years ago, which now prevent an equitable adjustment of the burdens of taxation. For this reason the two houses of the General Assembly propose this amendment to the people.

For the proposed amendment adding Section 14 to Article IX of the Constitution.
Against the proposed amendment adding Section 14 to Article IX of the Constitution.

CAPITOL BUILDING
Springfield, Illinois.
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

I, LOUIS L. EMMERSON, Secretary of State of the State of Illinois, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, being a proposed amendment adding Section 14 to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Illinois, and the form of the official ballot to be used in submitting the same to the electors of this State at the general election to be held on the second day of November, A. D. 1926, the originals of which are now on file in this office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and affix the Great Seal of the State of Illinois. Done at my office in the Capitol Building, at the city of Springfield, this 9th day of July, A. D. 1926 and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred fifty-first.

Murray Body Corporation

To Creditors and Stockholders:

A substantial amount of the indebtedness and stock of Murray Body Corporation has been deposited with the undersigned Committee under the Plan and Agreement of Reorganization dated June 15, 1926, and at the request of holders of undeposited indebtedness and stock, the Committee has extended the period within which it will receive deposits to August 21, 1926.

An early effectuation of the reorganization is so clearly in the interest of creditors and stockholders, that in order to permit the Committee to proceed expeditiously therewith, the Committee is obliged to state that it will not accept the deposit of any indebtedness or stock after August 21, 1926, except upon such terms as in its discretion it may prescribe.

Dated: August 11, 1926.

GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

Mr. R. A. Pratt, President of the Company, summarizes in a letter addressed to us as follows:

Territory and Business: The Electric Public Service Company, a Delaware corporation, will serve without competition, directly through its subsidiaries eighteen communities in Ohio and Oklahoma with electric light and power and two additional communities in Oklahoma with natural gas. Findlay, Ohio, will also be supplied with steam heat as well as electric light and power. The Company serves a population of approximately 65,000 with electric light, power and gas, and has 8,016 electric customers, 3,307 gas customers and 192 steam heating customers. A subsidiary of the company also furnishes electric railway service in Findlay and operates a profitable freight and passenger service between Findlay and Toledo, Ohio.

The sources of net revenue of the properties are as follows: Electric Light and Power 77.5%; Gas 11.8%; Railways and Steam Heating 10.7%.

Security: These Three-Year 6% Gold Notes will be, in the opinion of counsel, the direct obligation of Electric Public Service Company, as are the $450,000 Three-Year 6% Notes already issued.

The properties of the Company have been examined by independent public utility engineers and the appraisals show a value considerably in excess of the total amount of bonds, notes and preferred stock to be presently outstanding.

Three-Year 6% Gold Notes (including this issue)		$1,350,000
Fifteen-Year 6% Secured Gold Bonds—
Series A	$ 700,000
Series B	2,000,000	$2,700,000
7% Preferred Stock $100 par value		500,000
Common Stock, no par value		20,000 shs

NOTE: In addition to above there will be outstanding $192,000 par value 5% Bonds and $486,000 par value 6% Bonds and less than 10% of the Capital Stocks of a subsidiary company.

Earnings: The earnings of the Electric Public Service Company and subsidiaries for the year ended April 30, 1926, were:

Gross Earnings	$1,184,296.67
Operating Expenses, maintenance, taxes and prior charges	787,025.73
Net Earnings	$ 397,270.94
Annual Bond interest requirements	162,000.00
Balance	$ 235,270.94
Annual interest on outstanding Three-Year 6% Gold Notes, including this issue	81,000.00

Net earnings, as shown above, are over 2.9 times the total annual interest charges on all outstanding Three-Year 6% Gold Notes of the Company.

Purpose of Issue: The proceeds from the sale of these notes will in part provide funds for the acquisition of property, and for other corporate purposes.

Management: The operations will be in charge of men successful in public utility activities and in addition will be under the experienced supervision and direction of Mr. R. A. Pratt, President of Electric Public Service Company.

All legal details incident to this financing will be passed upon and approved by Messrs. Chapman, Cutler & Parker of Chicago. Valuations by Messrs. Day & Zimmermann, Inc. Messrs. Haskins & Sells have audited the books and accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries.

We offer these notes when, as and if issued and accepted by us, and subject to approval of counsel.

AUGUST REPORTS SHOW CONTINUED TRADE EXPANSION

Favorable news of trade and industry again stood to the fore yesterday, and reports from several basic sources indicate that this year stands fair to surpass 1925 by a considerable margin.

On top of the announcement that the increased sales of steel last month were without precedent comes the reviews of the iron and steel trade, which point out that this remarkable condition has run right along into August thus far. Further evidence of good business is shown in the August review of industry issued last night by R. D. Cahn, Illinois bureau of labor research, who states that the customary slump in industry has been noted for its absence in Illinois this summer.

Employment in Illinois is already six per cent above the state for a year ago and five per cent higher than two years ago, according to the survey. The regular swell of operations in industrial establishments is still in prospect and workers of the state have the best outlook for the fall in several years the figures reveal.

Eleven Mines Reopened.

During the last month eleven mines the pay rolls of which contain 5,000 names, have been reopened in the state. Factory employment during July increased in six of the nine major groups of industries, according to Mr. Cahn, and in seven of the fourteen principal cities.

"Indications of substantial gains over July are not infrequent in reports of current conditions," the Iron Trade Review will say today. "A Chicago independent booked more than 50 per cent greater tonnage last week than in the corresponding period a month ago.

"A leading producer entered last week with the greatest tonnage of sheets of the present year excepting one period in March. New business in sheets for this maker at present is averaging 90 per cent of mill capacity. Strip steel business is reported 25 to 30 per cent better than in July."

Steel Scrap Prices Up.

The Iron Age will say: "As a triple measure of the unexpected betterment that has come to the western market this year, Chicago steel producers estimate that new sales, specifications and shipments of finished steel products from mills in that district in the seven months ended with July all averaged 12 per cent above those for the corresponding period in 1925. After several weeks in which dealer buying and selling of heavy melting steel scrap have been mostly in evidence, with sales of 40,000 to 50,000 tons in the east, the market is 50c a ton higher on this grade, and from 50c to $1.50 a ton up on other grades. Moderate sized buying at Pittsburgh has also advanced steel scrap there 50c. The New York, Buffalo and Cincinnati markets are stronger and more active. The present range of steel scrap at Pittsburgh, $17.50 to $18, is within $1.50 of the high of the year.

Gain in Retail Sales.

Total sales in July of 493 department and other retail stores which made preliminary reports to the federal reserve system from all sections of the country were 5.4 per cent larger than in July, 1925. Increases were general in all sections of the country, but the largest, varying from 6.2 per cent to 10.8 per cent, were in the New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Dallas federal reserve districts. Larger sales than last year occurred at 330 of the reporting stores, and smaller sales at 162.

WESTERN GRAIN MARTS PROTEST RAIL RATE CUT

Individual protests by a dozen grain market centers of the central west against institution on Aug. 25 of reduced all-rail grain and flour rates from Minneapolis to the Atlantic coast, announced voluntarily by the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad, were capped in Chicago yesterday with a blanket protest of western grain markets competing with Minneapolis.

The representatives of grain markets in Duluth, Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Louisville, Peoria and several other points united their efforts against the reduction, at a conference presided over by J. S. Brown, manager of the transportation department of the Chicago Board of Trade.

The protest drafted by the conference urged the interstate commerce commission to suspend the proposed new schedule, arguing that its effectiveness would give Minneapolis a position of undue advantage as a grain center and would destroy the grain and flour rate structure now obtaining from the Missouri river to the Ohio.

TWO OLD COFFEE HOUSES MERGE; ONE OF CHICAGO

The consolidation of two important houses in the coffee industry is announced. One is a pioneer Chicago company, Bell, Conrad & Co. The other concern in the merger is the W. S. Quinby company of Boston.

The consolidation is important to the coffee and tea trade for it represents in the merger one of the largest coffee roasting and coffee and tea importing and distributing houses in America.

Bell, Conrad & Co. was founded in Chicago in 1872 by J. H. Conrad and J. H. Bell and now has its headquarters at 417-427 West Ohio street. The Quinby corporation has offices in New York and Chicago in addition to its main plant in Boston.

Holden Sees Short Haul Solution in Motor Bus

New York, Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Hale Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, announced today that his company had completed a study of motor bus transportation and reached the conclusion that busses may solve the problem where short haul passenger business on branch lines does not pay. Private motorists are cutting into the passenger business of the railroads, he says, more than the busses. The Burlington, he pointed out, is testing 15 or 20 gasoline motor cars on short branch lines and they are proving especially practical for freight. He predicts that within the next 10 years gasoline motor cars will take on important significance in transportation.

KNOW THYSELF GOOD FOR CITIES, TOO, LEECH SAYS

BY HARPER LEECH.

How much do American cities know about themselves and each other? Despite scores of years of habitual statistical comparisons and hot rivalries, the tabulated statistics indicate that, what we do not know definitely, may exceed the sum of economic knowledge available for ready use.

Consider this. On the face of official statistics the value of Chicago manufactured products to Detroit's output stands in a ratio of 33 to 14. Now what does that tell us, about the two cities? Not much. The figures in fact may fool us.

Chicago's manufactured products come from over four times as many establishments as Detroit's. That means greater diversification and the greater business stability which always comes from diversification—yet in view of the greater stability of all business that is a difference which may not be so significant now as a few years ago.

The greater number of establishments raises a presumption of a greater value of human labor and skill per unit of production and a lesser cost of raw materials, which means more population, financing, more local trade and consumption per unit of manufactured output in Chicago than in Detroit. We know this to be true from other evidence. But on the other hand note that one Chicago packing establishment has annual sales about on a parity with the sales of the motor concern which has to date manufactured probably 40 per cent or better of the world's motors. Packing has a high ratio of value of raw materials to value of output and the labor cost per unit of sale is relatively small.

What is Chicago? That part and aspect of "Chicago" which now corresponds most closely to Detroit lies quite largely in Indiana. The world has gaped at the growth of Detroit. But Walter J. Riley, a leading banker of the Calumet region, has analyzed the census estimates of population growth since 1920 in a series of page copyrighted advertisements in the press of the Calumet district.

Massing the communities of that region into the "second largest city of Indiana," which is "next door to Chicago," he finds that the population growth of the region is greater than the rate of gain for Detroit, greater in fact than the rate shown by any of the largest American cities. The actual gain in numbers of people is greater than for 20 of the large cities of the country. The rate is 30 per cent greater than for Detroit, three times as much as incorporated Chicago's rate, and seven times the rate of New York.

The Calumet section of the Chicago metropolitan district, seat of several great and rapidly expanding basic industries, happens to be so territorially isolated that its census figures tell what is happening to population as the result of industrial advance. It is quite likely that similar rates of growth for population groups within the city of Chicago would be disclosed if we counted people in relation to their jobs as often as we estimate the growth of population by political divisions.

FINANCIAL NOTES

A syndicate headed by E. H. Rollins & Sons will offer today $15,000,000 thirty year 5½ per cent debentures of North American Light and Power company at a price to yield about 5.90 per cent. The financing is for the purpose of retiring outstanding securities and for working capital. The issue is incident to the reorganization of the company and represents affiliation, through stock ownership, with the Middle West Utilities company and the North American company.

The General Railway Signal company has received new contracts from the New York Central lines for an interlocking plant at Toledo; from the Missouri Pacific for interlocking machines and other apparatus; from the Chicago and Western Indiana for signals to be installed at Chicago, and from the Morgan, Louisiana and Texas for motor mechanisms at Morgan City, La.

Scrap steel prices have advanced 50 cents to $1 a ton, with activity greater than for several weeks, says a Pittsburgh dispatch. A mill in the Youngstown district has purchased 45,000 to 50,000 tons of heavy melting steel at $17.50 a ton. No more heavy melting is available at that price and the market is now quoted at $18.

Retail deliveries of the Buick Motor company for the fiscal year ended July 31 were 240,424 cars, surpassing the best previous sales of any year by 69,375 cars.

What are the SCRIPPS-HOWARD newspapers?

"I SEE by the newspapers." . . . The authority for nine-tenths of the popular opinion on all current topics of interest!

But what newspapers? Are you concerned with the character and the standing of your newspaper—of that medium which furnishes the background for those personal opinions by which you are judged?

Scripps-Howard is the hallmark of NEWS ACCURACY, sane and constructive LIBERALISM, editorial TOLERANCE and political INDEPENDENCE.

EDITORS of Scripps-Howard newspapers think straight and write straight. Their news columns are full of facts, but free from opinion; their editorial columns are full of logic, but free from demagoguery and vituperation.

NEITHER Pollyannas nor journalistic grouches, these newspapers are the focal point of every movement tending to make life more livable for the people of their communities.

SCRIPPS-HOWARD

These newspapers are good citizens of their communities. They are always too busy to quarrel with individuals, but never too busy to engage in a good fight for a good cause.

This is truly American journalism . . . Scripps-Howard journalism . . . a journalism which is well rewarded because its editors make their newspapers not only popular, but—respected!

AND confidence—the greatest reward which readers can bestow—is given in overflowing measure to the twenty-four Scripps-Howard newspapers by more than a million and a half families.

The Misty Pathway

By FLORENCE RIDDELL

SYNOPSIS.

Richenda Peterson, a London office girl, wins five thousand pounds in a newspaper contest and decides to spend her fortune in travel. The east coast of Africa holds the greatest promise of adventure to her, and she books passage for Port Mombasa. When the boat stops at Gibraltar Richenda goes off by herself to inspect the old town. She is annoyed by a native, who frightens her. Angus Brodie, one of her fellow passengers, rescues her from the man's unpleasant attentions.

Arrived at Mombasa, the first person Richenda sees is Brett Fairways, a noted explorer, whose face has haunted her dreams. She is introduced to Fairways by Lucille Davenant, a widow, who has deliberately sought the acquaintance of the girl. Mrs. Davenant and Fairways invite Richenda to join them on a hunting expedition. They start the journey into the interior together.

INSTALLMENT XVII.

A STRAIN ON FRIENDSHIP.

Richenda Peterson, though naturally generous, had Scottish blood in her veins and once or twice that blood had hinted to her that Mrs. Davenant was imposing upon her. Of course, Lucille was delightfully careless.

"O, Dickie darling," she would say, "I must square up with you!" But somehow she rarely did square up and even then she forgot quite sixty per cent of her indebtedness and the sums were so various and so small that Richenda could never quite bring herself to mention them.

Nevertheless, there had been that little matter of the five guinea jumper nearly a fortnight ago. Lucille had worn that jumper several times. She seemed to have forgotten the fact that she had not repaid Richenda the price of it. And there was the scarlet sunshade as well, and there would have been an ivory necklace, too, but, unfortunately, Richenda had begun to develop East African memory and leave her purse behind as well.

She couldn't bring herself to ask for repayment of these odd sums. It was weak, of course, but she hated the awkwardness of the whole position. It was much easier to be forgetful as well.

And, of course, Lucille was always talking about paying up—but somehow she never quite got there. And Richenda, who, in most unbusinesslike manner, did not keep account of what she spent, had begun to be decidedly hazy as to exactly how much Mrs. Davenant really did owe her.

Occasionally she pulled herself up with a jerk. Her money seemed to be going very fast. Five thousand pounds had appeared a tremendous amount back in England, but out here . . . Richenda's thoughts became disturbed. No—she didn't think Lucille quite played the game.

She looked at the little rouged face before her now.

"You see, dear, it's awfully awkward," soft tones assured her. "Most of my income came from Auntie Joan and now I shan't get a cent until the estate is cleared up and settled. Then, of course, I'll get a tremendous lot. But these solicitor men never will hurry. It'll take quite three months . . ."

"Eight," said Richenda, who knew something about these things.

"Oh!" Mrs. Davenant gave a cry of dismay. "Surely not so long as that!"

"But what on earth shall I do? It's frightfully awkward. Of course, Brett would help. But you know, Dickie, one does feel rather dreadful if one borrows from a man. Besides, I'm not at all sure the poor darling has much to lend. Now if . . ." she paused and the silence held a definite question.

Richenda made no movement.

Richenda knitted her black brows. "I'll lend you twenty-five pounds, Mrs. Davenant," she began, and instantly wished she had used the Christian name. To suddenly address Lucille by her married title was, perhaps, a little gauche.

But the other was openly laughing now.

"Twenty-five pounds! Dickie, dear, it won't keep me for three days! You know that well enough. Darling"—Richenda noted that above the honeyed words her eyes were narrow—"darling, this bill alone is for fifteen hundred."

Richenda started. "Lucille," she said then, "just how much are you taking me to lend you?"

Mrs. Davenant hesitated a moment, launched her thunderbolt with studied coolness:

"Two thousand pounds," she said.

Richenda herself laughed then. "I think," she said, "you must know quite well how utterly absurd such a proposition is. I'm sorry enough, Lucille, that you put me in the abominable position of having to say 'no' to you. Nevertheless . . ."

The next quarter of an hour was a very unhappy one indeed for Richenda. Lucille had fumed a little, pleaded. She seemed to trade a great deal on the close but short friendship that was between them.

But Richenda quietly held her own ground.

"There is your mink coat," she said, "and your pearls as well, the emerald ring, the gold mounted dressing case. Why, you'd get at least a hundred pounds on that new squirrel cloak! And, you know, Lucille, if your aunt's will is all in your favor the solicitors will surely give you some sort of advance on it. Besides, weren't you telling me only the other day that you had stored a new car in England to await your return home? Cable the people to sell it for you. Perhaps Mr. Fairways and I can settle your hotel bill together for a week or so."

That was the precise moment when Lucille Davenant most undiplomatically lost her temper and said unpardonable things. She was sorry enough five minutes later. But that was just five minutes too late. Richenda had seen a new Lucille Davenant—a Lucille with the cloak of gay carelessness fallen away, the real Lucille.

And Richenda Peterson was shocked to the very soul.

Lucille was almost groveling in apologies now. But somehow those very apologies struck a false note. Richenda wanted to get away from the hard, set blue eyes. She felt hurt—shaken—uncertain of herself. She escaped to her own room at length and stood for a moment gazing into the mirror by the window.

"It is a lie," she addressed the reflection. "There wasn't any Aunt Joan! That woman is crooked. She meant to use me. She thought Richenda Peterson was a soft little tenderfoot who could be led by the nose. She has learned better now and she doesn't like it." A satisfied laugh broke from her lips. "She's trying to use Brett Fairways, too. I wonder if he sees it. Men are less suspicious than women.

"I wonder what I ought to do now. Cut away from them and leave him in her clutches?

"No—no—no—I don't quite think . . ."

No, most decidedly she didn't want to leave Fairways in Mrs. Davenant's grip. The great, big, trusting baby! It would be rather cruel. Then it suddenly struck her that had Brett Fairways been any other man she might not have felt this keen desire to remain in the company of these two.

She . . . yes, she liked Brett. Liked him rather a lot. Suddenly she found herself wondering just how much she liked him. The answer was disturbing.

Then she was back to the old question. Was this man whose face she had seen in her dreams going to play any real big part in her life?

She'd stay the course and see. She hoped that Lucille would not make that impossible now.

But honey could not have been sweeter than Mrs. Davenant.

"Dick—I'm an hysterical beast," she said. "Darling, I grovel in the dust at your feet. It was nerves—outrageous nerves! Dickie, I'd better 'fess at once to you. I do have these wretched outbreaks sometimes and then I say the most awful things to those I love the best." She dabbed a scrap of cambric into one eye and gave a little sniff. "Of course, dear, I was just worried to death! Dickie, I ought never to have asked you a thing like that. It put you in a beastly position. I—I didn't realize. You see I've always had such lots of money, it seemed the wee-est sum to me. I was at my wits' ends just then, Dickie—scared stiff—sort of felt myself 'on the rocks.'" She sighed, then suddenly brightened. "But, of course, you are right. The solicitor people are sure to advance me whatever I want. I'll cable today. I'll never speak of money to you again, darling, if you'll only forget my silly outburst and be friends."

GASOLINE ALLEY—A DELAYED WEATHER REPORT

Lofty Temple to Temperance Falls in Debris

Noted Edifice Makes Way for Bank Skyscraper.

Lofty in its design and purpose and in the ideal upon which and through which it was built, the W. C. T. U. temple at La Salle and Monroe streets, erected in 1890, is tottering to debris under the sledges and electric drills of an army of workmen who are demolishing it to make room for the 22 story home of the State Bank of Chicago.

Passersby watch the removal of the countless slabs of marble and recall that on each one is inscribed the name of what in olden days was referred to as a "white ribbon" firm, meaning contributors to the fund for the erection of the temple.

And they note the great block of granite, the ten ton cornerstone on which is the W. C. T. U. emblem, the date of the society's organization, 1874, and the smaller blocks of granite brought from every state in the union to line the wide entrance hall. When the solid block of granite is removed and the last of the foundation is gone the new builders propose to sink the foundation for the skyscraper two more stories down to provide a triple basement.

In the passing of the temple, Chicago loses one of the last works of John W. Root, and one of the finest examples of his architecture in the city, it is said.

Working with the sketches and the suggestions of the W. C. T. U. members, Mr. Root embodied in the building many features requested by the women who were determined it should be a structure symbolical of their respect for their leader, Frances Willard, to whom it was dedicated.

Records of the firm of Burnham and Root, which have come into the possession of Howard J. White, of the firm of Graham, Anderson, Probst and White, builders of the new bank building, show that the cost of the temple was $987,628, or about 39 cents per cubic foot. The bank's new home will cost about 60 cents per cubic foot.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmedtgen of Wilmette announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothea, to Alan C. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Collins of Philadelphia. Mr. Collins was graduated in 1923 from Williams and took his master's degree at Harvard. Miss Schmedtgen is a graduate of Wellesley and recently returned from a year's trip abroad with her parents. The wedding will take place early in January.

Urges Church to Proclaim Itself in Popular Press

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Religion must reach out as business has done and proclaim itself through the medium of the press, Dr. Shailer Mathews, dean of the school of divinity of the University of Chicago, declared here today. Dr. Mathews asserted that most of the present denominational journals were low in tone and gross misrepresentations of the denominations they purport to represent. He urged the forces of religion to seize upon the popular magazines and newspapers as an asset of contemporary religious life.

Italy Has 20,000 Families with 10 or More Children

That Static Was Jangle of Thirteen Millions of Out-of-Tune Pianos

The 200th anniversary of the piano finds America with no truly musical ear, A. G. Gulbransen, a piano manufacturer, said here yesterday before the convention of the National Association of Piano Tuners in the Hotel Sherman. The average piano in the American home has from ten to twenty "off notes," he said, and "not one American in a thousand can tell when a piano is out of tune."

There are 13,000,000 out of tune pianos causing the ether above the United States to shimmy in all sorts of false vibrations, Walter Klein, representing a manufacturing company, said.

"What with jazz bands screeching all over the land and the out of tune jangle of pianos in the American homes," he declared "the celestial orchestra must have to suspend operations whenever the world rolls past, yowling and filling the air with false notes. America will never really know what good music is until the piano tuner is honored and regarded as indispensable to musical life."

The tirade upon the neglected instrument, however, was softened in a tribute to Bartholommeo Christofori, Italian, who invented the piano in 1726, by Harvey Edward Freund of the music research bureau.

"The piano stands for the love, affection, and devotion of the family and the memories that cluster around are those of happy days, days of sorrow, and all of the home that is ever in our minds. For this we can be thankful to Christofori," he said.

Schenck Tells Plan for Movie House Here

Plans for a new $1,000,000 moving picture theater in Chicago, to be devoted to pictures alone without vaudeville or other attractions, were outlined yesterday by Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of directors of United Artists, at a conference at the Drake.

Music will be the only accompanying feature, in order that nothing may detract from the film itself, Mr. Schenck said. The new theater will house long runs of pictures starring Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin, and Norma Talmadge and other members of the United Artists.

A company was incorporated for $20,000,000 three months ago to finance the venture, Mr. Schenck said. Theaters of the same type probably will be constructed in New York, Detroit, Philadelphia, and Boston. Accompanying Mr. Schenck to Chicago was his wife, Norma Talmadge, who was en route to New York.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Vera L. Reitman, 6251 Blackstone avenue, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Where Asked.

The Answers.

Mrs. Mildred P. Harris, 1017 East 47th street, housewife.—I would rather be the holder of Miss Wills' title, because I am interested in tennis. My husband is a good tennis player, an expert, in fact. Miss Ederle's feat was something simply marvelous. But as for a bathing beauty, nothing doing.

Mrs. Jessie A. Beach, Fox Lake, Ill., housewife.—I would like to hold Miss Ederle's title. That was the most wonderful feat I ever heard of. To pit her muscle and brain against the English channel, and win, is accomplishing the marvelous. I swim, therefore know something about what it means. I would give a great deal if I could do it.

Mrs. Margaret Smith, 417 East 76th street, housewife.—Miss Ederle's title for mine. I think it wonderful for so young a girl to swim that channel, and doing it in better time than any man has. Any one can learn to play tennis, or to swim, but to swim across that channel is another matter.

Miss Florence Cohen, 4352 West Van Buren street, stenographer.—It would be nice to hold all three titles. Since that is quite impossible, I would prefer to be Miss America. All the world worships a beautiful woman. But I would want to have a beautiful mind as well, and to be talented in some direction.

Miss Evelyn Glenn Jackson, 1056 Winona avenue, actress. — Miss Ederle's title. It would take more than merely extraordinary strength and endurance to duplicate Miss Ederle's feat, which she did with strength to spare at the close. Miss Wills is a wonderful girl, a true sport, and a typical modern American girl.

Pied Piper to Play for Youngsters at Camp Algonquin

Years and years and years ago, they told the story of the Pied Piper of Hamelin town, whose magic flute so enchanted the children that they followed him away and went into a great mountain that opened before them and closed after them. And they never came back any more.

Next Sunday night the Pied Piper is coming back to play for the children out at Camp Algonquin, when the masque of the same name is presented on the grassy slopes of the lower camp, with the silvery Fox river and the wooded hills beyond for a background.

But instead of leading the children away from the camp, the piper is going to lead them a short and merry chase through the trees, after which he's going to return to the outdoor stage, and play for the program of old folk dances the youngsters have learned during their sojourn at Algonquin, so that the finale of the masque will be a whirl of polkas, curtsies, promenades and courtly bows.

THEATER

"Coal-Oil Jennie," a comedy by Frank Craven, will be used for the reopening of the Blackstone, September 6. The piece has recently been tried out; and reports reaching THE TRIBUNE are that it is good stuff.

Miss Iris West will in two or three days replace Miss June Walker as Lorelei in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

Ray Walburn, who has been acting the radio-announcer in "If I Was Rich!" is taking a week away from the play; and the rôle is acted pro-tem by Howard Gibson. . . . Mr. McGuire, the author-producer of the piece, says he will keep it in Chicago until October if somebody will let him have a theater or two: he is to get out of the Cort the 28th, to make room for "The Poor Nut."

Mr. J. J. Shubert, now in Chicago, says he wasn't foolin' when he recently announced that he would make known here a new issue of the Passing Show; and he doesn't state where it will be housed.

The 29th is now given as the date for "Love 'Em and Leave 'Em!" in the La Salle, and September 6, instead of the day before, for "The Vagabond King" in the Great Northern . . . It is hoped that "Kongo" may be ready for September 4 in the Princess, to reduce the conflict of Labor-Day openings.

Chapped Knees to Be Popular This Fall; Skirts Very Short

At least that is the first reaction of a mere male after gazing at the models displaying the colorful styles of the coming season at the National Garment Retailers' association in the grand ballroom of Hotel Commodore. For the skirts were very, very short.

Other tips picked up by the observer were:

The waist line is going to land below the hips, if it lands at all.

The flapper silhouette has joined the hoop skirt in the discard

These styles are authentic, the association said, because 7,000 firms have accepted them as the "prevailing mode for fall."

No Stage for Irene Unless She Loses All Her Money

New York, Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Mrs. Irene C. McLaughlin of Chicago, the former Irene Castle, returned to America on the France today. She brought back several trunks filled with new gowns and said that unless she lost all her money she would never appear again on the stage. "I have my husband and my child now to look after and am very happy," she said.

Cincinnati to Have Eastern Time All Year

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Cincinnati will have eastern standard time all year as the result of ballots cast at yesterday's primary election. Under an ordinance passed several years ago the city has operated on central time during the winter months and on "daylight saving time" in summer.

Army Captain Asks Pythians to Aid Lepers

$2,000,000 Wanted for Philippine Colony.

Capt. G. W. Spoerry of the United States army, stationed in the Philippine islands and now on furlough in this country, will take the floor this afternoon at the thirty-fourth biennial convention of the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias at the Edgewater Beach hotel. He will explain in detail the scope of what he terms one of the greatest humanitarian projects ever proposed to a fraternal order for its adoption—the eradication of leprosy.

Capt. Spoerry's address will be supplemented with lantern slides and will complement the recommendations of Dr. Frank B. Hiller of Kansas City, Mo., who yesterday introduced a resolution, signed by the Missouri representatives, calling for an annual assessment of $1 per capita for two years.

The approximate $2,000,000 thus acquired would be expended for the establishment of a colony at Culion in the Philippines, for the relief and cure of leprosy.

The resolution calls for the expenditure of $200,000 for a combined hospital and experimental station, where medical authorities from all parts of the world would be invited to search for new remedies or to perfect the serum which has been discovered within the last few years, and has effected many cures; the erection of a $10,000 home for the white lepers already of Culion, and an endowment fund of $1,500,000 of which only the interest would be expended for maintenance.

The leper colony now maintained by the government at Culion, Capt. Spoerry will inform his fellow members of the supreme lodge this afternoon, is pitifully inadequate. Having been inhabited for years by 5,600 lepers it should be burned to the ground, and comfortable houses provided for the afflicted, who now live in ancient and dirty grass huts. The medical staff formerly comprised only four physicians to minister to these people, but now numbers sixteen.

Dr. Hiller's resolution was referred to the committee on the good of the order, headed by Phillip T. Colgrove of Hastings, Mich.

The first order of business before the convention this morning will be the election of officers, in which a lively competition is expected to develop in the choice of a supreme vice chancellor, who according to precedent will assume the highest office of the organization at the close of the two year term.

Richard S. Witte, present vice chancellor, automatically will be elevated to the office of supreme chancellor today, succeeding John Ballantyne of Boston, whose term expires.

Too Often Mother's Reward for Work Is Blank Silence

BY DORIS BLAKE.

An editor of a popular woman's magazine asked many homekeeping women why they were not sold on their jobs. Here are their answers:

Being treated like children.
The lonesomeness of the work.
No visible competition; no one to censor tasks and credit them accordingly.
No praise or encouragement from the family. Fault finding if things go wrong; otherwise silence.

There were other reasons assigned to the homekeepers' discontent—but I have a notion all of them could and would be junked if the final one I give here were missing from the experience of wives and mothers.. Fault finding if things go wrong; otherwise silence!

Is there a business man who could establish a loyal organization with that system? Is there a young son or daughter employed in the business world who'd be happy working under an employer who never gave him or her a word of praise or encouragement?

We people out in the business world certainly know the tonicizing effect of a word spoken when we have done something our chief thought deserving of praise. A new day is born for us. A brighter future looms.

Yet mom can make a better shortcake than you'd pay seventy-five cents for at the best hotel, and you'll tell her you'll have a second helping—and that's praise enough. She'll serve you potatoes mashed to the queen's taste, but the queen in the household forgets to mention that she couldn't eat the water soaked spuds served her downtown because mother had ruined her taste for second bests.

So it goes with the many fine accomplishments of your good homemaker; her rewards are too much silence. Perhaps all that most of us need is to be reminded of how ungracious we really are!

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Incompatible.

"Dear Miss Blake: We like each other, but we quarrel. We have been going together for two months, even though we seem to quarrel on every date. Later we are sorry and promise never to disagree again, but we do. Are we tired of each other? Should we break up? MARY."

You'll soon grow tired of each other, for you can't quarrel continually and expect your friendship to last, Mary. Just remember you're both entitled to your own opinion, and let it go at that, dear.

HAROLD TEEN—CORRUPTING POOR PETE

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Yaffe and Miss Estelle Popp of Chicago were among the registrants at the London bureau of THE TRIBUNE today.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Stuffed Eggplant.

There are people who deride the use of bread crumbs with tomato. Perhaps it was Mr. William Allen White who mentioned the combination lately with great disfavor. Poor bread crumbs may, indeed, lower the natural excellence of fine tomatoes and in no small degree. Dietetically, such a mixture may fall considerably short of the truly desirable or best in tomato service.

But eggplant, which is a member of the same plant family as the tomato, is something else again. It has not the acid content that the tomato has, yet when stuffed, which means that bread or cracker crumbs are combined with it, some people speak almost excitedly of its deliciousness. Without waxing in the least enthusiastic about it, we can commend it because it is so different from ordinary fried eggplant—ordinary, notice—for a fried eggplant can be a mild and creamy confection in the way of a vegetable.

Meat may be used in the stuffing, or we may make a dish quite purely vegetarian as follows: One good sized eggplant, one cup of stewed or fresh tomato, two stalks of chopped celery, one chopped onion, the needed amount of cracker crumbs, salt and pepper. Wash the eggplant, drop it in boiling water and cook till tender, then drain and cut it in halves. Remove part of interior so as to make a good shell, mix the part removed with the other ingredients, chopping them all well together, using enough cracker crumbs to make the mixture of good stuffing consistency. Place in shells, rub over lightly with butter, and bake in a moderate oven twenty minutes.

In an old cook book there is a recipe for baked eggplant which is prepared as above, except that the mixture contains a sprig of thyme, a sprig of parsley, a sprig of sweet marjoram, one tablespoon of butter, one-half an onion, one cup of boiled shrimps chopped fine, cracker dust, pepper and salt.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

Two year old Marilyn accompanied her parents to the home of a friend for dinner. Following the dinner the host passed a dish of candy around and then set it down. The entire group of adults was so interested in conversation that they completely forgot little Marilyn, who was sitting quietly by, wistfully watching the candy dish.

Her parents were shocked, but Marilyn got the candy.

C. M. T.

Roger, my only child, begged me to take him with me to see a three weeks old baby in the neighborhood.

When we went in, the mother sat rocking the baby, with two other small kiddies hanging on to the arm of her chair.

Roger looked at the tiny one for a moment then at the other two and remarked, "I des' your lap never dets empty, does it?" J. M.

Army Officers Find Warm Welcome in Chicago Society

BY NANCY R——.

Chicago hostesses here for the summer and on the lookout for available extra men, have the army of these United States of ours to thank for two unattached beaux who have, as it were, dropped right into the social lap this season.

Col. Henry L. Newbold and Maj. F. P. Colby are the two men brought here to the nondivisional reserve department for Chicago of the U. S. A. Col. Newbold is a brother of Mrs. Frank Noyes, who, some two decades ago, dispensed hospitality at the old brownstone house on Lake Shore drive, a few doors from the once impressive mansion of the MacVeaghs, and next to the S. E. Barrett ménage.

Major Colby, who hails from Boston and Manchester, is a cousin of Mrs. Billy Martin. She and her husband are seeing to it that the major finds Chicago a friendly and a pleasant place during his stay here. He is stopping at the Racquet club, while the colonel is, I understand, established out at Onwentsia.

No matter the playtime of the rest of the world, the work of the Chicago Play Producing company goes on. Arthur Bissell is still president of the organization, Mrs. George Porter and Ira Nelson Morris are vice presidents; Mrs. Morris L. Johnston is treasurer and Miss Helen Dupee secretary, while Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Morris Rosenwald, Miss Alice Roullier, the Joseph Ryersons, Benjamin Marshall and Dr. Ferdinand Schevill have been added to the board of directors, and Miss Helen Bennett, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Miss Helen North, Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, Robert Allerton and Frederic C. Bartlett are now on the list of founders.

The plans for the coming season have just been announced, with "Periphery," by Franz Langer, a Czecho-Slovakian, for the first production. Its engagement here will be followed by a performance of John Howard Lawson's "Processional," one of the Theatre Guild successes of 1924. A third Chicago play is still to be chosen. Marion Gering, official director of the company, is to direct all three plays.

Day's News in Society

A motor trip half way across the continent has no terrors for the modern girl, if the recent jaunt of Miss Muriel McCormick and Miss Jane Scriven is an example. Word was received only yesterday of their safe arrival at the camp of Miss McCormick's aunt, Mrs. Emmons Blaine of Chicago, in the upper St. Regis region, not far from the summer White House at Paul Smith's, N. Y.

The girls made the trip from Chicago unaccompanied save for the imposing if small Moony Woo, Mrs. George A. McKinlock's Pekingese. They stopped, after the fashion of the summer tourist, to see the Niagara Falls in its new dress of illumination by night, and they spent a night with Mrs. Noble B. Judah at Lake Number Four, her camp in the Adirondacks. They plan to remain a month at Camp McCormick, as Mrs. Blaine's place is known. Miss McCormick will pursue intensively her study of the voice, her teachers having preceded her east.

Miss McCormick will be joined next month by Mr. and Mrs. McKinlock upon their return from Europe. Miss Scriven will join her sister, Miss Betty Scriven, who is passing the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Charles C. Davis of New York, who has a farmhouse in New Hampshire.

Of interest is the announcement herewith of the engagement of Miss Helen Mathews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shailer Mathews of 5736 Woodlawn avenue, to Lewis Miller, son of Mrs. Robert A. Miller of Pelham Manor, N. Y. Dean Mathews and his family are popular members of the University of Chicago circles by virtue of his long connection with the university and their hospitable house near the campus.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury Garrard B. Winston, whom Chicago still claims in spite of his residence in Washington, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury Blair at Newport. Mr. Winston is unable to leave the capital for more than a few days during the absence of Secretary Mellon, who is in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Corbin of 20 West Burton place are visiting Mrs. Corbin's mother, Mrs. James B. McJay of Detroit.

Miss Eleanor Hard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hard of Washington, is spending several weeks with Mrs. Medill McCormick on her ranch in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrow Bruce Fulton of 57 West Burton place, who accompanied the Kimball Salisburys east a week or so ago, made a brief stay at Poland Spring, Me., before their return to Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Gurnee Fellows of 4439 Kenwood avenue, accompanied by their son, Woodward Fellows of New York, have left on a month's motor trip in Canada.

Mrs. Douglas Rankin and small daughter, Florence, of Hartford, Conn., are visiting Mrs. Rankin's mother, Mrs. Laurence Hallberg of the Belmont hotel.

Mme. Georges Thenault, the former Sarah Spencer, daughter of the late Judge Oliver N. Spencer and Mrs. Spencer of Chicago, is spending the summer at Osterville on Cape Cod. Maj. Thenault, assistant military attaché for aeronautics of the French embassy, will join Mme. Thenault there this month, and they will return to Washington early in September.

Sally Entertains Today with Party at Majestic Theater

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

This is our day, Majestic winners, and we'll have a delightful afternoon, I can promise you.

There's no need to tell you more than I have about the acts—Odiva and the trained seals, the Boganni company and their bakery act, Al Bernivici, Billy Miller and his company, West Gale and Kane, Lew Hawkins, the Marimba Duo, dainty June Novak and her newsboys. It will be a great vaudeville bill.

I'm sure you're as anxious as I am to be there and have it start. There are some surprises, too, but I won't spoil them by telling you.

Now about the Rodeo party, next Thursday. I'm picking the lucky hundred winners this morning. It is not often that we have a chance to see a world's championship rodeo and cowboys and cowgirls in action. Watch the paper Sunday to see if your name is included in the list of winners.

Here are two of the winning letters:

"Dear Sally: Whoopee! Let 'er buck! Ride 'em, cowboy! These constant shouts from the spectators encourage the cowboys and cowgirls to do their very best to please and at the same time strive to annex the championship, showing clean sportsmanship that boosts the west. All this I expect to see if I win an invitation.

"To see those men hanging on to those bucking bronchos and wild steers would make a person's blood tingle with excitement. And the roping contests would hold the interest of all, as least it would to me. So I'll be waiting and hoping for one of your generous invitations. I am 14 years old and love horses and cowboys. Your friend, T. F."

"Dear Sally: I am a great reader of cowboy stories, many of which contain terribly exciting accounts of broncho bucking and steer riding [usually conquered by the hero] and to see them acted out in real life would be wonderful.

"We Chicagoans are all so terribly proud of Soldiers' Field and to visit the Rodeo and it at the same time would be especially fine. Sally, I'm trying my hardest to be included. Hopefully, D. H."

Children to Present Safety Pageant Today

Washington park will be the scene of the Pilgrimage to Safety, the pageant prepared by the 400 students of the eight summer recreational centers, this afternoon at 2:30. Each center has worked out an episode representing some particular peril that menaces the health and life of children. At the end of each movement two knights of mercy representing the unselfish interest in others will rescue the children. The score of the pageant was written by Miss Elizabeth Waterman, director of drama at the Burr center.

The Skin's the Thing in Beauty Circles—So Give It Care!

by Ardenne Bromfield

I don't know whether the great amount of advertising directed at woman's complexion is responsible, but the skin does come under the keenest observation when relative beauty points are discussed.

"Margaret has precious eyes, hasn't she?" said one.

"Yes, her eyes are lovely, but her skin isn't so fine. I think Mabe is much more attractive. She has the most beautiful skin I ever saw."

It isn't enough that it be clear of blemishes to pass the analytical eye. It must be fine grained and young in texture.

There are a few lucky persons born with this heritage of beauty and whose worries about preserving it are confined to the simple matter of keeping it clean. Most of us have to wage a constant battle to keep the pores free of dust and grime and makeup. Some of us have inherent tendencies to excessive oiliness and others of us to excessive dryness of the skin. The ills attendant upon faulty digestion register on other faces in sallowness or grayness of the complexion.

In the light of today's scrutiny, it is a constant vigil to have the face presentable in a searching sunlight. In other words, we have to work for a fine skin, or we do not register in complimentary fashion.

It used to be that women did not become deeply concerned about their faces until they got along about 30, when the lines began to etch themselves around the eyes and mouth. But now the 17 year olds are gazing into their mirrors with a supercritical eye. And for ever so slight a blemish they rush for a remedy.

It is a wise young woman who begins the work of preserving her complexion early. Time spent in the early twenties is an investment from which she will reap benefit in the late thirties and forties. It is all in getting the habit of giving a couple of minutes nightly to massaging face and neck. Where there is a tendency to dryness this early precaution is most advisable. A little cream should be rubbed on nightly to supply that necessary oil, without some of which a skin will be bereft of resiliency, smoothness and youth.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

D. F. R.: CAMOMILE TEA MAY BE applied to the hair with a brush after shampooing the hair or it may be added to the last rinse water. It is quite harmless. Steep a little of the tea in boiling water and then allow it to cool. Directions for shampooing may be had for a stamped addressed envelope.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Aug. 11.—[Special.]—William H. Vanderbilt, who was at the Madison, has returned to Newport. His mother, Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons, has gone to Tuxedo Park to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tuck French, for a few days before going to Newport.

Viscount Astor and his son, William Waldorf Astor, are at Lake Louise, in the Canadian Rockies, on their return trip from California. Later they will join Lady Astor, who is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, at Indian Landing, Dark Harbor, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bernard Philipp have arrived at the Plaza from their country home, Rocky Hill, at Ipswich, Mass.

Simple Ways Are Always Smart Ways

By Helene Geron

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondent.]—We hear much on all sides of tunics, flares, aprons, tiers, capes, and the like; of the following silhouette, of the intricacies of the new lines; of the styles that go to wildest extremes to focus themselves in the spotlight of fashion. But be not unduly exercised thereby. There are styles that tread the simple way as well—styles in good standing, not to say the best.

But it is the way of a misleading simplicity that reaches its goal of ultimate smartness by quite devious and different paths. For a straight line dress is no longer what it once was. No, indeed. It is no longer two pieces that look as much alike as twin sisters. It now has a sophisticated simplicity that calls forth all the ingenuity of our most clever designers.

Here, for instance, is a straight line smartly simple, apparently guileless little frock. But see how cleverly the band that defines the low waistline turns into flat box pleats in its downward path each side of the center front. The plaits are arranged to control any fulness through the hips and to give breadth and freedom at the skirt's edge. Regard the dainty little collar with its smart front tab. The sleeve is quite slim and is set accurately in the normal armhole. Crêpe satin is the material and red is the color—a new coppery-tinted red just the color of glowing maple leaves in fall. Now who shall stand up and have the temerity to say that simple ways are not smart ways?

Startled.

I quickened my steps to catch up with her and was just about to call her by name when I saw her pocket yawning open, displaying her purse to view. Thinking that I would teach that careless sister of mine a lesson, I slyly slipped my hand into her pocket and removed the purse. Then, stepping beside her, I placed my hand on her shoulder, and said heartily, "Why, hello, Nell! Where do you—," and there turned and faced me a startled young girl whom I had never seen before. L. K.

Both Blushed.

We were discussing the modern bobs. My friend said she thought her next haircut would be a "monkey bob." I was holding her hair over her face to see the effect and quickly said, Oh, you wouldn't look much different." The ha-ha which followed led me to see my faux pas, but I believe if you award this a dollar she and I had better pull straws, for I don't know which was the most embarrassed. Mrs. H. J. C.

WETS AND DRYS SHARPEN LANCES FOR OHIO JOUST

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Wets and drys viewed yesterday's primary results as making it certain that Ohio will furnish one of the principal battle grounds at the November election.

The wets won first blood by the nomination of Former Senator Atlee Pomerene as the Democratic contender over Judge Florence E. Allen, who had the support of the Anti-Saloon league. While Mr. Pomerene did not emphasize prohibition as an issue in the primaries, his opposition to the eighteenth amendment while a member of the senate was well known, and it was taken for granted that if elected he would join the group of senators who are advocating modification of present enforcement laws.

Nomination of Senator Willis on the Republican ticket made it a certainty that the solid support of the drys will go to him on election day.

Spoke for Anti-Saloon League.

Senator Willis is one of the recognized dry leaders in the senate and frequently took the floor during the past session to defend prohibition against attacks of the modificationists. He is a staunch supporter of the Anti-Saloon league and frequently has spoken for the organization.

Inasmuch as Mr. Pomerene has twice been elected senator from Ohio and is regarded as having presidential aspirations in case he wins this time, the wets are expected to exert themselves to the utmost in his behalf. His election on a modification issue, the wets believe, would be a powerful factor toward influencing sentiment throughout the country and in congress in favor of legislation permitting the sale of light wines and beer.

The Ohio primaries and the forthcoming elections may have a determining effect on the Democratic nomination for President in 1928. If Senator Pomerene should win over Senator Willis in Ohio, regarded as a pivotal state and also as a mother of Presidents, his fame would soar. He would become, overnight, a potential candidate for the Democratic nomination with whom both Gov. Al Smith of New York and William Gibbs McAdoo would have to reckon. Many of his friends take seriously the possibility that he might prove an acceptable compromise candidate.

Willis Supporters Confident.

The drys, on the other hand, are confident Senator Willis will be reëlected. They estimate that Ohio is probably dry by from 100,000 to 120,000 votes. They also are relying on the fact that Mr. Pomerene has incurred the opposition of certain elements of organized labor.

The drys see no reason why Senator Willis should not make as good a showing or better than Senator Fess, [Rep., O.], did when he defeated Mr. Pomerene by 50,000 votes in 1922, also an "off year" election. Senator Fess, like Senator Willis, is dry.

The wet and dry situation in Ohio is expected to be somewhat complicated by reason of the fact that Governor Donahey, who was renominated for a third term on the Democratic ticket, is dry. Because of this fact the Democrats hope to hold many drys in line for their entire ticket including Mr. Pomerene.

Pomerene's Lead Grows.

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Atlee Pomerene, on the Democratic ticket, and United States Senator Frank B. Willis, on the Republican, continued to pile up big pluralities for the nomination for senator, as late returns were tabulated.

In 7,670 precincts out of 8,634 Pomerene had almost 20,000 plurality over Judge Florence E. Allen. The vote was: Pomerene, 85,110; Allen, 64,517.

In 7,468 precincts Senator Willis had gathered the impressive total of 203,677, compared to 49,193 for C. Q. Hildebrant, Wilmington, his closest opponent.

MISS FAZENDA DIVORCED; IS NOT ENGAGED

Hollywood, Cal., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Louise Fazenda, screen comedienne, today secured an interlocutory divorce decree from her husband, Mason Noel, movie director, and took occasion to affirm that she is not engaged to Hal Wallis.

Miss Fazenda won her decree with her testimony to Judge Harry Hollzer, that "my husband went out the front door and hopped into his car on Aug. 14, 1923, and drove off and never came back. I got in my car and followed him, but his car was faster and I've never caught up with him since."

She had married Noel, then known as Noel Smith, on March 7, 1919, in an elopement to Santa Ana, Cal., when she was a Sennet girl.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Not All Profit

Static Turns Elmer Toward Near Stations

Russian Singer Gets Most of His Praise.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

An incessant barrage of static seriously interfered with reception from all but the closest of the nearby stations last night. There was not a large fund either of musical or oratorical material in radio's fountain to draw from

On such a night I personally should have liked to listen long to nearby KYW. Their 7 to 8 o'clock programs are now always drawn upon.

Their 8 to 10 Congress and Edison studio programs apparently are formal dress affairs.

Yet there was lacking the finish to make them a success. Their talent is high class, but in this day of advanced program building their artists cannot do justice to themselves. Alternating solos by voice or instrument mean but little today to the public or for the artist. It is recitals that count.

We had one honest to goodness magnificent vocal recital, that by Serge Borowsky, Russian baritone of the Moscow opera, WMAQ, 9 to 9:30. The power and grandeur of the great Russian singers was here in full measure. The beauty of this voice was perhaps best seen in the familiar Volga Boatman song, but it was felt at all other ments during the singing of the less familiar and the unfamiliar.

And we had an orchestra concert, that of the Arabian Nights' Entertainment, W-G-N, 8:45 to 10. Here we had an hour and a quarter—none too long—of the happy, snappy, breezy out-of-door (psychologically) pieces, those happy creations in major keys, swinging rhythms and catchy melodies. This program is every whit as good as a similar orchestral program which this station broadcasts weekly from New York, the ideal preference being the one which has the least oral accompaniment.

WLS broke up its routine in an interesting manner by broadcasting the Chicago Marine band concert at Columbus park by switching over to the Hotel Sherman for the two piano groups played by Moissaye Boguslawski before the national conference of the American Association of Piano Tuners and by sandwiching in numbers by competent entertainers at the studio.

And that's enough talk for tonight—this morning.

Municipal Judge Albert George yesterday performed a marriage ceremony for Frank Ritter, 57 year old blind violinist, and Mrs. Eva De' Principe, who is 25. The couple will reside at 10632 South Central Park avenue. For the last seven years Ritter has been a familiar sight on Michigan boulevard. A year ago his faithful dog, that had acted as his guide, was killed by an automobile.

HEAVY RAINS IN NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Rains in western Nebraska in the last forty-eight hours have caused considerable crop damage, washed out trackage, made roads impassable, and disrupted telephone service. In other parts of the state rainfall has brought benefit to crops or only slight damage.

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Thursday, Aug. 12.) (Chicago Daylight Saving Time.)

Headlining the list of week-end features from W-G-N will be a talk on Friday evening at 8:40 o'clock by John Clayton, Rome correspondent of The Chicago Tribune. Mr. Clayton, whose work has carried him through the entire south of Europe will be heard on "Scoops and Censorship." Later the same evening, the Rosenberg-Sangor boxing match at Cubs' park will be broadcast. On Saturday, W-G-N makes its first broadcast from the new Lincoln Fields race track, while on Sunday the rodeo in Soldiers' Field will be put on the air.

DANGEROUS DAN in town tonight! The heavy hitting bruiser who is to battle Sam of Sam 'n' Henry for the Jewels of the Crown boxing championship next Saturday arrives at 10 p. m. Don't fail to tune in for the colored boys over W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE station on the Drake hotel, and learn about the reception accorded the visiting pugilist by his rival and Trainer Henry.

Novelty syncopation programs from New York by the Eskimos and the Silvertown orchestra will feature the 8 and 9 o'clock hour this evening from W-G-N. Following Sam 'n' Henry there are to be further jazz tunes by Bobby Meeker and his Drake Hotel dance orchestra, Billy Beljean and his Purple Grackle orchestra, and vocal numbers by Pattison Coates, baritone.

This is book review day for the W-G-N Woman's club, and members will hear Edna Ferber's new "Show Boat" discussed at 3 o'clock in the charming dialogue of Jenny and Helen.

Florence Lucas, contralto, will be heard at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in a group of songs during the Lyon & Healy artist recital. Her accompanist is Erma Rounds.

STEER CLEAR OF BANK GUARANTY, N. D.'S WARNING

State Is Just Recovering from Crashes.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Valley City, N. D., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—Guaranty of bank deposits was a flop of purest ray serene in North Dakota, which now hoists a warning sign for other states—"steer clear of guaranty unless you can get a running start and pile up a big fund; never attempt it unless the banking situation is sound, and keep it out of politics."

When the bank crashes came a few years ago, they swamped the guaranty scheme. North Dakota was one of the first states hit by the epidemic. From 1920 to July 1 last, a total of 573 state banks closed, of which 33 reopened. On the average the banks were smaller than in most states and those which went to the wall had aggregate deposits of $30,341,000. The guaranty fund paid off the first two failures, and then was exhausted.

Loss Is $20,000,000.

As it stands, some leading financiers estimate that after final liquidation of assets, the loss involved will be around $15,000,000 and perhaps $20,000,000 or higher. The guaranty fund collects at the rate of one-fourth of 1 per cent on average deposits, which yields about $180,000 a year, and at this rate it would take a hundred years or so to pay up if no further failures occurred. So nobody is rating the guaranty idea much of a success in these parts—it has not worked as it has in Nebraska, where in fifteen years not a depositor in a state bank has lost a dollar.

Frozen assets caused the banks to go to the wall, when deflation came, and out here they went through the agony early. The state was not back of the guaranty, merely running the fund which was collected from the banks, but of late a movement has been stirred for the state to assume responsibility. So far the electorate seems to regard this proposal with a stony eye.

Situation in Good Shape.

Now the banking situation is said to be sound in shape. North Dakota was overbanked. In the United States the average is one bank to each four thousand people. In North Dakota at high tide in 1920 there was an average of one bank for each 800 people in the state. Now there are approximately 460 state banks to a population of 670,000.

One irony in the results of government in business in these states is that North Dakota seems to be left holding a smaller bag than South Dakota, where the regular parties took up the nonpartisan theories ten years ago to keep the league out of the state.

Schedule Trial of Texas Pastor Slayer for Nov. 1

Fort Worth, Tex, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Trial of the Rev. Dr. J. Frank Norris, charged with the murder of D. E. Chipps, lumberman, on July 17, will begin Nov. 1, it was decided here today at a conference of attorneys with District Attorney R. K. Hanger.

COOLIDGE ASKED TO AID GROWERS BY FRUIT LOANS

Seek Same Opportunity as Farmers Have.

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Aug. 11.—[Special.]—There will be an unprecedented fruit crop this fall, particularly apples, peaches, and grapes, Arthur R. Rule, general manager of the Federated Fruit and Vegetable Growers, told President Coolidge today in the course of a conference on proposed legislation to extend agricultural credit facilities.

The consumer will find fruit this year cheaper than ever before and it would be still cheaper were growers able to market all they grow instead of being compelled by inadequate marketing facilities to leave apples and peaches to rot on the ground.

The legislation Mr. Rule proposes would authorize the intermediate credit banks and agricultural credit associations to make loans to fruit and vegetable growers and general farmers on their crops during the period of production just as loans are made to cattle growers over a period of two and three years on stock they are fattening for market. This aid to stock raisers was given under an act of congress and Mr. Rule would have the benefit extended to all branches of agriculture.

The President did not commit himself to approval of this specific proposal but took it under advisement with the assurance that he favors supplying the farmers with adequate credit facilities.

"It is unfortunate for both consumer and producer," said Mr. Rule, "that the organization for marketing the fruit crop is inadequate. Only 20 per cent of the growers are in the coöperative organizations or organized at all."

Mr. Rule asserted that he believes that the President is the "best friend the farmer has." "During our conversation," said Mr. Rule, "the President related his farm experiences and talked on the farmers' problems with an understanding and sympathy that are convincing to any one who, like myself, has been raised on the farm and can't be fooled on that subject."

RODEO EXPERTS, HORSES, STEERS HERE FOR SHOW

Cowboys and cowgirls from ranches of the west and southwest continued to arrive yesterday with cow ponies, steers, and broncs for the second annual Chicago rodeo which open at 3 p. m. Saturday afternono in Soldiers' Field.

About 150 girls of the most skillful riders, ropers, and bull doggers are expected to enter the various events during the 9 day show, to fight for the $35,000 in prize money, aside from the sweepstakes, and the even more coveted world's championships.

Seven of the world's champions of 1925, already in the city to defend their titles are: Bob Askins, Ismay Mont., champion in bronco riding; Tad Lucas, Cody, Wyo., champion in cowgirls trick riding; Louis Jones, Cristoval, Tex., calf roping; Rube Roberts, Dewey, Okla., steer wrestling; Chester Byers, Fort Worth, Tex., trick roping; Buck Steward, Fort Worth, Tex., cowboys trick riding and Lorena Trickey, Prineville, Ore., cowgirls bronco riding.

Numerous fiction writers who specialize in western stories arrived yesterday to get local color and a dash of the wild west atmosphere for their writing.

The rodeo is expected to draw large crowds as the advance sale of tickets is breaking last year's records. About 100,000 out of town people, it is estimated, will attend.

Mrs. Wachowski, Kin of Banker, Dies in Wisconsin

Mrs. Mary Wachowski, 62 years old, 1810 North Wood street, sister-in-law of Albert Wachowski, president of the Marshall Square State bank, died yesterday at Stevens Point, Wis., following an operation for appendicitis. THE WEAR IS IN THE WEIGHT

SPRAY-TYPE Percolating is a real improvement over all other Percolator devices. It is designed to be used with standard straight-side Coffee Makers. Read about these exclusive features.

Improved Coffee Maker

Spray-Type Percolator Liner and Glass top protector

MAKING good coffee—getting all the rich flavor out of the bean—effecting a real saving and assuring perfect satisfaction, is so easy to accomplish with this new Lifetime Spray-Type coffee maker.

Here is a service item that every housewife wants. Most everybody likes good coffee. The old style percolator liner in most cases does not accomplish this. Perfect satisfaction is assured in this new Spray-Type fitting.

When the water boils it is sprayed over the entire surface of the coffee and starts a filtering process, extracting all the good coffee flavor. It makes possible a better cup of coffee from less coffee. Expect great things from the LIFETIME Spray-Type percolating device.

Dealers will gladly take two or three minutes extra time in explaining the new Spray-Type liner.

Another better LIFETIME unit for the American kitchen.

WHY PAY RENT? FOR LOVERS

of reasonably priced beautiful co-operative apartment homes we have developed a building of four and five rooms, such as you would expect to find only along the Lake Shore-dr. at $5,000 to $6,000 more than our prices.
There are four and five rooms having large canvased living rooms and big paneled dining rooms with Spanish bracket lights. One and two bedrooms, bright kitchens with built-in cupboards, large Universal gas ranges, and genuine porcelain enameled refrigerators.
A glistening white tile bathroom with showers, pedestal lavatory, built-in bathtubs. Excellent closet space; also cedar lined chest closets and other ult a-modern features.
The construction throughout the building, the halls, lobbies, etc., is the very best. Storage space and modern laundry facilities in the basement. The very latest Kewanee heating plant.
Can you imagine all this in the best section of beautiful Rogers Park, two blocks from the lake, with cash payments as low as $1,000 and monthly assessments as low as $47.50?
We have representatives there all day to answer your questions, but they will not urge you to buy. The apartments are at 1523-28 Fargo-av., one block from the Jarvis-av. L station and the Sheridan-rd. busses.
We sell to discriminating people only and invite your thorough investigation.

CO-OPERATIVE APT.

More practical and comfortable than a house; cheaper, lower upkeep and a more desirable location. It will increase in value more rapidly than a house, because building locations are limited in the Lincoln Park district, where most of these co-operative bldgs. are located.
We now have a 4 rm. apt., near the lake, east of Broadway, large, light rms., in-a-dor bed, which provides an extra sleeping room. An investment of $5,600 and $36.21 per month for all operating cost gives you a permanent home in the most desirable neighborhood in the city.
Why have Chicago families who formerly paid rent bought $100,000,000 of co-operative apts.? Our co-operative owners are 100% satisfied and none has sold his apt. except at a profit. Terms if desired. For further information see

The total monthly operating cost of a five room apartment under our 100% co-operative plan is as low as $117.84; and in the 7 room apartment as low as $169.40. There is only one Lake Shore-dr., and it unquestionably is the finest location for residential purposes in Chicago. Its convenience and beauty have made it Chicago's fashion center and one of Chicago's most attractive real estate investments.

THINK THIS OVER.

1. THE BUILDING IS ON A CORNER. There is no other lot on Lake Shore-dr. available unless one wrecks an expensive mansion.
2. THE LAND VALUE of the lot at 1120 Lake Shore-dr. HAS INCREASED 30% since we first offered these apartments to the public, but we are still offering them at the original price.
3. OVER 80% OF THE APARTMENTS ARE SOLD. The building is a thoroughly successful 100% co-operative project right now.
4. ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE. The names of the group who will be your neighbors are available to you.
5. THE BUILDING IS CONSERVATIVELY FINANCED. It has only one loan owned by the New York Life Insurance company.
6. A FEW APARTMENTS ARE STILL AVAILABLE.

The equities range from $12,800 up. You may purchase an apartment in this building with as little as $4,500, paying the remainder out of income rather than capital. This is the time to take advantage of this exceptional opportunity.

PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS, AND SCHEDULED PRICES WILL BE SUPPLIED UPON REQUEST.

Why not come with your family to the building and see these delightful apartments? There is no urge to buy—just courteous attention when you require it.
